

TALES OF THE TOWN WHICH YOU MAY NOT HAVE HEARD

MANY MATTERS OF MORE THAN PASSING MOMENT

Any item in these columns containing a key date on the last line thereof is paid advertising. (This announcement is made in compliance with the postal regulations.)

COURTESIES ALL AROUND.
The nicest courtesy you can show your guests is to have their visits mentioned in The Sentinel. The nicest courtesy you can show your friends is to let them know of your visits through a news item in The Sentinel. The nicest courtesy you can show the editor is to bring to the office a complete write-up of any news item which you know.

For Sale
SECOND HAND HACK
Two seated
Goes at a Real Bargain
WYNNE & KIME
Hardware

Miss Edna Elledge, who is employed at Portland, has been visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Al. Elledge, during the past week.
Miss Hazel Ostrander returned Friday from an extended visit at Albany.
A long felt want in Cottage Grove has been filled by the establishment of a public hospital in the large building just west of the Catholic church. Mrs. J. P. Morris is the proprietor and Dr. C. E. Frost is the physician.

MEN'S FOUR-IN-HAND
Ties for Easter Sunday
Now is the time to select them from the largest and greatest line of colors in the city. All of them made in the State of Oregon.
Powell & Company

Mr. and Mrs. Jackson Godard were up from Springfield Saturday and Sunday attending the Wilson-Purvance wedding.
S. L. Godard and family visited the Goslet family at Dorena Sunday.
Rev. Sutcliffe reports that he is going to have another bumper crop of quality peaches.
S. C. White Leghorn eggs for hatching, 50c per setting; Brown Leghorns, 50c per setting; Rhode Island Reds, 50c per setting. All first class chickens. J. F. Spray. apr5tfc

When That Insurance Policy Expires
Or just a little before would be better
Talk With—
METCALF

C. W. Caldwell returned Thursday to Los Angeles, after being here several weeks looking after business.
George Winchell, aged 72 years, survivor of many battles of the Civil war, despondent because of failing health, took his life at his home Wednesday afternoon.—Eugene Guard.
Want ads. on page 2 this week.
Alta King was in Eugene Thursday on business.

S. C. WHITE LEGHORNS
Day-old chicks, $10.00 per 100.
Special for May and June, $8.50
G. W. BURT, Roseburg, Ore.
apr19pd.

W. P. Ely of Kelso, Wash., is in the city looking after his mining property in the Bohemia district.
Tonight, the brilliant dramatic actress, Gladys Hanson, in a 5-act picturization of "The Primrose Path," by Bayard Veiller, author of "Within the Law."
Attorney General Brown has ruled that the circuit judge elected to Judge Skipworth's bench this year will serve six years. On account of Judge Skipworth's appointment being for an unexpired term, there has been some question on the point.

Cottage Grove Hospital
(Birch Ave., Just West of Catholic Church)
SURGICAL AND MEDICAL TREATMENT.—No contagious Diseases.
MRS. J. P. MORRIS, PROPRIETOR
DR. C. E. FROST, PHYSICIAN

E. G. Lane was in Eugene last Wednesday.

H. C. Madsen invites the ladies to call and see the new line in spring jewelry. Fine line of cameo brooches in gold filled and solid gold, also cameo bracelets lavalliers. mch22-ap19

Rev. W. V. McGee, pastor of the Fairmount Presbyterian church, left Saturday to accept the pastorates of two Presbyterian churches near Albany. Mrs. McGee and family will leave here in June.—Eugene Guard.

Mrs. W. A. Cunningham writes from Bladen, Neb., "We are sending money order for The Sentinel for another year. We do not feel like trying to do without it for through it we keep in touch with Cottage Grove and our old friends there."

Phone 3, the place that makes you the best price for your produce. apr5tfc

Mr. and Mrs. Kirtley have returned from Cambria, Calif., and have gone to Black Butte, where Mr. Kirtley will resume his position at the cinnabar mines.

Ed Willson has about recovered from his recent illness.

Geo. Salton is slowly recovering from the effects of his recent severe injuries.

Dr. Goff, corn doctor, licensed to practice in all states. Corns removed without pain. Your money or your corn back if not satisfied. mch1tf

Mrs. C. H. Fraser returned last week from a Eugene hospital. Mr. Fraser went to Eugene and accompanied her home.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Shinn went to Portland Sunday. It was necessary for Mrs. Shinn to undergo another operation.

The Modern Pharmacy has been "sneaking up" with paint and kalsomine.

Curran Cooley, agent for the Oregon Fire Relief Association of McMinnville. Phone 15-F4. nlltfc

G. W. Teeters is suffering with a pretty lame jaw, the result of being struck when a jack with which a car was being raised got away. His escape from a fatal injury was narrow.

