SELLING OUT

The Watson Mercantile Stock

We are staking our success in selling out this stock upon the decision of the many purchasers who have already been in our store. In order to sell out a large stock like the Watson Mercantile Co.'s stock we realize it is quite necessary to make each purchaser perfectly satisfied, so they will continue to trade with us, and also tell their friends, which means a saving of money to them as long as this merchandise lasts, at the same time helping us in selling out this stock.

WE PREFER

to pay your money back if goods are not entirely satisfactory.
