

TALES OF THE TOWN

The nicest courtesy you can show your guests is to have their visits mentioned in The Sentinel. The nicest courtesy you can show your friends is to let them know of your visits through a news item in The Sentinel. The nicest courtesy you can show the editor is to bring to the office a complete write-up of any news item you know. Let's have courtesy all around.

GUNS! Ammunition! Sporting Goods!

Supply your wants in this line here, and get the big game.

WYNNE & KIME HARDWARE

Mrs. Robert Martin and children visited from Saturday to Tuesday with Mrs. Martin's sister, Mrs. James Redford.

Miss Janet Davison has resigned her position in the schools, and Miss Eunice VanDenburg has been elected to fill the vacancy.

Miss Mildred Pringle has charge of Mary Bartell's store this week while Miss Bartell has been in Portland buying stock.

If Your House Hasn't Burned Yet, It's Not Too Late to Have It Insured

Talk With—

METCALF

Ammunition business is good at the Swengel Hardware. Lots of hunters outfitting and some nice deer being killed.

R. O. Brady was up from Creswell Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Mickelson, of Brownsville, are visiting at the home of their daughter, Mrs. M. F. Wyatt.

Closing Out Sale

Household furniture and White Minorca chickens, both young and old. Fine stock. Bargain prices. Call at once. Mrs. J. P. Graham, East Main avenue, Cottage Grove.

Quite a number from here are attending the celebration at Coos Bay of the opening of the Willamette-Pacific.

Popecorn and peanuts from our Butter-Kist machine have a deliciousness all their own. Archie Thompson. a24-31

The photographs taken by A. J. Armstrong were used as the official photographs by the Southern Pacific in the inquiry into the automobile accident at Divide.

A SHIPMENT OF

Ladies' Coats

just arrived. Solid and mixed colors. Prices right, ranging from $8 to $15. Come and get yours while we have your size.

POWELL & CO. THE GOLDEN RULE STORE

Capt. Lee Roy Woods was thrown from the auto truck on the way to camp at Yachats beach and fractured two ribs.

Mrs. G. W. Swengel and two children, of Portland, are visiting here. Mrs. Swengel is a sister-in-law of B. S. Swengel. The G. W. Swengel family has recently moved from North Dakota to Portland to make their home.

NOTICE

Hop-picking will begin in my yard at Creswell, Ore., about September 4.
aug24-31pd R. O. BRADY

There's no mail order house that can beat your prices. Let folks know it.

Mrs. John Nokes and Mrs. M. F. Wyatt visited at the Dresser home at Walker one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Threlkeld, of Portland, are visiting at the home of Mrs. Threlkeld's mother, Mrs. S. P. Churchill.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Neat and

WEST SIDE GROCERY
PHONE 9—FREE DELIVERY
An established business has to make a little profit on goods handled. Otherwise what is the use paying rent, etc.? We sell goods as reasonable as is consistent with a permanent business.
aug3pd child arrived Saturday from Croftonville, Calif., for a couple weeks' visit with relatives at Saginaw.

Hop picking time is here. Get your tent, camp stove, camp stools and camp outfit from the Swengel Hardware.

Miss Minnie Johnson spent Sunday as a guest of her parents at Yonella. On her return she was accompanied by her sister, Miss Myrtle, who will visit here.

Mrs. Krauter, formerly Mrs. Frederickson, was an over-Sunday guest of old friends in this city, her former home.

Mrs. Curran returned home yesterday from a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Bob Gile, at Roseburg.

Rubber heels take the jar out of the spine. So says Doc Goff, Shoe Chiropractor.

Robert Tenge, of Drain, is a guest of his aunt, Mrs. Palmer, and other relatives here.

The will of James A. Sears, deceased, was admitted to probate Monday. He died here November 7, 1915, and left property of the estimated value of $6500. To his wife, Alma M. Sears, he left all his property, and at her death it goes to his adopted son, Ernest J. Sears, and his wife, Zelma. The son is named as executor and O. O. Veach, E. R. Spencer and Worth Harvey are named by the court to appraise the property.

A few more good second hand buggies and wagons at Spray's. apr5tfe

John Brund and son William, accompanied by Mrs. Lucy Holland, left in their automobile Sunday for a tour of southern and central Oregon via Crater lake. At Ashland they will meet Mrs. William Brund, who is returning from Santa Rosa, Calif., where she attended her father's funeral, and she will join them on the trip through central Oregon. The party will return by way of Columbia highway and Portland.

