

TALES OF THE TOWN

The nicest courtesy you can show your guests is to have their visits mentioned in The Sentinel. The nicest courtesy you can show your friends is to let them know of your visits through a news item in The Sentinel. The nicest courtesy you can show the editor is to bring to the office a complete write-up of any news item you know. Let's have courtesy all around.

When it comes to advertising there is no medium "Just as Good."

H. F. Oakes lost the end of his thumb Monday while working on the Southern Pacific section. Through a misunderstanding, a fellow employe let the jaws of a jack onto the member and the end of the thumb was torn off.

T. G. Swanson returned last week to his home at Wheaton, Minn., after a visit with his son, A. W. Swanson.

Everybody reads our advertisements.

Miss Irma Schray, of Point Richmond, Calif., is visiting her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Lureh.

New timbers are being put under the Southern Pacific depot.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Bartell left today on a trip to eastern Oregon going by car over the Columbia highway.

Legal blanks, 35c per dozen; 20c per half dozen, or 5c each. The Sentinel.

Dr. Harold C. Bean, of Portland, who recently graduated with honors from John Hopkins university, spent Sunday at the D. H. Hemenway home. He stopped at Eugene on the way here and Miss Nellie Hemenway accompanied him here. Dr. Bean has been given a professorship for the next year at the university from which he has just graduated.

Mrs. Rosa Currin and sons, Lynch and Homer, and Mrs. Vernon Fields and son Donald who have been visiting Mrs. Fields' mother, Mrs. Currin, left Monday for Gaston, Mrs. Fields' home. Mrs. Currin has rented her place for a year and will make her home at Gaston. Homer and Lynch will probably go to eastern Washington.

A marriage license was issued last week to Homer D. Chamberlain and Nellie Linebaugh.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Hauser, of Eugene visited from Sunday to yesterday with Mrs. Hauser's mother, Mrs. G. B. Hawkins.

Spray will pay you the highest cash price for mohair, wool, hides or pelts.

Wm. Edwards returned to the Bohemia district Monday. He had been down putting up his winter fruit.

Forest Ranger Elzie Holderman was down from Rujada last week putting in some supplies. He says there has been so much rain and snow that there will be less danger from forest fires this year.

E. M. Thurber returned from Portland Saturday with a new Studebaker Six.

Ask for Gregory's Bread at your grocer's.

The Sentinel is some real match maker. In reporting the winners of the prizes in the Fourth of July parade, Miss Ruth DeLong was spoken of as Mrs. Ruth Delaney. The error, however, was really the fault of the committee that turned in the list of winners.

Feed and seeds at Spray's.

Chas. DeWald has gone to Canyonville for an indefinite stay.

J. O. Dinkle and family have moved here from Puget Sound and have rented the Cooper house at Tenth and Adams.
