Son-Father Banquet.

A son-father banquet was given under the auspices of the Brotherhood of the M. E. church, in the dining room of the church, at 6:30 Monday evening. Seventy-two boys and men partook of a splendid supper served by the ladies' aid society of the church.

After the banquet a program was rendered in the auditorium. S. L. Mackin, Frank Wallace and A. H. King made short addresses, Gertrude Aldrich sang a solo, John Spangler and Edward Aldrich sang a duet and the orchestra played two selections.

The main address of the evening was by W. R. Jeffrey, a young man and a student in the Willamette university. He is a very fluent speaker for a young man and his speech was listened to attentively by the boys as well as by the men. The ideals held up to the boys will not soon be forgotten.

This was the second event with the object of more closely uniting the man and boy. The next one is planned for Monday following Easter.

Miss Alice Hawthorn of Tacoma, a field worker in the Woman's Home Missionary society of the M. E. church, addressed the ladies of that society here at the home of Mrs. B. S. Swengel Monday afternoon of last week. A large number of women were present, nine new members being enrolled by the secretary of the local society at the close of the address. A social hour followed.

Mr. and Mrs. DeLuer Hemenway entertained a few friends informally with a card party Thursday evening, followed by an appetizing two-course supper. Covers were laid for 12. The dining table and appointments were suggestive of spring with a pretty bouquet of violets and ferns as a centerpiece. Mrs. Burkholder assisted in serving. Guests present were: Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Swengel, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Lawson, Mr. and Mrs. A. Powell, Mr. and Mrs. Van Allison, Mrs. Clara Burkholder and Mrs. Jas. P. Graham.

The ladies of the M. P. G. club will entertain their husbands and a few additional guests with a leap year party Thursday night. Following a theater party will come various stunts and a supper.

Mrs. Herbert Eakin is entertaining the missionary society of the Presbyterian church this afternoon.

The pretty home of Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Swengel was the scene of an enjoyable "500" party Tuesday evening. Mrs. Swengel, assisted by her mother, Mrs. Jennie Fishburn, served a dainty three course luncheon at tables. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Bert Lawson, Mr. and Mrs. Leon DesLazars, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Monroe, Mr. and Mrs. DeLuer Hemenway, Mr. and Mrs. Van Allison, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Powell, Mrs. Clara Burkholder, Mrs. Jas. P. Graham and Miss Belle Burkholder.

Mrs. J. B. Protzman entertained last Wednesday for her daughter Helen with a birthday party. About 20 of Helen's school mates enjoyed games and guessing contests. The decorations carried out the George Washington idea, flags predominating. A birthday cake bearing twelve candles was part of the refreshments. A number of presents were received. Grandma Woods was an honored guest.

The Social Twelve club meets Thursday with Mrs. John Bader.

Mrs. Geo. Atkinson, Ardella Atkinson and Mrs. Chas. Beals were hostesses to the Constellation club Thursday. The afternoon was spent in the usual manner with fancy work. A short business meeting was held after which dainty refreshments were served.

Children's night was observed by the Rebekah lodge Friday. Refreshments were served and the children had a jolly good time.

Mrs. T. B. McDonald gave a dinner Saturday in honor of Rev. McDonald's 75th birthday anniversary.

The W. E. C. will meet with Mrs. Tompkins on Sixth street Thursday. There will be needle work.

Mrs. Van Allison will entertain the Emanoan club Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. DeLuer Hemenway was hostess at an informal afternoon affair Saturday afternoon. Following a social time with needlework, a two course luncheon was served. Guests present were: Mrs. Jennie Fishburn, Mrs. G. M. Hall, Mrs. J. E. Porter, Mrs. S. R. Brand, Mrs. A. W. Kime, Mrs. Will Hall, Mrs. Carrie Hemenway, Mrs. J. A. Wright, Mrs. J. H. Chambers and Mrs. O. L. Nichols.

