

TALES OF THE TOWN

The nicest courtesy you can show your guests is to have their visits mentioned in The Sentinel. The nicest courtesy you can show your friends is to let them know of your visits through a news item in The Sentinel. The nicest courtesy you can show the editor is to bring to the office a complete write-up of any news item you know. Let's have courtesy all around.

You Want to Be Cozy This Winter

We have a fine line of HEATERS that will keep the house cheerful and all the members of the family in the same desirable condition.

Wynne & Kime

Miss Margaret Shay left this morning for Marial, Ore., where she will teach a six months' term of school.

J. R. Cooley attended the state fair last week.

J. J. Dillon and wife, of Portland, are visiting the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Magee. Mr. and Mrs. Dillon are returning from an eastern trip.

Cash for chickens and eggs at Spray's. apr5tf

Monte Miner was in from Black Butte yesterday.

"Shorty" Litch is busy this week getting his garage moved into his new location at Sixth and Washington.

Home Pride Range

Goes at a bargain but is as good as new and looks the part. Will trade for heater wood. Mrs. Elbert Bede.

Lee Roy Woods and son Dan made a motorcycle trip to Kelo, Wash., during the past week.

Whether you are a church member or not, you should have Dr. Goff see that your souls are in repair.

Tom Gill came up from Roseburg yesterday.

Mrs. T. M. Hunt, of Cordova, Alaska, has been here a few days looking after her property. She has been on an extended trip with her children, whom she left at Independence on her way here.

A. B. Wood is in Portland on business.

The Golden Rule Store

We take this opportunity to thank one and all of our customers for making the past September the banner month of our business life. We are here to serve the public with the best merchandise for the money and ask for the continuance of your patronage and make October better than the past month.

POWELL & COMPANY

WHERE THE PRICES ARE RIGHT

Call and select your Christmas presents at Madsen's while you have a good assortment to pick from. I will put them away for you. H. C. Madsen. s14o5

Manager Crane was in from Black Butte Monday with 100 flasks of quicksilver which he was shipping.

Will Denney returned Monday from Davenport, Wash., and will be the new night watchman at the Brown Lumber company's mill.

Ralph Sheary is recovering from injuries sustained in a fall from a bicycle.

A few more good second hand buggies and wagons at Spray's. apr5tf

Among the products of Geo. Sheary's ranch is a potato vine that measures nine feet in length.

Disston-Champion Stage Line

Alex Lundberg, Proprietor
FREIGHTING
Saddle Horses and Packing to All Parts of the Camp
Phone 10F41

Mrs. S. R. Brand and Miss Margaret motored to Eugene Friday. Miss Margaret is studying music at the University school of music.

Mrs. S. R. Brand received news last week of the death of her father who was a resident of Minneapolis, Minn.

Little Adeline Adams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Adams, sustained a fracture of the collar bone a few days ago as the result of a fall.

Miss Esther Silsby attended the state fair last week. Mrs. Ella Mills, of Ashland, returned with her for a short visit.

K. K. Mills is attending a convention of funeral directors in Portland this week.

Eat Gregory's Bread. tf

WEST SIDE GROCERY

PHONE 9—FREE DELIVERY
An established business has to make a little profit on goods handled. Otherwise what is the use paying rent, etc.? We sell goods as reasonable as is consistent with a permanent business. aug2pd

Mrs. Will Hall has recovered from an attack of tonsillitis.

Miss Esther Hill was up from the University of Oregon for the week end and had as her guests the Misses Alice Hill, Helen Curry and Joy Gross, also university students.

Roy Keagy, of California, left for home today after a visit with his aunt, Mrs. Will Hall.

Get your wedding stationery from The Sentinel and live happily ever afterwards.

Charles DeWald has returned from spending the summer at Canyonville.

Butte Mooney, Lee Tennis and Raymond Trask returned Saturday from a hunting trip and brought in two bucks and a bear.

Charles Hall and Chet VanDenburg left Tuesday for the Johnson meadows and will bring back several deer.

Let your friends in other states know of the country you live in, and they may want to come here too. Extra copies of The Sentinel for that purpose, two for 5 cents. dec22tf

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Barnard and two daughters, of Lakeview, visited briefly Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Armstrong. They were on their way to Salem for a visit.

E. E. Lilly is down from the Bohemia district this week. He brought two more bear skins, making eight for the season. One of the latter was secured by his son, E. C., this being the first bear he has killed.

A slight fall of snow was reported Tuesday in some of the higher altitudes around Cottage Grove.

