

TALES OF THE TOWN

The nicest courtesy you can show your guests is to have their visits mentioned in The Sentinel. The nicest courtesy you can show your friends is to let them know of your visits through a news item in The Sentinel. The nicest courtesy you can show the editor is to bring to the office a complete write-up of any news item you know. Let's have courtesy all around.

Now You Can Plow and Seed and here's what you need to do the job with:

Hoosier Drills and Seeders.
J. I. Case Plows and Harrows.
Both Chilled and Steel Plows.

Wynne & Kime

Tell about it to the readers of classified advertisements—and if the second-hand article is still useful, you'll be able to sell it.

All of the cigar stores and pool rooms were running full blast here Sunday for the first time since the Sunday closing agitation early last winter in this city and county.

Dr. L. D. Seabrook and family, of Creswell, motored up to this city Sunday and spent the day with relatives and friends.

Why not get a new door mat or foot scraper? The Swengel Hardware has them.

C. A. Lynch has installed a complete battery charging equipment. It has a capacity of charging two ordinary automobile batteries at the same time.

The condition of Ira Conner is improving.

Everything for your Thanksgiving table at Short's grocery.

Captains H. K. Metcalf and Lee Roy Woods and Lieutenants Cruse and King were in Eugene Monday taking military examinations.

James Linebaugh, J. E. Banton, S. P. Shortridge and John Kirk are serving on the jury at Eugene.

The Golden Rule Store

Reduction on all Ladies' Coats

From this date on we will give a liberal cash discount on all ladies' coats until the winter line is closed out. Come while the stock is full.

POWELL & COMPANY
Prices Are Right

Just received, a fine line of the best self-filling non-leakable fountain pens in the market. These pens perform while others promise. H. C. Madsen. o5c

The cases of Crites vs. Parker and Crites vs. McKibben are on trial in the circuit court.

H. J. Shinn transacted business in Eugene this week.

Janney service. Lynch's Garage. n16tf

Final citizenship papers have been issued to Andrew Tourrette and Ralph A. Snauer, of Cottage Grove, and Andrew Simonsen, of Lorane.

Cash for chickens and eggs at Spray's.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Kitts, of Portland, visited several days last week with Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Thurber. Through the efforts of Mr. Thurber they brought with them the line of ladies' suits and coats for which Mr. Kitts is the representative. Miss Bowers accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Kitts. Mr. and Mrs. Thurber and Mr. and Mrs. Kitts were schoolmates.

Lanterns, 60c, 90c, $1 and up to $2.50. Swengel Hardware.

A daughter was born Tuesday night to Mr. and Mrs. Fox, at Leona.

C. A. Shaw has returned from Idaho.

Highest prices paid for your spuds at Short's, and groceries sold to you at the most reasonable prices.

Disston-Champion Stage Line

Alex Lundberg, Proprietor
FREIGHTING
Saddle Horses and Packing to All Parts of the Camp
Phone 10F41

Sam Veatch is now employed at the Modern Pharmacy.

Wm. Mulkey arrived yesterday from Lebanon for a visit with his brother-in-law, David Sterling.

Last chance to get them—sweet spuds at a special low price at DesLarzes Bros. Charles Walker is up from Ashland for a few days.

Mrs. Armand Wynne and children left Sunday for an extended visit with Mrs. Wynne's parents at Portland.

The biggest value we have ever offered our subscribers is The Sentinel and four standard magazines, all one year, for only $1.75.

Tonsillitis in a light form is prevalent in the city.

Mrs. Clara Burkholder and Mrs. Lydia Stouffer have been suffering with tonsillitis during the past week.

Tell about it to the readers of classified advertisements—and you'll have the satisfaction of restoring the article you found to its owner.

F. J. Helliwell has traded his farm east of the city to Chas. A. Brown, of Talent. Mr. Helliwell received a general merchandise store in the trade.

Miss Zora Augusta Shaw, dramatic artist, gave a very pleasing rendition of "The Melting Pot" at the high school assembly room Monday evening.

Cash paid for hides, pelts, wool or mohair at Spray's.

Miss Ollie Currin, who had been visiting her cousins, Mrs. E. Purvance and Miss Lulu Currin, returned Tuesday to her home at Sutter, Calif.