Measures E. A. Gleason, Rex Gleason, C. E. Trask, J. H. Chambers and C. C. Orson pleasantly entertained the members of the Eastern Star chapter Friday night. After refreshments, an enjoyable social hour was spent. Special music for the occasion was furnished by Geo. Atkinson and daughter, Miss Della.

It usually costs as much to turn out a poor job of printing as a good one. The Sentinel turns out the quality stuff at the same price that inferior goods can be profitably produced.

FADS AND FANCIES.

Cooking canned fruit in the oven is easily and quickly done, while the fruit retains its shape, color and flavor better than when cooked in a preserving kettle.

Cover the bottom of the oven with a sheet of asbestos, the same as is used by plumbers for covering furnace pipes. This is very reasonable at any plumbing shop. If it is impossible to purchase the asbestos, use a large pan in which there is about two inches of boiling water. Thoroughly sterilize the jars and utensils. Make a syrup of the sugar and water as sweet as is needed. Prepare the fruit the same as for cooking in the preserving kettle. Fill the hot jars with this, pouring in sufficient syrup to fill the jar. Run the blade of a silver knife around the inside of the jar. (Never use a steel knife.) Place the jars in the oven, either on the asbestos or in the open pan of water.

The oven should be moderately hot. Cook the fruit ten minutes. Remove from the oven and fill each jar with boiling syrup. Wipe and seal. If the screw covers are used, tighten them after the glass has thoroughly cooled.

Large fruits may require about a pint of syrup to each jar of fruit. The small fruit will require little over a half pint of the syrup.

To protect any fabric from moths, bugs, or roaches, use the following solution: One-half ounce corrosive sublimate, one-half ounce gum camphor, five cents' worth of sassafras and one pint turpentine.

When drawing threads for hemstitching, wet a small brush, rub it over a cake of soap until a lather is produced, then scrub the threads you wish to draw and they will pull easily without breaking.

Wiping the surface with a soft flannel or piece of silk keeps down objectionable shine of the nose. If this does not help, try bathing the nose with hot water in which powdered borax has been dissolved, a teaspoonful to each pint.

Aluminumware can be polished with a mixture of borax and ammonia and water applied to the article with a soft cloth. Rinse well through several waters.

A very good filling for layer cake is made by mixing a pound of finely-minced shelled almonds with two eggs, a cupful of confectioner's sugar and a teaspoonful of vanilla.

Try rubbing the scorched marks on linen with half a raw onion, then wash in the usual way, and if the scorch is not a bad one, the linen will be white again.

When darning stockings, try running a thread around the hole, drawing the hole up until the edges lie flat. They darn much more satisfactorily.

Wash table linen by itself. Wash handkerchiefs alone.

An excellent silver polish can be made in the following way: Buy an ounce of jeweler's rouge, mix with a little water, rub into a chamois skin and dry.

Overboiled potatoes placed in a cloth and squeezed hard, can be mixed with flour and barley meal and made into scones. They should be toasted and eaten with butter.

To keep a kitchen table white wash it first with vinegar, then scrub it as usual.

Natural or "unpolished" rice is considered far more satisfactory than the shiny white kind.

To curl an ostrich feather, sprinkle it with salt and shake it in front of a hot fire.

Covered buttons never stand washing without some damage. It is a good idea to sew a stud fastener beneath each button and a corresponding eyelet to the dress, so that they may be removed for laundry purposes and slipped on again easily.

Every woman knows how hard it is to hang up a skirt so that it retains its original shape. Here is one way in which it can be done: Take an ordinary wooden coat hanger, and sew underneath the hanger two small brass hooks about an inch long. Place them at either side of the center hook, at equal distances from it. Hang the loops of the skirt on the hooks. A jacket can be slipped on the hanger without wrinkling the skirt.

TESTED RECIPES.

