

DEMOCRATS NAME WILSON, MARSHALL

Delegates at St. Louis Convention Choose Men Who Will Head Ticket.

St. Louis.—President Wilson and Vice-President Marshall were nominated by acclamation late on the night of June 15 by the democratic national convention, the ticket being completed four minutes before Friday.

There never was any doubt of President Wilson's nomination, but there was a possibility that some Vice-Presidential booms might be brought out in opposition to Vice-President Marshall.

They melted away, however, when the convention got in session, and as soon as President Wilson's nomination had been made a roaring chorus of acclamation, Senator Kern, who renominated Mr. Marshall, cast aside a long prepared speech and simply declared: "I nominate Thomas Riley Marshall, of Indiana, for vice-president."

A striking incident of the night's session was the action of the convention in calling on William J. Bryan to speak.

He spoke 45 minutes, pledging his support to the president in the campaign and defending the administration's policies.

WOODROW WILSON.

THOMAS RILEY MARSHALL

On motion of Senator Hughes, of New Jersey, the rules were suspended and no ballots whatever were taken. The delegates simply roared "Aye" when the names of Wilson and Marshall were called successively, and Chairman James declared them nominated by acclamation.

The convention was called to order at noon Wednesday, June 14, by William F. McCombs, chairman of the democratic national committee. When the convention came to order "America was sung, the entire audience rising. The "Star Spangled Banner" came next, after which Rev. James Lee, of the M. E. church south of St. Louis, offered a prayer. Former Governor Martin H. Glynn, of New York, was introduced as temporary chairman and delivered a keynote speech which aroused the greatest enthusiasm.

When Temporary Chairman Glynn called the convention to order Thursday morning the committee on permanent organization announced the selection of Senator Ollie James of Kentucky as permanent chairman.

James got as enthusiastic a reception as did the main keynoter of the convention—ex-Governor Martin H. Glynn—in Monday's session.

At the conclusion of Senator James' speech, inasmuch as the platform committee was not ready to report, the convention adjourned until 9 o'clock in the evening, when it was announced nominations for president and vice-president would be made.

Friday the convention finished its work by adopting the party platform exactly as approved by President Wilson and submitted by the resolutions committee, including the planks on Americanism and favoring woman suffrage, but not until the harmony of its three days' session had been ripped with a row over the suffrage plank.

As it went into the platform the suffrage plank stands:

"We favor the extension of the franchise to the women of this country, state by state, on the same terms as to the men."

NATIONAL GUARD IS CALLED TO BORDER

Militia Forces Designed to Release 30,000 Regulars for Duty Across Boundary.

Washington.—Virtually the entire mobile strength of the national guard of all states and the District of Columbia was ordered mustered into the federal service by President Wilson. About 100,000 men are expected to respond to the call.

In announcing the orders Secretary Baker said the state forces would be employed only to guard the border, and that no additional troop movements into Mexico were contemplated except in pursuit of raiders.

Simultaneously with the national guard call, Secretary Daniels, of the navy department, ordered additional war vessels to Mexican waters on both coasts to safeguard American lives.

Within the last two weeks tension has been increasing steadily. The crisis presented by General Carranza's note demanding the recall of General Pershing's expeditionary force has been followed by a virtual ultimatum served on the American officer by General Trevino, the Mexican commander in Chihuahua.

Mobilization of the national guardsmen to support General Funston's line will pave the way for releasing some 30,000 regulars for immediate service in Mexico in the event of open hostilities with the Carranza government. The guardsmen themselves could not be used beyond the line without authority of congress and until they had volunteered for that duty, as they are called out under the militia law. The new law, which would make them available for any duty under the federal government, goes into effect July 1.

SAILORS AND SOLDIERS GLASH AT MAZATLAN

Washington.—Communications from the Mexican embassy announcing that there had been a clash between a boat crew from the gunboat Annapolis and Carranza soldiers at Mazatlan Sunday and asking that in the present tense situation no men be landed in Mexico from American warships under any circumstances were delivered to the state department by an embassy secretary.

According to the Mexican version confusion followed an attempt to land marines from a warship.

A boat from the warship approached a Mazatlan wharf and was warned to keep off until permission to land could be obtained from the military authorities. It went back to the ship and in several hours returned with its crew armed. The officer in command was told permission for landing had not been given and then argument ensued.

A crowd of soldiers and civilians had gathered on the wharf and in the midst of the discussion a drunken Japanese fired a shot at the Americans, who promptly replied with a volley into the crowd. Carranza soldiers returned the fire and the boat withdrew, leaving behind two officers who were arrested. Explanations then were exchanged by the commander of the warship and the Carranza general, and the officers were released.

REARGUARD ACTION FOUGHT

Fourth American Expedition Engaged by Carranza Soldiers on Way Out.

Brownsville, Texas.—Having accomplished its object, the dispersing of Mexican bandits who raided Texas ranches and attacked a detachment of the Twenty-sixth Infantry, east of San Benito, Texas, and on promises of the Carranza commander at Matamoros that he would run down and punish the outlaws, the fourth American punitive expedition to enter Mexico was withdrawn. There were no American casualties.

Two bandits were killed and two others wounded in a rearguard action when the Americans began to withdraw.

Military authorities regarded the situation as fraught with the gravest possibilities. This was occasioned by the apparent fact that it was a detachment of about 16 soldiers of the Mexican de facto government, commanded by a young lieutenant, who led the rearguard attack on the Americans as they were leaving Mexico.

Gov. Lister Calls Washington Militia

Olympia, Wash.—Upon receipt of specific instructions from Secretary of War Baker Governor Ernest Lister issued orders to Adjutant-General Maurice Thompson, of the Washington national guard, for the mobilization of one regiment of infantry, one troop of cavalry and one company of signal corps. The Washington militia will mobilize at American Lake, south of Tacoma.