Edward G. Lane, who is a corporal in Sixth Company, Coast Artillery corps, made himself more popular than ever with the troops, if that were possible, by bringing a box of cigars to drill Thursday night with which to celebrate his marriage. The boys did the customary well wishing and became so enthusiastic that they could not refrain from three cheers and a "tiger" for the new couple.

Want ads. on page 2 this week.

F. M. Ernest left Saturday for Medford, where he will be employed in a meat market.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Thoms of Jefferson, Mr. and Mrs. Neill of Brownsville, and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Sterling of Brownsville visited over Sunday at the David Sterling home. They made the trip by motor car.

County Fruit Inspector Stewart was in Salem last week on business connected with his official duties.

Going to paint! Get a figure from Johnson. It will save you money. mar22 tfc.

Today is the last day for paying the first half of taxes and avoiding penalty.

Abe Bangs was up from Eugene Saturday evening.

The J. W. Stoops family has moved to Roseburg.

Re-cleaned seed oats at the flour mill. f23tfc.

E. M. Blackford, recently employed by The Sentinel, left Monday for points down the valley looking for a position. Mrs. Blackford and the children will remain here for a short time.

Chas. McFarland and family left last week for San Jose, Calif., to reside for some time.

Andy Sears and mother returned Friday from Portland. Andy is recovering rapidly from his recent illness.

A few more good second hand buggies and wagons at Spray's. apr5tfc

Carl Sears has purchased an interest in the Ostrander barber shop.

The big steel refuse burner at the Brown mill is about completed.

F. H. Hall suffered a second stroke of apoplexy last week.

Diamonds have just advanced 20 per cent in the rough. I have a good assortment from $15 to $350 which I will sell at the old prices. Fine white from $25 to $135, in Tiffany or any kind of mounting desired. This is a fine engagement ring. Can be bought by responsible parties on weekly or monthly payments. H. C. Madsen. mch29-ap19

J. M. Devers was down from Eugene yesterday on business.

Night Marshal James Brown is taking a vacation and his place is being filled by Bob Martin.

The Knights of Pythias will give their regular annual dance in Moose hall Saturday evening. The K. P.'s always do things in style and this will be THE affair of the season. There will be music by a combined Cottage Grove-Eugene orchestra.

Medical treatment of every kind will be attended to and surgical operations performed at the Cottage Grove hospital, on Birch avenue, just west of the Catholic church. No contagious diseases will be handled. Mrs. J. P. Morris, proprietor. Dr. C. E. Frost, physician.

A meeting of chautauqua boosters will be held at the commercial club rooms tomorrow evening at 7:30. As the chautauqua will be held in June, all those interested are urgently requested to be present to aid in laying plans for a successful meet.

Eleanor Knowles is suffering with a sprained arm, the result of a fall at school.

Misses Fern and Ivy Holcomb were up from Junction City for the week end.

Tonight, the brilliant dramatic actress, Gladys Hanson, in a 5-act picturization of "The Primrose Path," by Bayard Veiller, author of "Within the Law."

Mrs. G. M. Scott has recovered from her recent illness.

Miss Esther Hill, a University student and member of the Gamma Phi Beta fraternity, is reported improving at the Eugene hospital, where she recently underwent an operation for appendicitis. Want ads. on page 2 this week.

Mrs. Felix Curran returned Monday from a two weeks' visit with her daughter, Mrs. Vernon Fields of Gaston.

Just Received!

A nice line of Ladies', Misses' and Children's Untrimmed Shapes, Ribbons and Flowers. Something for everybody. Call and see them.

Miss Harms
HAMPTON BUILDING

A committee was appointed at the commercial club meeting Monday night to arrange for a clean-up and paint-up week in May.

D. H. Kippen of Milbank, S. D., is spending a month with his uncle, J. D. Kippen.

Spray will pay you the highest cash price for mohair, wool, hides or pelts. apr5tfc

Agent Mills of the Southern Pacific has been doing a city ticket office business of late on long distance tickets. On one day he sold ten tickets to Arizona and one to Montana.

Rev. T. B. McDonald writes that he and family have arrived safely at Heppner and found conditions up to expectations.

W. T. Hankins has been down from Row River a few days this week.

Twelve-inch water motor for sale. The Sentinel. mch29tfc

Miss Elsie Lea has gone to Dorena to finish a term of school for Mrs. England.

The commercial club has received from the forestry department at Portland the necessary papers with which to secure the weather observatory. These have been filled out and returned and the instruments are expected to arrive shortly.

The J. B. Protzman family have moved into their new home on North Tenth street.