Rice Fruit Pudding—Put three cupfuls milk in a double boiler, add (when scalded) one cupful well-washed rice and let cook for thirty minutes. Do not stir. While hot, add one egg (well beaten) with one-half cupful sugar, one tablespoonful butter and one level teaspoonful salt. Cook five minutes more. Butter a pudding mold and sprinkle it with fine bread crumbs or line with macarons. Put in a layer of fruit, such as canned peaches, apricots or dried prunes, dates or raisins. All of one kind or a mixture can be used, as preferred. Then put in another layer of rice and fruit until the pan is full, having a thin layer of buttered cracker crumbs on the top. Put the mold in a pan of water and bake in a moderate oven twenty minutes. Turn out onto a platter or pudding dish and serve with a boiled custard sauce or with fruit syrup.

Smothered Round Steak—Try out in a hot iron frying pan three slices of fat salt pork, 3 by 4 inches. Add one onion peeled and cut in thin slices and cook, stirring constantly until onion is brown. Wipe a 2-pound slice of round steak, put in a pan, sear on one side, turn and sear on the other side. Pour over one and one-half cupfuls of cold water, bring quickly to the boiling point, add one-fourth teaspoonful of salt, cover closely, remove to back of range and let simmer until meat is tender. Remove steak to hot platter and strain stock, of which there should be one cupful. Melt one tablespoonful of butter, add two tablespoonfuls of flour and stir until well blended, then pour on gradually, while stirring constantly, the hot stock. Bring to the boiling point, season with salt and pepper and pour around steak.

Losses Horse in Runaway.
Matt Kruger, a new resident of Silk Creek, lost a fine horse in a runaway Monday. The horse started from the mill and fell over the embankment along Pacific highway. The leg of one horse was broken and it had to be killed. The other horse was severely bruised up.

Storm Deals Mrs. Coleman Hard Blow.
Mrs. Nettie Coleman, the little woman who is making such a brave fight on her Siuslaw homestead, is in the city. The recent severe weather played havoc with the livestock on her ranch. Not having made sufficient provision for such unprecedented weather, Mrs. Coleman lost 23 calves out of her band of 26. One cow and one horse also succumbed to the rigors of the cold snap.

This is quite a hard blow for Mrs. Coleman, who was getting nicely started after her struggle with adversity, yet she smiles through it all and pluckily starts out anew. Mrs. Coleman has come to buy a horse to replace the one she lost.

It will be remembered that Mrs. Coleman, deserted by a worthless husband, started overland from Oklahoma several years ago, with her five small children, to seek a home in Oregon. Her sole capital was $15, a brave heart and an abiding trust in the axiom that God tempers the wind to the shorn lamb. The story of hardships encountered on that journey to the promised land is still fresh in the public mind. Through kind friends who aided her, Mrs. Coleman and her little ones were finally located upon a Siuslaw homestead, and she has now carved out a home in the wilderness.—Eugene Register.

N. D. HARDY LOSES HOTEL SMEED SUIT

By a decree rendered in circuit court Monday, Stephen Smeed, owner of the Hotel Smeed, at Eugene, won his case against N. D. Hardy, former lessee of the building, and former Cottage Grove hotel man. He sued Mr. Hardy some time ago for a dissolution of the contract made between the two.

The findings of fact handed down by the judge show that on September 30, 1914, Hardy was indebted to Smeed in the sum of $2800. Hardy delivered to Smeed a promissory note and executed a chattel mortgage on the furniture of the hotel. March 6, 1915, the defendant, for the purpose of paying the indebtedness, agreed that the plaintiff should be the absolute owner of the property and the mortgage was cancelled. On September 5, 1915, he entered into an agreement whereby Hardy was to assist Smeed in the operation of the hotel, Smeed to furnish the hotel and equipment and Hardy to furnish the services and management, Hardy to receive one-third of the profits and Smeed two-thirds, in addition Hardy and his wife getting their board and lodging. Prior to December 31, 1915, the plaintiff gave notice to Hardy that he desired to terminate the contract, but the latter refused to relinquish. Afterwards a receiver was appointed.