George W. Myers left yesterday for Marshfield, where he will attend the allegorical wedding of "Miss Coos Bay" and "Eugene Lane," and look after property interests.

A barrel of fresh telephone batteries just opened at the Swengel Hardware. Buy from Swengel and get good ones.

Robert Smith, secretary of the State Taxpayers' league, was in the city yesterday on his way home to Roseburg from Eugene.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Durham were called to Medford Tuesday morning by the serious illness of Mr. Durham's father, E. L. Goodridge, who had been visiting Crater lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Lureh went to Portland Saturday for medical treatment for Mrs. Lureh.

Every week The Sentinel has inquiries for sample copies of parties looking for land in this vicinity. If your farm is for sale, you should have it advertised in The Sentinel, where it will reach the eyes of those looking for land in this vicinity.
jly27tfe

A. R. Ostrander, of Twin Falls, Ida., visited yesterday with J. B. Simeral, who was a neighbor back in Iowa. Mr. Ostrander had visited Klamath Falls, Crater lake and Medford and was on his way home by the northern route.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Choate and Mr. and Mrs. Lan Larson were down from Eugene yesterday in Mr. Larson's car and went up Row river on business.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Miller returned Monday from a visit at Albany.

No shopworn goods on the shelves of the merchant who advertises.

Oscar Woodson, Mrs. Baker and Mrs. B. Woodson left Monday for an outing along Columbia highway.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Harlow, of Row river, were visitors here Monday.

A. C. Piper, of Portland, was a guest Monday of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Piper.

Machine oils; Swengel Hardware.

The V. S. Goff family are attending the Coos Bay-Marshfield celebration. They went to Eugene Sunday.

A. L. Monroe is attending the Coos Bay-Marshfield railroad celebration.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Garoutte and Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Matlock and daughter Virginia left Monday by motor car for Marshfield to attend the allegorical wedding of "Miss Coos Bay" and "Eugene Lane." Mr. and Mrs. Garoutte will visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Carpenter, while Mr. and Mrs. Matlock will visit Mrs. Frank White, who formerly lived in Eugene, the home of the Matlocks.

The certificate of the assumed business name of "The Rosewood" was filed with the county clerk Monday by Harry C. Hart.

A marriage license has been issued to Edward M. Babcock and Miss Myrtle M. Walker, both of this city.

A large number from here are planning on leaving for the hop yards with in the next week.

The B. Y. P. U., of the Baptist church, will hold an ice cream social Friday afternoon and evening on the lawn at the K. K. Mills home. The public generally is invited.

Miss Marie Hansen, of Denver, Colo., is here for a two months' visit with her cousins, Misses Esther and Ruth Jorgenson.

The H. J. Jorgenson family motored to Mabel Sunday. Miss Ruth, who had been visiting there, returned with them.

John Brund and Curtis Veach each bought a Studebaker Six during the past week.

Mrs. N. J. Damewood is visiting at Springfield with her daughter, Mrs. Zack Collins.

Harry Hart and Thos. Jones visited Eugene Sunday.

Robert and Thomas Jones have been in the Lorane country the past week after big game.

Mrs. Carrie Hemenway, Mrs. Ilma Benger, Jack and Bonita Benger, Aileen Armstrong and Cletis Swanson hiked to the Shortridge bridge Saturday, ate a picnic dinner there and returned in the evening.

Mrs. A. B. Wood, her sister, Mrs. Stapleton, and Mr. Wood's mother are spending a couple of weeks at Newport. Mr. Wood accompanied them there, remaining over Sunday.

J. B. Protzman took his family to Newport Saturday, leaving them there for a two weeks' outing.

Mrs. Joe Arnold arrived Saturday from Portland to join her husband, who has charge of The Modern Pharmacy during the absence of Mr. Kem.

Guests at the Hefty home during the past week were A. S. Gustafson, of Yaquina, and Mrs. Pearl Ritchey, of Leona.

Miss Lulu Curran, Mrs. Orpha Benson and Ernest Purvance were in Eugene Monday on school business.

Mrs. Anna Hobbs, Miss Grace Hobbs, Miss Pauline Abright and Mr. and Mrs. Clements returned Monday to their home at Eugene, after an outing at London springs.

Mrs. E. H. Pite underwent a minor operation at a Eugene hospital Monday.

The show windows in the Burkholder building at the corner of Main avenue and Sixth street are being remodeled for Westenhaver brothers, who occupy the building.