Miss Helena Wein, of California, who was a guest of Miss Irma Mills last week, is now visiting friends in Eugene.

Paints, oils, stains and varnishes for both old and new work. Get the kind you want from the Swengel Hardware.

Miss Irma Mills went to Salem a few days ago to visit relatives and friends.

George Boyd and several other teamsters are engaged in delivering lumber from the Raughman sawmill at London Springs to the railroad siding at Latham, a distance of about 11 miles.

Twenty-five per cent off on all hats at The Vogue. nov16-23pd

Miss Ethel Bartels has returned from a visit with a sister at Portland. She will return to the metropolis soon to spend the winter.

Miss Harriet Vilas, a teacher in the Springfield schools, was a week end guest of relatives and friends in this city.

We will pay you the cash for your butter and eggs.—DesLarzes Bros.

Herman Edwards and Miss Ada Matthews, of the U. of O., were week end guests of Cottage Grove relatives.

Mrs. C. A. Bartell and Mrs. L. S. Hill went to Portland Thursday, returning Sunday evening.

Beans, spuds and wood wanted at Short's grocery.

Grant Bales was in the city yesterday and left The Sentinel a fine specimen of his pens. It is of large size, weighing a little over a pound, and has a name that even Mr. Bales does not know how to spell.

H. A. Miller has been having a hard time holding his own with the grip during the past week.

You can't buy a better Christmas present than the fine phonograph at $35. It is one the whole family will enjoy. See them at Madsen's. o26n2c

The Kruger family, which has had a farm on Silk creek, has moved to Seaside to reside.

Dave Allison, of Roseburg, visited relatives here last week.

We will meet any train, day or night, with closed-in car. Telephone us. Lynch's Garage. n16tf

Mrs. M. Hyland and son Dan were guests last week of Mrs. Hyland's brother, Dan Minogue. Brother and sister had not seen each other for 21 years.

John Armstrong is sick with the grip this week.

See the Mitchell Six at Lynch's Garage. nov2pd

Mrs. Nettie Estes, of Cottage Grove, has applied to the county court for a widow's pension. Her husband, Lorenzo Dow Estes, was committed to the state hospital in September of this year. She has four minor children dependent upon her, according to the petition.

Roofing paper and building paper is what you want right now. Get it from Swengel Hardware.

Billy Edwards was down from his Bohemia mining property during the past week. He recently killed two bears and says there is three feet of snow in the district.

C. M. Shinn was in Portland and Salem a couple of days last week.

To make your sweetheart, wife or sister happy, for Christmas, buy a diamond ring. I have them from $10 up to $450. Earrings from $8 up. Searf pins from $5 up. H. C. Madsen. nov16tf

Mrs. H. J. Shinn, who recently returned from a Portland hospital, is recovering nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. McClellan were in from Saginaw Saturday.

Five earloads of potatoes wanted. Highest market price paid. W. B. Cooper. nov16c

Mrs. Luella Knowlton was up from Dexter last week visiting her grandmother, Mrs. S. E. McKinney.

E. C. Lockwood was in Eugene Saturday.

Exchange—Fine 2-acre bearing orchard, some improvements, in city limits, for small house and lot. P. O. Box 493. nov16tf

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Stiller left Monday for Newport, where Mr. Stiller has bought a crematory.

Of all the farmers who have made cider this year, G. W. McFarland is the only one who has left samples at The Sentinel office. It was mighty good stuff.

Baled hay for sale at Short's grocery.

A. A. Kelly was in from Lorane last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Walker left Saturday to spend several months at Waldport.

Currin Cooley, agent for the Oregon Fire Relief Association of McMinnville. Phone 15F4. n11tf

Mrs. John Bader returned a couple of

November Days are O'coat Days

Our showing is the most complete in town
All of the season's newest shades of Brown, Green,
Blue and Gray Mixtures.

Models for men and young men. Priced at $10 to $20

A special showing at $15

Union Suits and two-piece Underwear at

$1.00 $1.25 $1.50 $2.00 $2.50 $3.00
$3.50 $4.50 $5.00 THE SUIT

THE WOOLEN MILLS STORE

Leading Clothiers

Cottage Grove

weeks ago from an extended visit at Pittsburgh.

Lloyd Bisbey has resigned his position at Rutland, where he was employed by the U. S. Logging company and he and his family will probably make their home at London.

