Greta Bristow Is Bride.

Eugene Guard:
Charming in every detail was the wedding Wednesday night of lovely Greta Elizabeth Bristow and John Tremaine Tryon. Just at eight o'clock Miss Leah Perkins sang Luigi's "Ave Maria," and as the last notes died away Mrs. Alton Hampton took up the beautiful wedding march from Aida, and the bride and her maids descended the stairs. She was joined at the foot of the stairs by her father, Mr. Darwin Bristow, who escorted her to the improvised altar of palms, where she was joined by Mr. Tryon. Rev. John A. Moran read the service. The bride was attended by her sisters, Miss Evelyn as maid of honor and Miss Helen as bridesmaid. Miss Bristow was beautiful in a gown, made en train, of dutchess satin and garnished with silver lace and bands of pearl. Her veil was of point lace and was caught in place with pearls and orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of white sweet peas and valley lilies. A happy thought of the bride's was to give each of the guests a spray from her bouquet rather than to toss it. Miss Evelyn Bristow was much admired in her charming dress of pink pussy willow taffeta made up with a soft shadow and silver lace. She carried Killarney roses. Helen Bristow was dainty in her girlish frock of white lace with blue taffeta jacket. E. O. Immel was best man.

Immediately after the ceremony followed the reception which was attended by the close friends of Mr. and Mrs. Tryon. Miss Jessie Nottingham of Portland and Miss Mary Watson received the guests at the door and Mr. and Mrs. Bristow, Mr. and Mrs. Tryon and Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Tryon, the groom's parents, of Creswell, and the other members of the bridal party greeted them in the receiving line. Mrs. Bristow was gowned in electric blue crepe de chine and Mrs. Tryon wore black over green. In the dining room, which was dainty with its decoration of greens and pink carnations, Mrs. P. E. Snodgrass and Miss Elizabeth Tryon cut ices and Mrs. F. L. Chambers and Mrs. W. W. Bristow poured. Miss Veda Cross of Salem, a cousin of the bride, Miss Mary Chambers, Miss Sue Finerman of Portland and Miss Jeannette Calkins served, assisted by Mrs. C. F. Littlefield.

Floating about the room were Mrs. E. O. Immel and Mrs. Morris Starbuck. The rooms of the Bristow home were beautifully decorated with greens and pink carnations. Mrs. Tryon is a member of an old and prominent family, long resident in Eugene, and is a graduate of the University of Oregon. Mr. Tryon has been in the city some three years, having come here from Minneapolis. He is a University of Minnesota man and a member of Phi Delta Theta fraternity. Mr. and Mrs. Tryon are making their home at 1258 Washington street.

Out-of-town guests attending were: Mr. and Mrs. John S. Medley of Cottage Grove; Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Tryon and Miss Elizabeth Tryon of Creswell; Miss Sue Finerman and Miss Jessie Nottingham of Portland; Miss Veda Cross of Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Carol D. Miller of Harrisburg; Mr. and Mrs. K. K. Mills of Cottage Grove and Mrs. Harry Hendershott of Portland.

Mrs. Tryon formerly lived in Cottage Grove. The young people's society of the Presbyterian church met with Miss Jessie Smith Monday evening. The time was spent with fancy work, after which refreshments were served.

Mrs. Charles Adams was hostess Feb. 22 to a number of matrons in honor of her mother, Mrs. B. R. Job. Everyone radiated happiness and good cheer, for which the glorious sunshine and clear atmosphere were responsible. Sufficient diversion was found in conversation and games. The prettily decorated tea table was a surprise and pleasure, the decorations and flowers being in accordance with the spirit of the day.

The Emanon club met with Mrs. S. L. Mackin Thursday. The usual fancy work whiled away the afternoon, after which a dainty luncheon was served. Mrs. Van Allison will entertain the club next week.

Mesdames Miller, Cruson and Nichols entertained Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons of last week at the Miller home, which was prettily decorated with hearts and cupids. The valentine idea was carried out. Two course luncheons were served on both days. There were about 60 guests.

The Constellation club will meet Thursday in Masonic hall.

Mrs. Roy Smith entertained the M. P. G. club yesterday afternoon. The time was spent in conversation and fancy work, after which refreshments were served.

The Eastern Star will have a social night at its session this week. Mesdames E. A. Gleason, Rex Gleason, Chambers, Cruson and Frost have charge of the refreshments.

FADS AND FANCIES.

Box coats are best suited to figures with immature lines.

Long, narrow barrel mufflers are one of the old-time inspirations.

Serge is an absolutely safe material to select for fall suits.

The edge of jackets and skirts are bound with Titan braids.

Lots of cloth dresses are made in styles which permit their being worn for the street without any other wrap.

Black corduroy is said to be coming in for the shorter sports coats. They should be worn with white skirts.

Gros de Londres is a rich, old-fashioned silk, which is being revived for many uses — it even appears among blouses.

One sees the close waist, the drop shoulder, the flare, the extreme shortness and the puffed sleeve all in one gown.

The bell sleeve is accepted with enthusiasm.

