A Good Man and a Good Line Hitched Up

The Sharples Separator Company, West Chester, Pa., takes pleasure in announcing the appointment of

as the exclusive Sharples dealer in this territory. His store will be headquarters for Sharples goods, consisting of

The New Sharples Suction-Feed Separator, which skims clean and delivers even cream at widely varying speeds; the capacity of which increases with the speed; tubular bowl with no discs or other complications; supply can only 24 inches high; automatic oiling.

The Sharples Milker with the famous "upward squeeze." The simplest and most successful mechanical milker, for use in all dairies of 12 cows and over; now used on over 300,000 cows.

The Sharples Engine, the highest class farm gasoline engine built, having complete double ignition like the high priced automobiles.

We Do Not Sell Direct

because we want you to get Sharples Service with Sharples goods. The local dealer carries our line in stock—no wait or delays. You can see and try any size before you buy. He knows how to instruct you in using the Sharples goods; you don't need to experiment and risk damaging anything. He carries repairs in stock so that if anything happens, you can get the new parts the same day. If you need time to pay, your local dealer will be glad to accommodate you. Remember, that your dealer's taxes help pay for the roads, schools and other improvements you enjoy. Buy all you can and sell all you can in your own locality so that the profit on each transaction stays in your county. It will make you and your friends richer in proportion. —That's the Community Spirit.

SOCIETY

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Huff celebrated their golden wedding with an elaborate twelve o'clock dinner at their home on Pacific highway Tuesday. Their five children were all present. They are James C. Huff, of Boyd, Ore.; Finley Huff, of Oakland, Ore.; Jasper Huff, Mrs. Lydia Lacky and Mrs. Alice Conner, of this city. The third and fourth generations were represented by Walter Lacky and son, of Black Butte, Oregon.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. V. O. Huff, brother and sister of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Huff; Mr. and Mrs. James C. Huff and two children, Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Huff, Mr. and Mrs. Finley Huff, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Lacky and daughter, Mrs. Archie Gilham, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Conner and son, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lacky and son, Mr. and Mrs. James H. Huff and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gray, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Oakes, Dexter Huff, Loren Hannaford and Mrs. Cardwell. Mrs. V. O. Huff was present at the wedding fifty years ago.

The five children presented their father with a Masonic pin and their mother with a ring.

Walter P. Huff and Louisa Abigail Harvey were married November 21, 1866, at the bride's home near Butler, Mo. They crossed the plains in 1876, locating in California, and came to Oregon in 1878. They settled first at Lakeview, Lake county, then moved to Cottage Grove in 1901.

The Enterpen club, assisted by the Ladies' Aid society of the Presbyterian church, gave a supper and musical program Friday evening at Moose hall. Quite a large audience was present and a neat sum was realized for the purchase of music.

The junior choir of the Christian Sunday school held a reception at the church Saturday evening. A very pleasing program was presented. A silver offering was taken for the purpose of aiding the Sunday school in the purchase of new song books.

The Emanon club is meeting this afternoon with Mrs. C. E. Umphrey.

Garfield George Crow and Miss Martha T. Buntrock, both of Lorane, were married at Eugene November 16, Rev. J. S. McCallum officiating.

Invitations to the approaching wedding of Miss Hazel Allison, of McMinnville, to Paul Citron, have been received here. The ceremony will take place November 22. Miss Allison is a granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Allison, of this city.

There will be no meeting of the Constellation club next week, on account of the meeting day falling on Thanksgiving.

The M. P. G. club will meet Tuesday with Mrs. O. L. Nichols.

Mrs. Beager and Miss Vandenburg entertained charmingly Monday evening at the Vandenburg home. Cards were the diversion of the evening, at which Mrs. C. E. Frost won high honors. An elaborate two-course luncheon was served. The guests were Mrs. Vandenburg, Mrs. Burkholder, Mrs. Dean, Mrs. Frost, Miss Kinsey, Miss Hooper, Miss Burkholder, Miss Currin, Miss Sibley and Miss Schilling.

