socialism at Walker Thursday evening had rather a strenuous time obtaining a building for his lecture Saturday evening, but as a friend vouched for the school property's safety the meeting was held in the school house. A good sized audience was present. In spite of being vouched for, the children's books were scribbled in with pencils and chalk and otherwise defaced. There is a strong sentiment against such meetings being continued in the school house, but the lecturer says he will be here next week again.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. McKinney were in Cottage Grove Saturday. Mrs. McKinney met friends and gave advice at the home of Mrs. Stouffer as per arrangement and will be at the same place next Saturday from 1:00 to 5:00 p. m.

The Good Neighbors meeting at the home of Mrs. Moody Thursday was a success in spite of the weather, a large crowd being present. Mrs. Moody could provide only one sock to be darned but members brought their own work and were entertained by graphophone music, lessons in crochet and cooking by the members were freely interchanged and a very pleasant social afternoon was enjoyed. It was decided that the club meet next Thursday with Mrs. R. Scott. Those present were Mesdames Conley, Horn, Hartley, Epperson, McKinney, Scott, Neat, Burgess, Platt, Mrs. Moody, senior, and Mr. Howard Moody, Misses Extra Scott, Ethel Moody, Nellie Conley and June Moody and Master Francis Horn.

The standardization program held at the school house Friday evening was a success, a large crowd being present and the financial gains good. Baskets were sold to the highest bidder and Miss Jessie Smith's basket brought $4.20. The total receipts for the evening were in excess of $15.

After an absence of about two years Terry Moody is again at home. He arrived Friday morning.

R. Scott came home Sunday.

THE CEDARS

(Special to The Sentinel.)
April 25.—Rev. W. A. Elkins of Lebanon is visiting at the W. A. Hemenway home.

James Sears has purchased a registered Guernsey bull, which is closely related to some of the highest producers of his breed.

The school board met Monday evening and re-elected Miss Frances Cox for the coming school year.

The Ed. Ashby family took Easter dinner at Ishmael's east of town.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. McFarland and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hemenway attended the Easter exercises at the Christian church Sunday evening.

BLUE MOUNTAIN.

(Special to The Sentinel.)
Apr. 25.—Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Downes, Edith Landwehr and Mr. Landwehr visited at Finley Whipp's Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Castle and baby and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Landwehr visited at Linebaugh's at Walden Sunday.

Miss Wilson was in Eugene on business Saturday.

Those attending Easter services from here Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Robbins, Mrs. Hobart, George and Louise Duerst, Nelson, Vernon and Charles Whipp, Elmer and Violet Robbins, Bessie and Gwen Mooney, Leston Downes and Josie Seward.

The ball game played here between Walden and Blue Mountain was won by the latter with a score of 12 to 11.

MILITIA COMPANY TO HAVE BATTLE

Arrangement Being Made for May Hike by Members of Coast Artillery Corps.

Sixth Co., Coast Artillery Corps, of this city, may participate with the artillery corps companies of Eugene in the near future in a hike and sham battle.

If the hike and sham battle are arranged the Cottage Grove and Eugene companies will leave their respective cities at a given time and will meet somewhere on the road. The point where the sham battle is to take place will not be known in advance by either company.

These maneuvers are planned for early in May.

Schools to Have Health Officers.

Each school district in Lane county will soon have a health officer, according to announcement of E. J. Moore, county superintendent.

The duty of this officer will be to look after the hygiene and sanitation of the school house. Each school will be allowed to select its own officer from among the pupils. The superintendent has received 200 badges from the state board of health with the inscription, "State Health Officer," and the pupils who wear them will be regularly sworn deputies of the state health department.

EASTER OBSERVED AT ALL CITY'S CHURCHES

Day Is Divided Between Denominations So That All May Attend All Services.—Afternoon Program at Methodist. Evening Program at Christian.

Easter Sunday was fittingly observed in all the churches of the city and the day was a perfect one.