STATEMENTS ARE NOW IN TAXPAYERS' HANDS

Taxes Become Delinquent April 5 Unless First Half Is Paid Before That Time.

Tax statements have been mailed by Sheriff Parker to every taxpayer in the county and taxpaying starts today. The clerical force of the sheriff's office was busy several weeks getting the statements ready and all were mailed at the same time.

The taxes become delinquent after April 5. A penalty of 5 per cent for non-payment is imposed in addition to 1 per cent for interest. Neither interest nor penalty becomes due until after April 5 and only first half need be paid before that date.

"Smashing Vice Trust" Commended.
Dr. Anna Shaw, who is often spoken of as the "Grand Old Woman of America," owing to her long years of philanthropic and social service, has come out with an enthusiastic endorsement of "Smashing the Vice Trust," in which Governor Whitman of New York appears and which will be the attraction at the Arcade theater next Saturday, March 4.

"Let us," she said, "have moving pictures like 'Smashing the Vice Trust' which show all the horrible temptations and traps laid for young girls, without any suggestion of lewdness. This picture teaches a better lesson than my mother could have taught me. Any woman and girl is better protected by having seen it. Indeed, this stirring photo-drama will probably educate mothers even better than their daughters."

Jess Griffin Home Robbed.
Eugene Register: Robbers broke into the residence of J. A. Griffin Friday night between 7 and 11 o'clock, pulled down the curtains and used the bigger portion of a box of matches found in the house in ransacking every room in the house.

A list of the goods stolen, as given to the police, included a Hampton gold watch and gold chain, an American Folders' association watch fob, Premo No. 8 camera, a razor and the razor stone.

Mr. and Mrs. Griffin left the house at 7 o'clock and when they returned at 11 they found the house thoroughly ransacked. The burglars entered from the rear, cutting the screen on the back porch, breaking a hole in a rear window glass, unhooking the window and crawling through it. They came out the same way.

The robbers pulled down all the blinds in the house and the floors were covered with burnt matches which were used in the search for valuables.

Mr. Griffin is a son of Robt. Griffin of this city.

INVICTUS.
By William Ernest Henley.

Out of the night that covers me,
Black as the pit from pole to pole,
I thank whatever gods may be
For my unconquerable soul.

In the fell clutch of circumstance
I have not wined nor cried aloud,
Under the bludgeonings of chance
My head is bloody unobowed.

Beyond this place of wrath and tears
Looms but horror of the shade,
And yet the menace of the years,
Finds, and shall find me unafraid.

It matters not how straight the gate,
How charged with punishment the scroll,
I am the master of my fate
I am the captain of my soul.

DIAMOND THIEF TAKEN HERE GOES TO PEN

"Your honor, I stole because it was a case of necessity. I am guilty of the crime charged, but I ask your leniency before you pass sentence."

Thus spoke Job Dennis, who a few minutes previously had pleaded guilty in the circuit court to the charge of stealing two diamond rings from the residence of G. S. Hellar at Eugene, January 18.

"The law recognizes no excuse like that. I sentence you for not less than one year and not more than seven years in the state penitentiary at Salem," said Judge G. F. Skipworth.

Dennis is the man who was caught here by Deputy Sheriff Pitcher.

DORENA BOY BURGLAR IS PAROLED BY COURT

By giving a solemn promise that he would henceforth lead an upright life and abstain from the use of intoxicating liquors, Steve Steith, who had pleaded guilty to the charge of committing burglary in a store at Dorena several weeks ago, was paroled by Judge G. F. Skipworth, of the circuit court, Monday after he had been sentenced to the penitentiary for a term of from two to five years. Steith, who is only 19 years of age, has been given work by the Eugene branch of the Prison Aid society, and one of the conditions of the parole is that he is to report once each month to the society and to the sheriff.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for testimonials, free.