There will be no meeting of the Social Twelve club today, on account of so many of the members going to Eugene to attend the Schumann-Heink concert.

The Eastern Star will entertain Friday night for the Creswell and Drain lodges. The floral degree will be exemplified and a banquet will be served. It is expected that 75 will be present.

A Schumann-Heink evening was observed by the vocal music class of Mrs. Leon DesLarzes at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Wood Monday evening. Extracts from the life and career of the great prima donna contralto were read and discussed along with the usual musical program and some Schumann-Heink phonograph records were listened to with interest.

The Semi-Monthly Private Dancing club will hold its second meeting in Moose hall upon the Friday evening following Thanksgiving.

The Constellation club at its meeting last Thursday held its usual celebration of Mrs. Lydia Stouffer's birthday anniversary. A dainty two-course luncheon was served, the hostesses being Mrs. Clara Burkholder, Mrs. C. E. Frost and Mrs. Elbert Bede. The guest table was daintily set with a big white birthday cake illuminated with candles and wreathed in smilax. Mrs. Stouffer occupied the seat of honor at the head of the table. Four vocal selections by Miss Marie Yoran, of Eugene, were heartily enjoyed. She was accompanied by Mrs. Leon DesLarzes. Additional guests were Mrs. Ralph Dean, Mrs. M. R. Post and Mrs. J. D. Westenhaver, of Cottage Grove; Miss Louise Yoran, of Eugene, and Miss Hattie Whitworth, of Puyallup, Washington.

Mrs. Joe Darnewood was the guest of honor at a surprise party Saturday. The afternoon was spent in social conversation and refreshments were served. The guests were Mrs. Joe Darnewood, Mrs. Chas. McKibben, Mrs. John Wallace, Mrs. Joe McKibben, Mrs. Walter Fulmer, Mrs. Gottfried Graber, Mrs. Jennie Teeters, Mrs. Alma Teeters, Mrs. Anna Teeters, Mrs. W. C. Johnson, Mrs. W. A. Hogate, Mrs. J. J. Moore, Mrs. M. L. Tompkins and Mrs. Al. Hamloth.

Slip a few Prince Albert smokes into your system!

You've heard many an earful about the Prince Albert patented process that cuts out bite and parch and lets you smoke your fill without a comeback! Stake your bank roll that it proves out every hour of the day. Prince Albert has always been sold without coupons or premiums. We prefer to give quality!

There's sport smoking a pipe or rolling your own, but you know that you've got to have the right tobacco! We tell you Prince Albert will bang the doors wide open for you to come in on a good time firing up every little so often, without a regret! You'll feel like your smoke past has been wasted and will be sorry you cannot back up for a fresh start.

You swing on this say-so like it was a tip to a thousand-dollar bill! It's worth that in happiness and contentment to you, to every man who knows what can be gotten out of a chummy jimmy pipe or a makin's cigarette with Prince Albert for "packing"!

THE Prince Albert tin, and in fact, every Prince Albert package, has a real message to you on its reverse side. You'll read: "Process Patented July 30th, 1907." This means that the United States Government has granted a patent on the process by which Prince Albert is made. And by which tongue bite and throat parch are cut out! Every where tobacco is sold you'll find Prince Albert awaiting you in tidy red bags, in tidy red tins, in handsome round and half-pound tin humidor and in that clever crystal-glass humidor with sponge moisture-keeper, that keeps the tobacco in such fine condition—always!

Mrs. Stapleton, sister of Mrs. A. B. Wood, and who left Tuesday to spend the winter with her children in New Mexico, was the guest of honor at two social events of this week.

After the regular meeting of the Monday Afternoon Bible class at the home of Mrs. A. B. Wood, the members gave a handkerchief shower, which was followed by refreshments.

Tuesday afternoon Mrs. R. McCargar entertained from 3 to 5 in Mrs. Stapleton's honor, refreshments being served.

Mount View Society.

The friends and relatives of Nolan Hopper surprised him Thursday by gathering at his home, where a delightful time was enjoyed. The occasion was Mr. Hopper's birthday anniversary.
