Mrs. Elbert Bede, who soon departs for the east, was the guest of honor at a social evening Tuesday at the Mrs. Clara Burkholder home. A dainty two-course luncheon was served. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Bede, Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Frost, Mr. and Mrs. S. V. Allison, Mrs. Burkholder and daughter Belle and Mrs. Lydia Stouffer.

The engagement and early marriage of Hans George Schroeder, of Berkeley, Cal., and Miss Helen Edna Rayner, of Cottage Grove, was announced by Rev. and Mrs. Horace N. Aldrich, uncle and aunt of the bride-elect, a few days ago, and on Monday afternoon the ladies of the Methodist Episcopal church tendered Miss Rayner a miscellaneous shower in the church parlors. One of the pleasing features of the afternoon was a burlesque wedding ceremony in which Rev. H. N. Aldrich officiated and in which Mrs. Carrie Hemenway impersonated the groom and Miss Maude Hooper the bride and all the minute details of an elaborate wedding were carried out. Miss Rayner, accompanied by Mrs. H. N. Aldrich, will leave Wednesday for Berkeley, where she will be united in marriage to Mr. Schroeder Sunday, July 2. Rev. Aldrich will accompany his wife and Miss Rayner as far south as Central Point, Oregon, where he will officiate at a wedding Wednesday evening.

The male members of the Eastern Star entertained the women of the chapter at 6:30 Friday evening with an elegant banquet in Masonic hall. About forty were present and to say that the affair was a splendid success, both from a culinary and an artistic point of view, would be putting it mildly. Mr. Bader was the decorative artist, and the dining tables and banquet room were profusely adorned with roses, ferns and campunula. Andrew Brand, Geo. Knowles, H. N. Aldrich, Van Allison, O. L. Nichols, Geo. Scott, Worth Harvey and E. A. Glenson were the committee on arrangements and waited on the tables, each wearing a white coat and a pink boutonniere. The women expressed their appreciation with a rising vote of thanks, toasts and a college yell. The men were ably assisted by Mrs. Geo. Kerr and daughter, Mrs. Pitcher. The menu consisted of crab cocktails with wafers, codfish patties and hot rolls, ripe olives, roast veal, mashed potatoes, green peas, sliced tomatoes and cucumbers, cookies, ice cream and coffee.

A regular meeting of the chapter followed the banquet.

Mrs. J. P. Graham, Mrs. Helen Silsby and Miss Esther Silsby are the hostesses at the meeting of the Constellation club this afternoon.

Franklin M. Hildreth, of Corvallis, and Ivy M. Holcomb were quietly married at the bride's home June 22, Rev. Horace N. Aldrich pronouncing the ring ceremony. A family wedding dinner was served. The Hildreths will spend some time at Newport, after which they will make their home in Corvallis, where Mr. Hildreth is superintendent in the Oregon Power company's office.

The Woman's Relief corps held their usual meeting Saturday in Phillips hall. A birthday dinner was served. At the business meeting, Mrs. Ellen Jones, delegate to the annual convention of department of Oregon, gave her report. Mrs. Spriggs, a new member, was entertained. On behalf of the corps, the president presented Mrs. Duffy with a gold W. R. C. pin.

The M. P. G. club was entertained in a very novel manner Tuesday by Mrs. Chas. Adams. There was a picnic lunch and stunts of many kinds to cause amusement. The band and the quartet made a distinct hit. Guests of the club were Mrs. S. V. Allison, Mrs. K. K. Mills, Mrs. Howe, Miss Howe, Miss Laura Kennon, Miss Hefty and Miss Luella Curran.

Albert Hull and Miss Juliet Woodard were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Woodard, in south Cottage Grove Sunday at 11 o'clock, Rev. John Sutherland, of Lorane, officiating. It was a quite home wedding, only a few intimate friends outside of the families of the contracting parties being in attendance. The home decorations were beautiful and a bounteous wedding dinner was served. The couple will reside upon Mr. Hull's farm about two miles south of Cottage Grove.

Festival of St. John the Baptist Is Observed.

The annual festival of St. John the Baptist was observed Sunday afternoon by the Masonic bodies with services at the Methodist church, which were largely attended by the general public. The Masons and members of the Eastern Star marched to the church in a body and occupied the front section. The following program was rendered: Pr. cessional—Piano and Organ "Andante Con Moto" (Surette).—Miss Mabel Veatch and Mrs. Mary Kerr Invocation.—Bro. H. N. Aldrich Introductory.—Bro. Worth Harvey, W. M. Quartet—Masonic Ode, "Hail, Masonry"—Mesdames Miller, Short, Bros. Aldrich, Harvey Scripture—1st. Cor. 13, Matt. 7:12.—Bro. H. N. Aldrich Address.—Bro. D. A. ULTIMATUM SENT BY LANSING TO MEXICO

Immediate Release of Troopers and Quick Explanation Demanded.