Unless at least two tickets are furnished for paid entertainments, it is understood by The Sentinel that no writup is desired. In other words a newspaper representative is not going to pay his way to an entertainment, show, ball game or anything else in order to get a writup of it.

Miss Joyce Teeters, who recently completed a term of school in the Doolittle district, left Friday to attend normal school at Monmouth.

Miss Eva Hopper and Miss Sherman left Friday to attend normal school at Monmouth.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Dygert motored up from Eugene and spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Graham.

Cash for chickens and eggs at Spray's. apr5tfc

Mrs. J. P. Graham shipped a White Minorca cockerel to Goldendale, Wash., yesterday.

Mrs. H. B. Millard of Reno, Nev., who had been visiting her mother, Mrs. Johannah Hanson, at the home of J. S. Medley, returned home last week.

Miss Neita Hazelton has accepted a position with the Union Meat Co. as cashier.

It doesn't cost you anything to advertise an article if you want to take advantage of The Sentinel's new want ad stunt. No sale, no pay; that's the way we do business.

Miss Mabel Venatch and a number of her pupils enjoyed a hike out Coast Fork Friday afternoon.

Miss Margery Cochran is again suffering from a broken arm, the result of falling from a tricycle.

Mrs. Carrie Hemenway and 18 children enjoyed a hike to the caves Saturday afternoon.

Want ads. on page 2 this week.

Spear & Cruson have drilled a fine well on the Carrie Hemenway ranch southeast of the city.

L. C. and F. G. Schilling of Gardiner spent the week end visiting their sister, Miss Carolyn Schilling.

Eat Gregory's Bread. tfc

G. F. King is home for a few days visiting his family and expects to return to his work today.

S. R. Mosher of Eugene will visit Cottage Grove lodge A. F. & A. M. tonight and will read and explain the ancient charges of Masonry.

A 5-pound son has been born to Mr. and Mrs. Ben Groff at Post, Ore. It was born April 2.

If you have something of the value of $5.00 or more that you are willing to sell or trade at a bargain, see The Sentinel about its special proposition of no sale, no pay.

B. K. Lawson and family spent Sunday afternoon at the W. A. Hemenway home at The Cedars.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Simeral spent Sunday at the P. D. Magee home on Silk Creek.

A party consisting of Mrs. Hohl and daughter Lenora, Miss Leon Hohl, Mrs. G. F. Brumfield and daughters Ruby and Beulah and Miss Pearl Ritehey walked to Cerro Gordo Sunday and spent the day.

Feed and seeds at Spray's. apr5tfc

F. B. Van Nortwick of the Pleasant View dairy, let a contract yesterday to the Cottage Grove Manufacturing Co. for a large modern silo to be erected on Mr. Van Nortwick's dairy farm.

Mrs. Joseph Watkins is home from Post, Crook county, where she had been visiting with a daughter and son-in-law who are residing on a homestead on Crooked river. She says about all one can see in that country is rolling hills sage brush and jack rabbits.

Hursh Allison and wife were up from Eugene Sunday in their new Buick Six.

We pay best prices for pelts and hides. Culver Bros., People's Meat Market. nov3tfc

D. P. Burton was in Eugene Monday to file his petitions for his candidacy for county assessor.

Mrs. Gerald Woods and baby returned Monday to Portland after an extended visit at the home of Mrs. Woods' parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. DeLong.

Mr. and Mrs. Spores of Eugene and Wm. Ellison of Springfield were here to attend the Purvance-Wilson wedding.

A fine line of new narrow bracelets and best gold filled which are guaranteed to wear. The new belt fobs and belts with silver buckles. Look in the window at H. C. Madsen's. mch29-ap19

John Nokes returned Monday from the Bohemia district where he was doing some assessment work.

John Bader was in Portland during the past week on business.

Still no news as to the postmaster-ship. Ain't it awful!

The basket social at Latham Saturday evening was a successful affair, about $7.00 being netted for the Christian Endeavor society.

Ask for Gregory's Bread at your grocers. sep7-5

V. S. Goff has moved his shoe hospital across the street from his former location.

Thelma Jones suffered a severe injury to the arm Friday when she fell from a horse.

Ed and Frank Hanson and families of Eugene were up from Eugene Sunday visiting the mother of the men, Mrs. Johannah Hanson, whose condition remains much the same.

Mrs. D. W. Bennett, who had been visiting her mother, Mrs. Johannah Hanson, returned to Roseburg Sunday.

Commissioner Hawley has been up from Eugene during the past week looking over the roads.

Cottage Grove Isaac Waltons were out in force for the opening of the trout season.