Currin Cooley, agent for the Oregon Fire Relief Association of McMinnville, Phone 15 F4. nlltf

Charles Cunningham, of Carrolltown, Mo., arrived Tuesday for a visit with his sister, Mrs. L. C. Currin.

Mrs. E. E. Peik underwent an operation at a Eugene hospital Monday.

Mrs. Paul Jones, of Portland, a former resident, has been a guest of friends here this afternoon.

Just received, a fine line of the best self-filling non-leakable fountain pens in the market. These pens perform while others promise. H. C. Madsen. o5c

Hornace Conner, of the Southern Pacific carpenter crew, was up from Cow creek canyon to spend Sunday with his family.

A 12-pound daughter was born September 29 to Mr. and Mrs. Clair Spray at Hood River.

Joe McKibben, who is with the Southern Pacific bridge crew, was in the city several days of the past week recovering from an attack of the grip.

Tell about it to readers of classified advertisements—and if your property and price are both "right," you'll find a buyer.

Ben Lureh came up from Portland Tuesday on business. Mrs. Lureh, who is receiving treatment at Portland, is improving. Mr. and Mrs. Lureh will leave shortly for California for the benefit of Mrs. Lureh's health.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. White and son Arthur arrived last week from Wisconsin to make their future home. Mr. and Mrs. White are the parents of Richard White and Mrs. Ella Thompson. They are aged 82 and 76 respectively. They express themselves as delighted with the Cottage Grove country.

Mrs. Felix Currin and son Homer arrived Saturday from Gaston to spend a couple of weeks on business.

A fine line of Rockford silver plate ware in new patterns at Madsen's. o5c

Ward Berg left Tuesday for Los Angeles, where he will attend school.

Mrs. J. S. Benson, Mrs. H. C. Berg, Miss Jessie Berg and Ward Berg attended the recent Methodist conference at Lebanon. They made the trip by automobile with "Happy" Young as chauffeur.

H. A. Miller was at Leona from Wednesday until Saturday doing some machine work for the Leona mill.

Tell about it to readers of classified advertisements—and avoid any threatened lapse of rent income.

Mr. and Mrs. John Barker have been down from Mosby creek the past week. Mrs. Barker recently killed one of the largest bucks that has ever been shot in that district.

J. I. Jones and son Frank have received the contract for hauling the winter supplies to the Vesuvius mine in the Bohemia district and are making two round trips a week.

Several auto trucks of machinery passed through here last week for the mills at Leona. The trip was made from Portland.

Those desiring pictures taken in exchange for wood, call at Monroe's gallery at the bridge. oct5-12c

A. W. Wampole was up from Leona last week buying supplies for the company store at that place.

O. H. Heine has bought a 1917 Ford. Kenneth Mills attended the state fair at Salem last week.

C. A. Hawkins, who had been visiting relatives here, left last week to attend the state fair, this being the first time he has attended despite his long residence in Oregon.

George McQueen is now employed at Westenhaver Brothers' store and A. W. Ward has taken Mr. McQueen's place with Kerr & Silsby.

Wish lady assistant for pleasant and profitable employment. Apply Mrs. Tait, at Miller boarding house. o5pd
J. H. Hawley was in Eugene one day last week.

Alta King was in Eugene Saturday.

Arthur Combs, who teaches the Blue Mountain school, was in Eugene Saturday on school business.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Cochran returned Saturday from Rujada, where Mr. Cochran was in the forest service during the summer.

Tell about it to readers of classified advertisements—and you'll discover that a great many people are "interested in real estate."

Today is the last day for payment of taxes to avoid the penalty.

E. W. Armes has returned from an extended stay in Idaho.

Mrs. Armand Wynne expects to go to Portland within the next week to spend some time with her mother.

Word has been received here of the marriage of Miss Bessie Griffin, of this city, and Fred Smith, of Harris, Minn. Miss Griffin is a daughter of Robert Griffin and accompanied Mrs. Elbert Bede on her recent trip east. Mr. Smith is a brother of Mrs. Bede. Several other young women have put in their applications to accompany Mrs. Bede on her next trip.

Miss Nellie Myers was up from Eugene to spend the week end with her sister, Mrs. Elbert Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Tyson were up from Eugene Friday to attend the Hughes meeting at London. Mrs. Tyson remained here to visit friends and Elbert Bede accompanied Mr. Tyson to London, doing the heavy work on repairing a blowout.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Kem arrived Friday from the east. They were married in the east and took an extended honeymoon trip.

Joe Arnold, who had charge of the Modern Pharmacy during the absence of Mr. Kem, left Sunday, accompanied by his wife, for Boise, Idaho.