Fur buttons are the latest touch on suit coats.

Yokes are a good deal used on the new tailored skirts.

Newest velvet hats are combined with crepe di chine.

Beavers and seal are very fashionable furs this season.

Cuffs show the cavalier, the gauntlet and flare styles.

Waists with convertible collars are among the best liked.

Plaid crepe blouses are something new.

Princess dresses are frequently belted.

Pink seems to increase in favor for corsets.

One sees lots of jet buttons used as trimming.

"Hanging pockets" on belts are still a feature.

Some of the new little velvet hats will go with anything.

A new box-pleated Russian coat has a tiny hood collar.

The annual coat of oil not only prolongs the life of willow and cane furniture, but it keeps it from becoming so dry that tiny splinters stick out.

Lima beans can be pulled while they are yet young and tender, dried in the sun and put away and kept for use at any time. They should be cooked before using.

When putting away white dresses wrap them in dark blue cambric to prevent them from turning yellow. Paper can also be used and can be blued by dipping in strong bluing water and dried. Fine centerpieces and doilies not in use should be kept wrapped in dark blue tissue paper.

Many steps may be saved if when preparing a meal you pin a small, clean hand towel to the apron belt on one side and a similar tea towel to the other side. Then, when needed, they will be right on the person.

TESTED RECIPES

This is the season of the year when green peppers are nearly perfect, for those that care for peppers here are a few novel ways of preparing them:

Succotash Peppers — Cut the corn from a dozen ears with a sharp knife, scraping down the milk with the dull edge of the knife; add to the corn a generous lump of butter, a cup of cream, a tablespoon of sugar, pepper and salt to taste. Cook in a double boiler until the corn is done. Boil enough lima beans to make a solid pint when done. Drain them carefully, add to them a tablespoon of sugar, salt, pepper and a little lump of butter and turn them into the corn. Have ready two slices of pickled pork that have been diced and fried a delicate brown; add the pork to the mixed corn and beans. Fill half pepper shells with the mixture, sprinkling a little grated cheese over the top of each; bake a delicate brown, but do not let them dry out, and serve as an edible garnish with roast beef. The remaining amount of the corn mixture may be served with the vegetable course or will warm up nicely for the next day's luncheon.

Clam Peppers — Steam open enough round clams to make a cup and a half, add to them a full cup of crumbs, a gill of cream pepper, pepper, a little salt and a tablespoon of grated cheese. Fill the shells with the mixture and bake. Serve garnished with spray of cress for fish course or luncheon entrée.

The accident happened in a dense fog.

The dead:
Professor Elton Fulmer, state chemist, Pullman, Wash.

I. J. Minnick, deputy oil inspector, Spokane.

FRUITGROWERS FORM NEW SELLING AGENCY

Spokane, Wash.—With the formation here of the Fruitgrowers' Agency, the problems affecting the profitable growing and marketing of fruit in the states of Washington, Oregon, Idaho and Montana have practically been solved, according to participating government experts.

Organization of the agency was effected and articles of incorporation prepared as the result of an all-day conference between fruitgrowers, representatives of practically every selling agency in the northwest, and experts from the department of agriculture at Washington.

The general secretary of the Fruit Growers' Agency, with offices here, will receive reports of all shipments and sales, gather information from eastern marketing centers, direct the assembling of pools, advertising, opening of new markets, and meet all other requirements of the growers.

The agency is open both to growers and shippers, the membership fee being $100. Passive membership is to be granted for $5. The control will rest with a board of trustees, half of whom will be chosen by the shippers and half by the growers.

ASTORIA GIVEN NEW RATES

Discrimination in Favor of Puget Sound Cities Basis of Decision

Washington.—The interstate commerce commission rendered unanimous decision sustaining the contention of Astoria that the present freight rates from the Inland Empire are discriminatory and unduly prefer Puget Sound ports, and ordering a readjustment, placing the Astoria rates on a parity with those to Seattle, Tacoma, and Portland as to a portion of the Inland Empire, and with Seattle and Tacoma as to other portions.

In summing up its decision the commission says:

"A careful examination of the record makes it clear that these North Pacific coast ports have closer geographic and economic relations, one to the other, than is at this time reflected in the tariffs of the defendant carriers and that the latter, in their present rate adjustment, unduly discriminate against Astoria and unduly prefer Puget Sound ports."

The Russian army which captured Erzerum is endeavoring to cut off the retreat of the Turks. Continuing their advance in Albania the Austro-Hungarians report the capture, near Bazar-Sjak, a short distance northeast of Durazzo, of an advanced Italian position. This is the first indication that the Italians were operating so far north in Albania, the belief having prevailed that their activities had been confined to the locality adjacent to Avlona.

The Germans have been operating vigorously against the British and French along the Yser canal in Belgium to the north of Ypres. From the British 350 meters of a position were captured and held, despite efforts to recapture it. After a heavy bombardment, the Germans attempted to cross the canal and occupy French positions and several groups did succeed in making their way to a first line trench. The French, however, immediately drove them back.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system.