W. N. Kinehart returned Monday from a visit in eastern Oregon.

C. A. Bartell was at Dallas the first of the week on business.

Miss Nellie Myers is spending a few days at the Hamant home on Row river.

C. C. Westenhaver returned Monday from an extended business trip to Washington and Canada.

Cards have been received here announcing the marriage of C. J. Kem, of this city, at Bradford, Pa., to Miss Frances Margaret Hotteran, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hotteran. The wedding took place August 19.

Harry Martin has returned from an extended trip in southern Oregon.

Rev. Robert Sutcliffe returned last night from his summer chautauqua engagement. He reports a very successful season.

A marriage license has been issued to Elmer E. Monson and Miss Armored M. Sutcliffe. Miss Sutcliffe is the daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Sutcliffe, of this city.

J. S. Medley is here from Eugene today on business.

Mrs. J. G. Cann and two sons, of Stoneboro, Pa., are guests at the home of Mrs. Cann's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Robison.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Harms, of Portland, are visitors at the home of Mrs. Harms' parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Robison.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Wright are attending the celebration at Marshfield.

Mrs. Henry Hukried and Mrs. Ira Butterworth and baby Foster, of Springfield, were week end guests at the M. F. DesLarzes home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Dimick, of Oregon City, were guests Friday at the Leon DesLarzes home.

Anchor Abstead is nursing a pretty lame back. He suffered a severe wrench in some manner and has had to keep himself pretty well bandaged up to be able to move around.

Ira K. Conner was taken to St. Vincent's hospital at Portland last week by his brother, Harry Conner, and Dr. A. W. Kime and underwent an operation for the removal of a tumor. His condition is serious.

I. Pugh and family are returning to Cottage Grove to reside after two or three years spent at Independence. They will occupy their own house on Sixth street.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. White returned Friday from a trip to southern Oregon by automobile. They were delayed on the trip by car trouble.

F. J. Hard was up from Eugene Thursday on business.

The Cottage Grove commercial club has received an invitation to send representatives to the conference regarding the Oregon & California railway land grant lands tax, which will be held in Eugene August 28.

A. W. Sumers writes that he has moved to Lafayette from Eugene.

E. C. Lockwood, John Bader, Fate Long and Charles Gettys left Sunday morning to spend a few days in the Bohemia district looking over the properties there.

Popecorn touches no hand but yours. Made in the new Butter-Kist machine. Archie Thompson. aug24-31

Nelson Durham and Bert Richmond brought in a five-point buck Sunday.

Alfred Jury and Elbert Bede were in Eugene Sunday in connection with the accident at Divide Saturday. They were members of the board of inquiry.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Aisted visited in Eugene Sunday.

Eat Gregory's Bread. tfe

Mrs. W. N. Wheeler returned Sunday from a visit of a few weeks at Mill City.

Lee Roy Woods returned Sunday from an outing on the coast. The Woods family and the Spear, Young and Black-

First Season's Showing of New Fall Corsets

YOU are especially invited to attend our first early showing of Fall Corsets which have just arrived and are now on display. Smart styles in modish models for all figures—slender, medium and stout—are on exhibition. You are most cordially invited to ask to see the latest designs in the very correct

American Lady Corsets

Your particular model awaits you here. Why not take this opportunity of securing a perfect fitting corset, and obtain the correct foundation for the season's gown? Be sure that you insist upon getting "your" model; we have it, we are sure.

American Lady Corsets

Priced here $1.00, $1.50, $2.00, $2.50 up

New Models in Ferry Waists
for all ages—
25c, 50c, 75c
$1.00 and $1.50

Umphrey & Mackin

New Styles in Brassieres, in all sizes, priced here at 50c and $1.00.

THE QUALITY CASH STORE - PHONE 33

more families are expected the latter part of the week.

Mrs. Horace Cochran is down from Rujada for the week.

A wireless blue flame oil stove is just what you want. No smoke, no smell, no heat, no dirt! See the best kind, the Florence Automatic at the Swengel Hardware.

J. Cox transacted business in Yonella one day last week.

Mrs. Samuel Veach, of San Francisco, who had been visiting relatives of her husband here, left Friday for Portland.

Alta King was in Eugene Saturday on business.

If interested in a scholarship in the International Correspondence School, it will pay you to see The Sentinel. jn29tfe

David Griggs was in Eugene Thursday on business.

