Any person owning any of the above real property and desirous of paying the taxes of the same before the date of sale and thus saving said property from going to sale, will be required to pay the taxes, penalties and interest and in addition to the sum of 30 cents for each line and fraction of line used in describing said real property.

JAMES C. PARKER,
Sheriff and Tax Collector for Lane County, Oregon.

Sheriff's Notice.

Notice is hereby given that on or after the 3rd day of April, 1916, I will sell the above described parcels of real property to any person paying the taxes, penalties, interest and costs of advertising, and taking a certificate at the lowest rate of interest, maximum rate not to exceed fifteen per cent, said sale to be subject to redemption, according to law, at any time within three years from date of sale.

Dated this 2nd day of February, 1916.

JAMES C. PARKER,
Sheriff and Tax Collector of Lane County, Oregon.

In the states that have equal suffrage, lawyers have learned that it is not wise to put a man and his wife on the same jury.

Being a pusher has its drawbacks.

In this queer old world comedy and tragedy are strangely interwoven.

Smiles and tears, tears and smiles follow closely upon one another.

It is probably a mistake to say we do not see our own mistakes, but we do not talk about them as much as we do about the mistakes of others.

When we watch a dignified old hypocrite parade along the street we picture him as he becomes limp as a rag before the judge who sees the things beneath that starched outer covering.

If love wasn't so blind the girl would see through a lot of the excuses made by the man.

It's much easier to forget a person for a wrong done or a mistake made when he frankly admits it.

The person who can make a good speech is admired almost as much as a gridiron star and is not confined to any certain season.

The man who marries a girl for her wad quite often finds the interest rate pretty high.

We can all get jobs working for the upbuilding of the community—and the pay is both large and certain.