The observance at the Presbyterian church was at the forenoon service. There was a short special musical program and an able and appropriate sermon by Pastor MacLeod. There were no services in the evening.

At the Methodist church the program was rendered in the afternoon, and was as follows:

Organ Voluntary—"Chorus" from the Nativity (Caleb Simper)—Austin Berg.

Hymn—"Hark, Ten Thousand Harps and Voices" (Lowell Mason).

The Apostles' Creed.

The Invocation.

Response—"Our Father" (E. K. Heyser)—The Choir.

Anthem—"He Is Risen! Hallelulah!" (C. Austin Miles)—The Choir.

Solo—"Easter Dawn" (R. Huntington Woodman)—Miss Mae Armstrong.

Hymn—"Anthem, 'Rock of Ages'" (Carrie B. Adams)—The Male Chorus.

Duet—"Glad Easter Morn" (J. Wesley Hughes)—Mrs. C. A. Linech and Miss Marian Hooper.

Anthem—"Te Deum Laudamus" (M. W. Morton)—The Choir.

Solo—"Christ Is Risen" (Louis R. Dressler)—Clyde Ellis Humphrey.

Hymn—"Anthem 'Oh Jesus, Thou Art Standing'" (Emerson)—Female Chorus.

Anthem—"Calvary" (Rodney Wilson)—Ralph Brown and Chorus.

Reading—"Healing of the Lepers" from Ben Hur (Lew Wallace)—Miss Mildred Pringle.

Solo—"Easter Song" (Charles Dennee)—Miss Jessie McCord.

Anthem—"The Radiant Morn" (H. H. Woodward)—The Choir.

Quartet—"My Jesus I Love Thee" (J. Lincoln Hall)—Mesdames Leon DesLarzes, Ima Benger, Messrs. C. E. Humphrey, H. N. Aldrich.

Violin Solo—"Hearts and Flowers" (Theo. M. Tobani)—Miss Leona Hanson.

Solo—"Behold, I Show You a Mystery" (Frederick Maxson)—Mrs. Leon DesLarzes.

Anthem—"Recessional" (Reginald de Koven)—H. N. Aldrich and Chorus.

Postlude—"March, Pomposo" (Caleb Simper)—Austin Berg.

The entire program was exceptionally well rendered, the solos deserving special mention.

At the Christian church the observance was in the evening. The complete program was as follows:

Voluntary—Organ and piano—Carrie Woods and Virgil Powell.

Invocation—Miss Elizabeth Ware.

Response—Quartet.

"The Eternal Spring" (J. S. Fearis)—Quartet.

Reading—"The Other Wise Man" (Henry Van Dyke)—Miss Mary Bartel.

Solo—"Easter Morn" (F. H. Brackett)—Mrs. B. K. Lawson.

Offertory.

"The Glory of the Spring" (E. L. Ashford)—Quartet.

Reading—"The Healing of the Lepers" from Ben Hur (Lew Wallace)—Miss Mildred Pringle.

Solo—"The Palms" (J. Faure)—Mrs. H. K. Metcalf.

"Sun of My Soul" (A. W. Nelson)—Quartet.

Benediction.

The program was under the direction of Mrs. W. A. Hemenway and Mrs. B. K. Lawson.

"The Healing of the Lepers" by Miss Pringle was the most highly spoken of number on the very excellent program. Her rendition was beautiful and artistic.

The quartet was composed of Mrs. B. K. Lawson, Mrs. H. K. Metcalf, A. A. Richmond and Herald White. The solos by Mrs. Metcalf and Mrs. Lawson were particularly pleasing numbers.

An Easter sermon was delivered by Pastor Van Gorkum at the morning service at the Baptist church.

Bootlegging Case Postponed.

The case of the State vs. Jane Henderson on a charge of bootlegging, which came up yesterday, was postponed a week at the request of District Attorney Devers. The arrest of Mrs. Henderson followed a last Saturday.