Wm. Fulmer, who had spent the winter here with his son, W. E. Fulmer, returned Saturday to Nebraska.

Ray Langdon of Port Canby, Wash., a former resident, was in the city Friday while on his way from his home at Oakland.

Donna Nichols and Naomi Wynne are pupils who received 100 per cent in the last spelling contest whose names were overlooked in the report last week.

Uncle Ves Venatch was in from Silk Creek Thursday and Friday.

J. B. Lewis returned Thursday from a three weeks' visit in Eugene.

L. J. Ardite, a new arrival here who has bought a 5-acre tract upon which he will raise chickens, is among our new subscribers this week.

T. E. Carlock of Cottage Grove and P. E. Baker of Eugene are new subscribers this week.

The members of the county court were here yesterday viewing the Beatty and other roads.

Dr. S. B. Foster, federal inspector and veterinarian, came in from Portland Thursday evening to examine Eugene Miller's stock, preparatory to crossing the Canadian line. He finished his examination late Saturday evening, reported all in a healthy condition, and left on the night train.

In the obituary of Mrs. H. D. Whitlock, the names of Mrs. J. W. Wicks of Central Point, Ore., and Mrs. Will Johnson of Yuba City, Calif., sisters, were omitted.

The woman who has never been a regular student of the store "ads" often recoils from the task because she imagines that they must be very "dry reading." But to the woman who is interested in her task of buying things for the home finds these same "ads" quite often as "readable" as anything else in the paper.

The woman who once becomes interested in studying the "ads" never loses that interest. It grows upon her to the profit and advantage of all of her household.

Geo. Elwood was in Eugene Saturday.

Col. B. K. Lawson was a Eugene visitor Saturday.

J. S. Benson returned last night from a trip to his Wolf creek ranch.

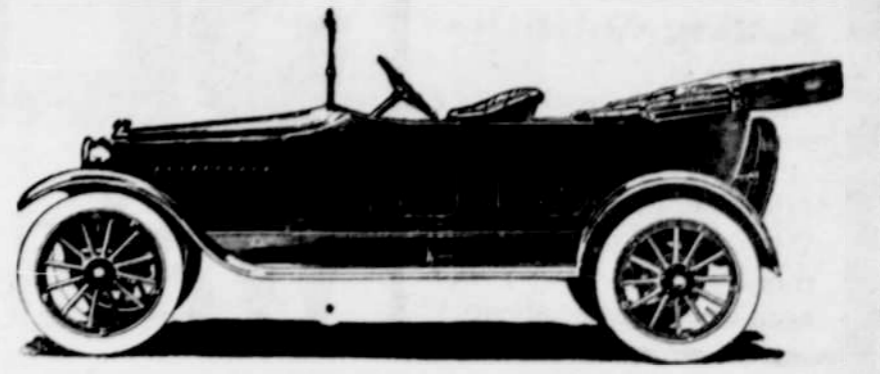

J. S. Medley was in Eugene yesterday on legal business.

John Bartels and John Graber left this morning for the Bohemia mines district. Fred and Lester Bartels will go up Monday.

A son has been born to Mr. and Mrs. Shelby Teeters, and Shelby's famous chickens will probably be neglected for a time.

Mrs. Herbert Eakin and Mrs. Geo. Kerr went to Salem yesterday.

Just Arrived!

SAXON SIX
$915 f o b Cottage Grove
Bartell & Overholser
AGENTS
On Display at Linch's Garage

CAR SHORTAGE WAS DUE TO UNUSUAL DEMAND

Southern Pacific Alone Furnishes 1235 Cars More in February 1916 Than in February 1915.

Students May Be Arrested.

F. J. Hard, well-known mining man, residing at the corner of Patterson street and Eleventh avenue east, has complained to the police that the students have placed posters on the concrete column in the street at the corner in front of his residence, in violation of the city ordinance. The paper is very hard to get off, and the posters mar the appearance of the column. The police have warned the students that they must desist or suffer prosecution.—Eugene Register.

The Eastern Jubilee Quartet, which will be at Arcade Thursday night.

ARCADE THEATER
Under New Management
"The Show That's Different"
WOOD & CUMMINGS, LESSEES
WEDNESDAY
"In The Name of The Law"
Featuring Gladys Houlette. A Mutual Masterpicture in three acts.
"A Rascal's Wolfish Way"—One of those crazy Keystone Comedies.
Also "The Arcade Orchestra" under direction of Prof. Wm. Wood.
ANY SEAT.....5c and 10c
THURSDAY ONLY—The Eastern Jubilee Quartet, a guaranteed attraction.
COMPLETE CHANGE FRIDAY
WE'RE HERE TO STAY