George and Ed. Worthington were in from Lorane Saturday casing up some business deals.

Mrs. N. E. Compton arrived Saturday from Amity for a short visit while on her way to California. The Comptons leave shortly for the east to again make that their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Southard left for Medford Monday to visit a daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Herold returned Sunday night from an extended visit in Oklahoma. They were called there by the death of Mrs. Herold's father.

Miss Opal Whiteley was in the city Monday forenoon while on her way to Eugene from attending a Christian Endeavor convention in southern Oregon, being state superintendent. She returned on the forenoon train to her studies at the university.

Mrs. J. W. Gowdy is in California visiting at the home of her son, Guy Van Riper.

Mrs. George Young is suffering with a sprained ankle, the result of turning her foot while returning home from the parent-teacher meeting Tuesday night.

The little daughter of Prof. and Mrs. Skei, of this city, was one of eight babies scoring 99 per cent in the baby clinic at the county fair.

Ves. Vench has returned from a visit with his daughter, Mrs. John Martin, at Creswell.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Sullivan, of Klamath Falls, are visiting at the home of Mrs. Sullivan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Kerr. They are returning home from Portland, where they were called by the sickness and death of Mr. Sullivan's mother.

Mrs. Ed. Jones left Tuesday for Roseburg for a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Roy Bellows.

Mr. and Mrs. Al. Elledge have returned from the western part of the county, where Mr. Elledge was employed during the summer in charge of a rock crushing crew.

Dow Estes, aged 53, of Silk Creek, was committed to the state hospital at Salem last week.

C. F. Walker is up from Ashland this week.

Joe Champagne, of Eugene, spent Sunday at the home of his sister, Mrs. Armand Wynne.

J. A. Rupert, of Portland, spent Sunday with his old time friend, W. N. Rinehart.

Mrs. P. I. Rust was up from Eugene over Sunday visiting Mr. Rust, who is operating his prune dryer here.

Miss Florence Hemenway was up from Eugene to spend the week end with her parents.

A meeting of the Southern Lane County Taxpayers' league will be held at the city hall at 2:30 Saturday afternoon.

J. E. Banton, of London, has been making regular trips to the city during the past couple of weeks with the London stage, having charge of the Keithley store during the absence of Mr. Keithley, who is in eastern Oregon.

The W. B. Cooper family has moved into the city for the winter. Mr. Cooper has leased his ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Eakin, D. A. MacLeod and John Bader visited the state fair at Salem last week, making the trip in the Eakin car.

Miss Nancy Whitsett visited a couple of days last week with her sister, Mrs. Jess Lewis, of Eugene.

Dr. B. R. Job was in Eugene Friday on business.

A bad break in the city water main at the depot gave Water Commissioner Pither considerable trouble a couple of days this week.

Mrs. L. C. Reynolds, son Marion and daughter Margaret, of Cushman, visited

BETTER FILMS

NEW POLICY AT THE ARCADE COMMENCING Friday, October 6

LEADING STARS

Having thoroughly studied the situation in Cottage Grove, we truly believe that the people of the city want better photoplays, not only judging from personal requests we have received but also from the increased attendance on the features we have been using occasionally. Accordingly we have made the following changes:

TRIANGLE FILMS ON FRIDAYS INSTEAD OF RED FEATHER.

BRADY MADE FILMS ON SATURDAYS INSTEAD OF WORLD FILMS.

WM. FOX FILMS ON SUNDAYS INSTEAD OF BLUE BIRD FILMS.

FOX FILMS

On Friday, Saturday and Sunday we Find It Necessary to Charge: Children, 5c; Adults, 15c

FRIDAY Triangle Photoplays	SATURDAY Brady Film Co. Presents— ROBERT WARWICK IN HUMAN DRIFTWOOD A SHUBERT ATTRACTION IN FIVE PARTS BRADY FILMS	SUNDAY WM. FOX PRESENTS— WM. FARNUM IN The Soldier's Oath GRIPPING HUMAN INTEREST DRAMA IN SIX ACTS
---	--	---

TRIANGLE

ENGAGEMENT EXTRAORDINARY

ARCADE THEATER
Cottage Grove
One Day Only
MONDAY, OCT. 9

The World's Greatest Feature

"CIVILIZATION"

The great Ince triumph in 11 reels with 1000 thrills. Brought direct in its entirety from a four weeks' engagement at the Heilig Theatre, Portland

SPLENDID ORCHESTRA—FEATURE CHORUS
WONDERFUL EFFECTS—A REVELATION

200 Seats for School Children at 25c for
Matinee Performance at 3 p. m. Seats on Sale at The Elite

NOTICE

We have now on display the largest stock of new merchandise we have ever assembled in the city. Owing to the coming advance in price of nearly everything, we purchased largely at the old or lowest prices before its advance and necessarily we have had to increase our stock. This enables us to offer you practically everything under the market price of today. We can sell you dishes today at almost what they are worth wholesale. In fact we cannot get shipments on staple dishes within any reasonable length of time. We are selling enamel ware and aluminum ware as low or lower than you ever had it offered. We could not do it if we had not bought early. We are satisfied you can save by getting our prices.