White beans are going sky high. Get your winter's supply now at DesLarzes Bros.—cut prices.

Mrs. Frances E. Gray returned last week from Halsey, where she looked after her ranch and visited a sister during the summer.

H. M. Bartlett, the harnessmaker, has been suffering with the grip during the past week.

The price of leather is going up every day. Have those shoes fixed before it goes out of sight. Dr. Goff. n16tf

Miss Fern Holcomb, who teaches in the Junction City schools, was home for the week end.

Robert Atkinson was up from Eugene over Sunday.

Call and select your Christmas presents at Madsen's while you have a good assortment to pick from. I will put them away for you. H. C. Madsen. s14o5

H. T. Hartley, of Tumalo, visited a few days last week with his cousin, Albert Helliwell.

Mrs. Rebecca Stedham and two sons have returned from Hood River.

Tell about it to the readers of classified advertisements—and learn what efficient tenant-hunters these little ads are.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace VanSchoick, of Arlington, returned home Saturday after a visit at the home of Mr. VanSchoick's aunt, Mrs. Rosa Currin, and with relatives at Dorena.

Lynch Currin left Tuesday for Albany, where he will be employed.

Eat Gregory's Bread. tfe

Miss Janet Davidson, a former teacher here, but now teaching in Douglas county, visited here during the week end.

Mrs. Charles Adams was ill during the past week.

A. B. Wood was in Portland during the past week on business.

The Swengel Hardware has been sell-

BANQUET AND PROGRAM.

The Enterpean club, assisted by the Ladies' Aid society of the Presbyterian church, will give a supper and musical program Friday evening at Moose hall. Supper at 6:30, 25c. Program at 8, 10c.

Program:
Piano Duet—"Czardas"—Ruth Stewart, Juanita Short.
Vocal Solo—"When Song Is Sweet"—(Sans Souci)—Frank Wallace.
Piano Solo—"Sweet Souvenir"—(Marti)—Doris Holderman.
Vocal Solo—"When the Birds Go North Again"—(Willeby)—Mary Bartels.
Piano Solo—"Afterglow"—(Zimmerman)—Bethel Gowdy.
Vocal Solo—"A Perfect Day"—(Carrie Jacobs Bond)—Dale Wyatt.
Piano Solo—"Salut a Pesh"—(Kowalski)—Ruth Stewart.
Vocal Duet—"Sing On"—(Denza)—Miss Wilcox, Mrs. Short.
Piano Solo—"Bacchante"—Juanita Short.

Vocal Solo—"September"—(Charlton)—Jessie Smith.
Piano Solo—"Scherzo, E. Minor"—(Mendelssohn)—Mrs. Griswold. n16c

ing an average of one heating stove a day the last week and still have a few left. Better get yours.

E. R. Spencer, newly elected county commissioner, was in Eugene Saturday.

Closed-in car at your service day or night. Lynch's Garage. n16tf

Miss Florence Hemenway was up from the university for the week end to visit her parents. She was accompanied by Miss Ullie Crosby, Miss Gene Cochran and Miss Annalee Miller.

Miss Nellie Myers, of Eugene, spent the week end with her sister, Mrs. Elbert Smith.

A few more good second hand bugles and wagons at Spray's. apr5tf
E. J. Hard came down from the mines Sunday and went to his home in Eugene.

Mrs. Frank Pleunard left Wednesday for a two weeks' visit with relatives at Woodburn.

Special cut price on sugar balance of week at DesLarzes Bros., for the cash.

K. J. Lincoln, a new arrival, is erecting a bungalow on the west side.

Mrs. C. W. Simpson and daughter Ethel visited at Lorane last week.

Cold weather. Good shoe repairing. Goff. n16tf

Mrs. John Simpson and son are visiting at Lorane.

A carload of emigrants' movables was shipped this week to Robert Morgan at Westminster, B. C.

Jesse Darling was in from Lorane Tuesday on his way to Eugene on business before the district court.

Water motor for sale at a bargain. Will develop 8 horsepower. The Sentinel. oct26tfpd

Percival I. Rust is up from Eugene looking after the shipping of his prunes. Orville Spear leaves today for Westwood, Calif.

Chas. Adams has been having a tussle this week with the grip or something similar.

