A WOMAN IS AS OLD AS SHE LOOKS

KRYPTOK

THE ONLY INVISIBLE BIF CAL remove every objection a woman has to bifocals.

They have the smooth, even surfaces of single vision lenses and nobody but the wearer would ever know that they were bifocals.

KRYPTOKS do not make the wearer look freakish as the old-fashioned bifocals do.

to the hay that was cut, it was just what was needed for late crops.

The Black Butte mines are taking on new life and something is expected to happen there soon.

Everyone is busy around London and all look for a prosperous time this summer.

Under Mr. Mortensen the Calapooya hotel is becoming a popular place with those who are not well or who want something good to eat. Chicken dinners are served every Sunday.

SAGINAW.

(Special to The Sentinel.)

July 19.—Mrs. A. O. Vaughn and five-year-old son, Leslie, who were hurt by their horse running away down the short grade just west of the Casteel home Wednesday last, remained until Sunday with Mrs. Vaughn's parents, Mr. and Mrs. McKinney. Leslie's arm is doing nicely and Mrs. Vaughn, although bruised from head to foot, is able to be around as usual.

Mr. Gebus went to Cottage Grove on legal business Wednesday.

Roy Taplin made a flying trip to the Grove Monday.

Mrs. Janet Miller and daughter, Beatrice, of Seattle, arrived in Saginaw Wednesday of last week for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Benston and family. Miss Beatrice is employed in the mailing department of the Sears & Roebuck store, in Seattle, and is on her summer vacation. Both are delighted with Oregon, especially with this portion of the state. They returned to Seattle Wednesday.

Marjorie Vaughn, who was hurt by the same horse that ran away with her mother, a few days before that time, came down Tuesday to interview the doctor, fearing a broken nose, as she was dragged by the reins, face downward, several feet before the horse could be stopped. The doctor pronounced the nose not broken, but the cartilage bent and only needing massage to remedy the trouble. The same horse on the next day after this accident ran over Edgar Vaughn with a sled, knocking him down and cutting a gash in the fleshy part of his neck. Mr. Benston has the horse here in Saginaw, and the Vaughn family, as soon as practicable, will move out of the hills for good.
