SAGINAW.

(Special to The Sentinel.)

Aug. 23.—Mrs. Taylor and Mrs. Peet, mother and sister of Mrs. Howard Moody, have returned to their homes at Sumner, Oregon.

Mrs. Stouffer, Mrs. Clara Burkholder, Johnny and Belle Burkholder motored out to Saginaw Tuesday evening and spent a few pleasant hours at the D. W. McKinney home.

P. T. Benston and D. W. McKinney came a flying auto trip to Cottage Grove Tuesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. George Neet, of Redlands, Calif., are visiting relatives in Saginaw.

Mrs. Taplin and daughter Pearl were in Cottage Grove Tuesday.

Members of the Haight family were all day visitors at the Burgess home one day last week.

Royal Powell, of Lakeport, Calif., was shaking hands with old friends in Saginaw Thursday and Friday.

Mrs. Taplin and daughters Pearl and Cora and son Roy spent a pleasant evening with Mrs. Vaughn and family Monday.

The spiritualist meetings at the home of D. W. McKinney will be held every Sunday evening, beginning at 7:30, until further notice. Subject for next meeting, "Bible Spiritualism." Everybody welcome.

CALAPOOYA SPRINGS.

(Special to The Sentinel.)

Aug. 22.—On account of the late rains, the meeting of the Southern Lane County Taxpayers' league, to have been held here Saturday, was postponed to Saturday, September 2, at 7:30 p. m.

At the latter date it is expected that several prominent speakers will be present, among them some of the nominees for office, who will tell their position on the tax question. As the question for discussion is one of the most important ones before the people today, it is expected that there will be a large attendance. Everyone has been invited to be present. The meeting will be held in the grove at the springs. The London people will furnish the music and entertainment and endeavor to make the evening a success socially.

The late rains stopped harvesting for a few days but did little damage.

The Black Butte mines are being run by E. B. Crane and the results seem very satisfactory.

The Baughman Lumber Co. is installing a donkey engine at the mill.

A. L. Woodard will soon be ready to start his mill at the Shortridge place. He is installing two donkey engines.

Rev. and Mrs. Mackey left for California today.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Moore, of California, are visiting in this neighborhood.

Mr. and Mrs. Mortenson and their two daughters, who have charge of the Calapooya hotel and springs, are very busy looking after the wants of their guests. They seem to have the knack of pleasing the people. They serve an old fashioned chicken dinner Sundays.

The road via Calapooya Springs and Black Butte to Sutherland is being pushed again and, no doubt, will be opened. Such a road will be of great benefit to all who are passing through the country, as it will give them a beautiful scenic road through this section. There will be little expense, as there will be but a short stretch of road to build to connect existing roads.

SILK CREEK.

(Special to The Sentinel.)

Aug. 23.—Mrs. Wheeler, who has been visiting in Eugene, Albany, Salem, Mill City and Gates, is at home again, having enjoyed a very pleasant trip.

WALKER AND LYNX HOLLOW.

(Special to The Sentinel.)

Aug. 23.—Geo. Tellier has been entertaining right royally at his bachelor home in upper Lynx Hollow. First a party of friends consisting of Mr. Coleman, wife and children, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Lambert, motored up from Corvallis for a week-end visit. They were entertained with a bountiful spread given by Mr. Tellier and neighbors Saturday evening. The first course consisted of oyster soup and was followed by fried chicken, salad, cake and coffee, pie, etc. The following week he was surprised by a visit from his niece and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Erkheart, of Rogue River. They, in company with Mr. Tellier, motored to Cottage Grove Sunday, spending the day with old time friends. Mr. Erkheart professed to be much pleased with the verdant Willamette valley, which contrasts favorably with the dry, brown condition of Rogue River.