Spray will pay you cash for potatoes or wheat.

Gladys Simpson, aged 13, has been committed to the state hospital at Salem.

Claud Cruse came up from Eugene yesterday to harvest his potato crop.

Mrs. Frank Warren, of Leona, died Tuesday at the Cottage Grove hospital. She had undergone an operation at Roseburg, from which she never fully recovered. The funeral is being held today at Comstock.

Call and see the fine line of Christmas presents at H. C. Madsen's. o26n2c
Miss Marie Yoran, of Eugene, has been the guest of Mrs. K. K. Mills this week.

John Veatch returned Tuesday from Portland, where he sold two ears of sheep.

Fred Crowell was up from Elkton this week.

E. R. Spencer has been at Salem and Dallas this week on business.

"Aunt" Fanny Harris is ill at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Rogers. The tie plant has been shut down a few days on account of the ear shortage.

Corps Is Inspected.

Mrs. Jaca Willoughby, department president and Mrs. Jennie Higgins, department secretary, were here yesterday for an inspection of the woman's relief corps. The women were accompanied from Eugene by Mrs. Lydia E. Kreamer, president of J. W. Geary corps, Mrs. Mannie Wheeler, Mrs. Anna Butterfield, Mrs. Sarah Fisher, Miss Emma Lowry, Mrs. Llewellyn Hall, Mrs. Johanna Day, Mrs. Susan Hill, Mrs. Alice Shepard and Comrades Ed. A. Kreamer and I. S. Circle. The trip was made via auto stage. The visitors were entertained at dinner by the local corps.

Weather Is Chilly.

The past week has been a chilly one for this section, the thermometer going below freezing every night. The plumber has been a rather busy man repairing unprotected water pipes.

Sale Is Successful.

The sale of livestock conducted at Creswell yesterday was a decided success, say those who attended. Over 200 head of cattle were sold at a good figure, one cow bringing $51 and a bull $85. Eighty-four sheep were sold at $9 a head, which is a big price.

ERNEST SEARS ADOPTS LATEST NON-SKID LIP

Delight Valley, Nov. 14.—(Special to The Sentinel.)—Ever since election E. J. Sears, a Delight Valley pioneer, has been adorned with a non-skid upper lip. He says that with another four years of Wilson hard times he doesn't wish to take any chances when running his face.

Full many a gem of purest ray serene—The dark, unfathomed caves of ocean bear.

Full many a beauteous upper lip is doomed to pass unseen When man decides a moustache he will wear.

If you are a subscriber to The Sentinel you will be sorry—when your subscription expires.

Meat Specials

For Saturday, November 18

Beef Pot Roast, lb. 12½¢ and 15¢
Beef Rib Roast, lb. 15¢
T-Bone or Porterhouse Steak, 2 lbs. for 35¢
Veal Stew, lb. 10¢
Veal Roast, lb. 12½¢ to 17½¢

EXTRA SPECIAL!

Pure Lard in bulk, lb. 20¢
Salmon, half or whole fish, lb. 10¢

FIRST QUALITY City Meat Market FREE DELIVERY
PHONE 89 RIGHT PRICES

Only 6½ Weeks of Shopping Days Until Christmas

Early Buyers—

We offer you a great many inducements at this time to help you buy early. We have on sale several lines of gift books which you can purchase now by the dozen or less. Later these specials will be out and not obtainable.

Although we haven't all our toilet articles on display still we can show anything to help you make your selection.

We Will Help You Save Money—as we have used every effort to obtain for you holiday goods at as low or lower prices than last year.

Remember we have some extra good values in Outing Flannels at 2½¢ a yard—less than it is worth today. 15¢ grade at 12½¢.

Ladies' and Children's Headwear

We have had an unusually large sale in toques and caps. Our prices are low. See them.

We sell the best match made, at 4c a box.
Common clothes pins, 3 dozen for 5c.
Best wire clothes pins (10c or 3 doz. for 25c kind) our price 5c doz.
Toilet paper as good as ever, 6 rolls for 25c.
Toilet paper, 10c rolls, 4 rolls for 25c.
Enamelware—No advance in price. We are selling it at all prices.
Aluminumware—Lower than you could buy it last year.
Tablets, they say, will almost double in price soon. We have enough for six months' selling at the old price. Remember this.

The FAIR STORE