WE ARE OPENING NEW GOODS DAILY. WE HAVE THE LATEST IN EVERYTHING. SEE OUR NEW HATS AND CAPS FOR THE LADIES, NEW VEILS, NEW SWEATERS, NEW COLLARS, NEW HANDKERCHIEFS, GLOVES, RIBBONS, PINS, GINGHAMS AND HUNDREDS OF OTHER ITEMS. MEN'S AND BOYS' JERSEY SWEATERS. YOU WILL WANT ONE. SEE THEM.

THE FAIR STORE

Chas. W. Fairbanks

Republic Nominee for Vice President of United States

WILL SPEAK AT

Eugene Friday
Oct. 6 at 9:45 am.
at Rex Theater

here the past week. Marion is on his way to New York to accept a law position.

Warren Edwards was up from the U. of O. for the week end.

D. P. Burton attended the Hughes rally at Creswell Friday and went on to the meeting at Acme.

Mr. and Mrs. James Adams, of Oakland, Calif., are visiting their son, Chas. Adams.

Miss Mabel Wilson has accepted a position with the Fair store.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Conley, of Roseburg, were guests one day last week of Mrs. Conley's sisters, Pearl and Minnie Johnson.

Joe Overholser has returned from a business trip to Oakland, Calif.

"Dad" Schiller, who has been a fixture at the Oregon hotel for several years, will make his home this winter with his son in Idaho.

Walter Hawley, of Boise, Idaho, visited the past week with his brother, J. H. Hawley.

Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Martin left last week for Ashland to make their home this winter.

E. R. Spencer attended the rally at Eugene Friday night and has gone on to Florence and other coast points in the interest of his candidacy for county commissioner.

K. J. Lincoln, wife and two daughters, formerly of Alberta, Canada, but late of Minnesota, have bought two lots in west Cottage Grove, near the H. C. Madsen home. The old cottage is being removed from the premises and a modern 7-room bungalow will be erected. The Lincoln family will be joined by another daughter as soon as her school work closes in Minnesota, where she is teaching.

A. J. Hager, owner of the Modern Print Shop, has returned from spending the summer in Douglas county.

John Graber is down from the Bohemia district.

S. L. Godard, who is spending the season erecting silos down the valley, was home over last night.

L. S. Hill is in California on business.

W. E. Mansfield, who recently arrived here from Billings, Mont., has purchased the restaurant and confectionery business which Charles Cooley has conducted for a couple of years.

Will Go to Hear Fairbanks.

A number of republicans from here are planning to go to Eugene tomorrow morning to hear Charles W. Fairbanks, republican candidate for vice-president, who will speak at the Rex theater there while on his way to Portland, where he will speak tomorrow evening.

The address at Eugene will be at 9:45 a. m. and those who will attend from here will go by automobile. All wishing to attend are requested to communicate at once with Elbert Bede, president of the Hughes club.

Civilization Coming October 9.

"Civilization," without doubt the world's greatest motion picture, is coming to the Arcade theater for one day only, which makes it almost impossible to secure your favorite seat unless you have been fortunate enough to make reservations early in the week. Brought in its entirety direct from a four weeks' engagement at the Heilig, of Portland, with a splendid orchestra, feature chorus, wonderful effects, at the same prices as were paid at Portland.

Live Stock Sale.

A big combination live stock sale will be held at Creswell at an early date. Anyone having live stock to sell can list the same and it will be sold along with 250 head of cattle. The sale will attract buyers from all parts of the state and will be a boon to Creswell as a live stock center. Anyone desirous of availing themselves of this golden opportunity to dispose of their surplus live stock can list them with Cal Eaton. All listings must be in by October 12.

CAL EATON, Owner.
Care of Smeed Hotel, Eugene, Oregon.

Urges Repeal of Sunday Law.

Phil C. Hayward addressed a large audience at the Rex theater last Thursday evening and urged the repeal of the old Sunday blue law. He showed how the law of half a century ago is not applicable to the present day.