Washington.—A demand for the immediate release of the American troopers taken prisoner at Carrizal, coupled with a stern notification that the United States expects an early statement of the purposes of the Carranza government was telegraphed to Mexico City by Secretary Lansing.

The note discloses that the state department received a communication from the de facto government stating that the Carrizal fight was the direct result of orders to attack American soldiers moving otherwise toward the border, personally issued by General Carranza to General Trevino and by the latter communicated to General Pershing.

General Carranza is required to place himself on record formally and the plain intimation lies behind the restrained language of Mr. Lansing's communication that force will be met with force. Apparently, however, the Washington government is determined that the de facto government shall not evade responsibility before the world if war is forced upon the United States.

Legislative approval of President Wilson's use of the national guard in the Mexican crisis was voted almost unanimously by the house in adopting a resolution declaring the existence of an emergency and giving the president a free hand to draft as federal soldiers all guardsmen willing to take the required oath.

Government support for families of national guardsmen on the Mexican border was eliminated from the Hay militia resolution when it was reported to the senate by the military committee.

A provision that married men or others with dependents, may be excused from service was substituted.

With this amendment the resolution, which allows the president to draft all national guardsmen into Mexican service, was recommended for immediate approval.

AMERICANS OUTNUMBERED

Negro Soldier Declares 700 Mexicans Attacked 84 U. S. Cavalrymen.

Columbus, N. M.—Eight to one—these are now said to be the odds against which the Americans struggled at Carrizal.

A survivor of the engagement, Sam H. Harris, a negro private of C troop, Tenth cavalry, was brought to the border suffering from wounds in his left shoulder and arm. From him came the assertion that pitted against the 84 men of the American detachment were fully 700 Mexicans.

"To top it off," said Harris, "they had a machine gun and they surprised us."

"We approached them in a peaceful way, and never had any idea that they would try to massacre us. Had we known they wanted to fight we would have given it to them. I guess they got enough, at that."

Oregon Troops Ordered to Move.

Camp Withycombe, Or.—Captain Kenneth P. Williams, federal mustering officer for Oregon, received orders to rush the Third Battalion of the Third Infantry to San Diego.

According to the figures available, there were 374 men in the Third Battalion, which departed Tuesday afternoon; there are 244 men in the Second Battalion and 179 men in Battery A, which entrained Wednesday; there will be 488 men in the First Battalion, which left Thursday, June 29, and 116 men in Troop A, which departs June 30.

Thousands Greet Guards in Camp.

Tacoma, Wash.—Warlike scenes of Spanish-American war days were reenacted at Camp Elmer E. Brown at American Lake in the outskirts of Tacoma, where the Second Regiment, Infantry, of the Washington national guard, pitched tents, to await call to the Mexican border. Fully 20,000 persons from Tacoma and neighboring towns flocked to the military reserve to see the guardsmen Sunday.

German Women Greet French Sisters.

The Hague, via London.—The Zelt-schrift fuer Frauenstimmrecht, the German woman suffrage organ, has sent the following greeting to the women of France:

"We feel, think and suffer like you, and swear that after this catastrophic war the women of all nations shall work untidely to prevent forever its recurrence."

Hughes Welcomes Progressive Help.

New York.—Charles E. Hughes, republican nominee for president, sent a telegram to O. K. Davis, secretary of the progressive national committee, welcoming the support of the progressive party.

SUCCESSFUL PICNIC BY I. O. O. F.

Many from Outside Cities Attend Celebration Here—Dinner and a Program Amuse.

The annual picnic of the Odd Fellows lodges of Lane county, held here last Thursday, was one of the most successful in the history of the order. Previous to the big basket dinner at noon, the lodges paraded the principal streets. They were led by the Cottage Grove band, which showed marked improvement in the quality of its music. The band also played during the dinner hour and for the street dance in the evening.

Following dinner, a program was rendered at the city park. H. J. Shinn gave the address of welcome, which was responded to by Col. J. M. Williams, of Eugene. An interesting address was delivered by Fred Walker, of Springfield, grand warden of the order. Other numbers were a reading by Miss Mildred Pringle, musical numbers by the Methodist church orchestra and a male quartet composed of A. A. Richmond, S. L. Mackin, C. E. Umphrey and Rev. H. N. Aldrich. A program of small sports followed.

Members of the order were present from Eugene, Springfield, Creswell, Junction City, Roseburg and other places.

Sutcliffe Wins More Laurels.

Speaking of the chautauqua, the Provo (Utah) Herald says: "Each and every number of the program was fully up to the standard of excellence promised, and while the management calls for an expression from their patrons as to just which particular number pleased them most, the majority of the people—due to the general excellence of all—seemed entirely unable to decide. There is, however, one point upon which they appear to be unanimous, and that is, the superb excellence of the management under the able direction of the company's executive officer in the person of Doctor Sutcliffe, whose courtesy, kindness and general worthiness has certainly won the hearts of the people. The one great desire upon the part of all seems to be, that when this commendable institution returns next year, it may be in charge of this generous, whole-souled, and kindly christian gentleman."