Rev. H. N. Aldrich spent a few days of last week in Salem and Portland.

Joe Overholser returned last week from Eugene.

E. S. Holderman was in from Rujada Thursday getting supplies for the forestry station. He says the heavy rains have almost eliminated the danger of fire this summer.

Winchester ammunition sold by the Swengel Hardware. Have a few more 30-30's just in.

Marion Veach and son were up from Eugene Thursday.

Prof. W. G. Beattie, newly elected schools superintendent, is having his household goods moved here from Eugene. He will occupy the J. S. Medley home.

Mrs. Sophrona Jessup, of Boise, Ida., visited last week with her niece, Mrs. K. K. Mills.

Cash for chickens and eggs at Spray's. apr5tfe

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Adams and daughter returned last week from an outing at Newport.

Two bucks were brought in by Archie Thompson, Harry and Bose Conner, who were hunting in the Siuslaw country.

Nelse and Ole Jensen, of Chicago, visited a few days last week with their cousin, J. S. Brund.

Advertise in your local paper.

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Helliwell, of Portland, visited one day last week with Mr. Helliwell's brothers, Albert and F. J.

Charles Dutton, wife and little niece, of Olympia, Wash., are guests of relatives and friends here. Mr. Dutton grew up here.

H. K. Mecalf, proprietor of the Sunnyside green houses, has bought Mrs. Awbrey's large green house and moved it upon his premises.

Curran Cooley, agent for the Oregon Fire Relief Association of McMinnville. Phone 15-F4. nlltfe

Henry Fischer, superintendent of the Leona sawmill, and family were in attendance at the funeral of Mrs. Fischer's brother, Benjamin Lunan, Friday afternoon.

Cottage Grove grange discussed the proposed prohibition amendments at the lecture hour of its regular meeting Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Elizabeth Skaggs has leased her farm three and one-half miles south of here and has moved into the Willard cottage on west Main avenue.

Get a safety razor from Swengel Hardware for 35c.

Miss Marian McClain, of Eugene, and Miss Cora Shaver, of Portland, visited Sunday with Miss Bessie Woods.

B. F. Keeney, county assessor, was in the city Monday on his way to Eugene, after a visit with his family, which is enjoying a vacation at London.

Mrs. D. J. Gover left Monday for a month's visit at Harvard, Idaho.

W. J. Messenger was in from Row River Saturday.

Mrs. Frank Link writes from Pomeroy, Wash.: "This country is all right, but give me Oregon for an all around good country. I can't get along without the home paper."

Roy Smith was out after big game the past week, but so far has failed to decorate the editorial desk with evidence of his prowess with a gun.

E. C. Loken, of Minneapolis, arrived last week for a visit with the W. H. Ostrander family and Mrs. Lang. He is looking over the country with a view to locating here.

The rain last week caught some hay down but did little damage otherwise.

A. N. Page, a former resident, died of heart trouble a couple of weeks ago at Milwaukie, Oregon.

Mrs. David Gibson had a peculiar experience with a sliver recently. It was in her finger over six weeks and did not cause a fester. It finally came out of the flesh of its own accord and left no pain.

C. M. Parker was at Dexter last week looking after his ranch.

Mrs. W. C. Conner and son are visiting in Coos county.

Baby carriage, in good condition, for sale. Mrs. J. S. Silsby. Aug 24

Disston-Champion Stage Line
Alex Lundberg, Proprietor
FREIGHTING
Saddle Horses and Packing to All Parts of the Camp
Phone 10F41

ART GOODS

Just opened. Be among the first to LOOK THEM OVER

Pillow Cases, Tray Sets, Dinner Sets, Scarf Sets, Baby Pillows, Pin Cushions, Doilies, Fudge Aprons, Lunch Sets, Towels, Laundry Bags, Cross Stitch Pieces, Tops, Centers, direct from Chicago. You must see them.

ALL NUMBERS IN CROCHET THREAD.
NEW HAND BAGS—ALL STYLES.
NEW HOSIERY—WHITE AND BLACK—ALL PRICES.
NEW RIBBONS.
WISS SHEARS—BEST MADE.

OUR FALL TABLETS FOR SCHOOL

on sale at as low or lower prices than last year, in spite of the advance in paper. We bought early and can give you better prices.

HOP PICKERS—WE HAVE WHAT YOU WANT. CHILDREN'S SIZES IN GLOVES, HATS, ETC.

THE FAIR