Popular Drummer Injured in Automobile Accident.

D. H. Diamond, a well known traveling salesman who visits Cottage Grove every two weeks in the interests of Lang & company, of Portland, and Samuel Baldwin, of the Baldwin Livery company, of Yoncalla, sustained injuries in an automobile accident Thursday afternoon. They were on their way from Yoncalla to Drain, where Mr. Diamond expected to catch a train for this city. On turning a curve the car skidded and plunged down an eight-foot embankment. Baldwin, as the car was falling, caught hold of a barbed wire fence and cleared the car. He was severely bruised and two ribs were fractured. Mr. Diamond was pinned face down beneath the car and, unable to breathe, was nearly asphyxiated before rescued. A Southern Pacific track-walker witnessed the accident. Both men were unconscious when he arrived on the scene. Mr. Diamond was extricated from his perilous position and resuscitated after several minutes hard work. Both men were later taken to Yoncalla, and Mr. Diamond was able to proceed to his home in Portland Friday.

Edgar L. Keeney, assistant sales manager for Lang & company, and who will cover Mr. Diamond's territory until he is able to resume his duties, was in the city Saturday and said Mr. Diamond probably would be on the job again within a week or two.
