

TALES OF THE TOWN

The nicest courtesy you can show your guests is to have their visits mentioned in The Sentinel. The nicest courtesy you can show your friends is to let them know of your visits through a news item in The Sentinel. The nicest courtesy you can show the editor is to bring to the office a complete write-up of any news item you know. Let's have courtesy all around.

For That Bird

THANKSGIVING DAY

You need one of our roasters and a good carving set. Your dinner will taste much better if properly roasted and properly carved. If you get them now you will have them for Christmas.

Wynne & Kime

The fire department was called out Saturday forenoon by a small blaze in the Caldwell house at 331 south Third, occupied by the E. E. Hale family. A partition had caught fire from the chimney, but the flames were extinguished before any great damage was done.

Just received, a fine line of the best self-filling non-leakable fountain pens in the market. These pens perform while others promise. H. C. Madsen, 65c.

W. T. Hankins was down from Row River Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Leum have sold their place on south Sixth street to Mrs. Carrie E. Lyon, of London.

We have lots of lime-sulphur spray now. Swengel Hardware.

H. J. Shinn was in Eugene Saturday on business.

Rake Stewart and Duke Knox were in Eugene Saturday. Mr. Stewart was on his way to Boise, Idaho, on business.

Jimney service. Linch's Garage. n16tf

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Kinter, formerly of this city, and recently of Portland, are now in West Virginia, where they are visiting Mrs. Kinter's parents. They expect to make their home at Pittsburgh, their former home.

Mrs. Winnie Iman and son Orick, of Wichita, Kan., are visiting at the homes of their cousins, John and Clint Spriggs.

The Golden Rule Store

Working Men, Take Notice!

A full line of waterproof wool rain shirts. Army cloth rainproof coats, shirts, mackinaws. Aquapelle pants, Bib and waist slicker coats and pants. Sweaters and wool undergarments to keep you dry and warm.

POWELL & COMPANY

Prices Are Right

Cash for chickens and eggs at Spray's.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bales, accompanied by Miss Sears, left last week for San Francisco, where they will visit Mrs. Bales' daughter. They will continue their trip to South America.

Mrs. E. S. Holderman and daughter Doris were down from Rajada several days of the past week visiting relatives.

Cash paid for hides, pelts, wool or mohair at Spray's.

Horace Conner was in Portland several days of last week attending a railroad meeting.

C. A. Shaw has returned from a business trip to Idaho.

F. J. Helliwell held a well-attended auction sale at his place Saturday.

Get a good Lisk roaster from Swengel Hardware for your Thanksgiving turkey.

Mrs. Frank Pleunrd visited at Woodburn during the past week.

Mrs. A. W. Wampole and son Roy, of Leona, and Mrs. Wampole's sister, Miss Velma Marshall, of Glendale, visited here Saturday and Sunday at the Garoutte home. Mr. Wampole was up Sunday.

Twenty-five per cent off on all hats at The Vogue. nov16-23pd

Mrs. T. F. Seerist was in from Dastion Saturday.

Chas. Hard was in the city Saturday while on his way to Eugene from Bohemia.

What You Look Like

Friends you have left back east, or others elsewhere, who have not seen you for years may be wondering what you look like. To them a photo for Christmas would prove the most acceptable gift you could give them.

Dear friends of yours, even if living within the city, would like to have your photograph to put in a prominent place, to be a constant reminder of happy times spent together. Again a photo would prove the most acceptable of Christmas gifts.

And we might add that the most acceptable kind of photos are those quality ones put out by the Armstrong Studios, Still at the old stand, 24 north Sixth street, Woollen Mills corner.

G. W. McFarland attended a meeting of the agricultural committee of the Lane County Pomona grange held in the office of the county agriculturist in Eugene last week.

E. M. Thurber was in Eugene Friday. Fresh lot of telephone batteries just in from factory. Get good ones from Swengel Hardware.

The alumni defeated the high school team in a scrub game of football Friday. The score was 13 to 3.

"Dad" Robinson is again carrying his left arm in a sling, having dislocated the member at the shoulder for the second time within a fortnight.

We will meet any train, day or night, with closed-in car. Telephone us. Linch's Garage. n16tf

J. M. Comer sustained a broken rib in a fall a few days ago.

To make your sweetheart, wife or sister happy, for Christmas, buy a diamond ring. I have them from $10 up to $450. Earrings from $8 up. Scarf pins from $5 up. H. C. Madsen. nov16tf

The certificate of assumed business name of the "Pacific Realty Company" of Cottage Grove has been filed at the office of the county clerk. The proprietors are Kerl Giddens and George H. Reinard.

A. B. Wood is in Portland for a week on business.

Oliver plows, harrows. Any kind of implements sold by Swengel Hardware.

Curran Cooley, agent for the Oregon Fire Relief Association of McMinnville. Phone 15-F4. n11tf

Carey Pitcher, a brother of City Marshal G. B. Pitcher, who has spent the past five years in California, arrived in this city a few days ago and will spend the winter here. He comes from the sugar beet belt in our sister state on the south and says beets weighing from 15 to 25 pounds each were not uncommon in that section this season.

M. L. Smith has returned from eastern Oregon, where he assisted in harvesting the bumper grain crop of that section this season.

The price of leather is going up every day. Have those shoes fixed before it goes out of sight. Dr. Goff. n16tf

Mrs. Stapleton, sister of Mrs. A. B. Wood, left Tuesday night for Hurley, N. M., where she will spend the winter with her children. She had visited here several months.

Malcomb and Hubbard are opening a new barber shop in the Wilson restaurant building.

Call and select your Christmas presents at Madsen's while you have a good assortment to pick from. I will put them away for you. H. C. Madsen. s1405

One-horse power electric motor for sale at The Sentinel office. n23d7pd

A. J. Armstrong was in Eugene Sunday.

S. J. Nazor and Mrs. Florence Warner were married November 3.

Lime-sulphur spray; Swengel Hardware.

In the case of Bailey vs. the Milwaukee Orchard company, the jury in district court rendered a verdict of $795.49 for the plaintiff. It is understood that this is less than the amount at which the orchard company was willing to settle.

G. B. Pitcher has bought a Ford car. Mr. and Mrs. Riley Snodgrass, of Eugene, were visitors here Sunday.

Mrs. J. W. Gowdy has gone for an extended visit with relatives in the middle western states.

Stanley Damewood sustained a severe injury by jumping or falling from a logging car in the loading yards of the Rajada logging camp Tuesday and was brought to his home in this city for treatment. It is thought his knee was dislocated and severely wrenched.

Henry Davis, a prosperous Halsey farmer, is looking over a farm east of this city with a view of buying or leasing it. He resided here 14 years ago.

E. L. Klemer, manager of the Lane County Fruit Growers' exchange, was here from Eugene yesterday on business.

Eat Gregory's Bread. tfe

Geo. O. Knowles transacted business in Eugene Friday.

Mrs. Jessie Darling, of Lorane, joined her husband in Eugene Friday. Mr. Darling has been there on court business.

Closed-in car at your service day or night. Linch's Garage. n16tf

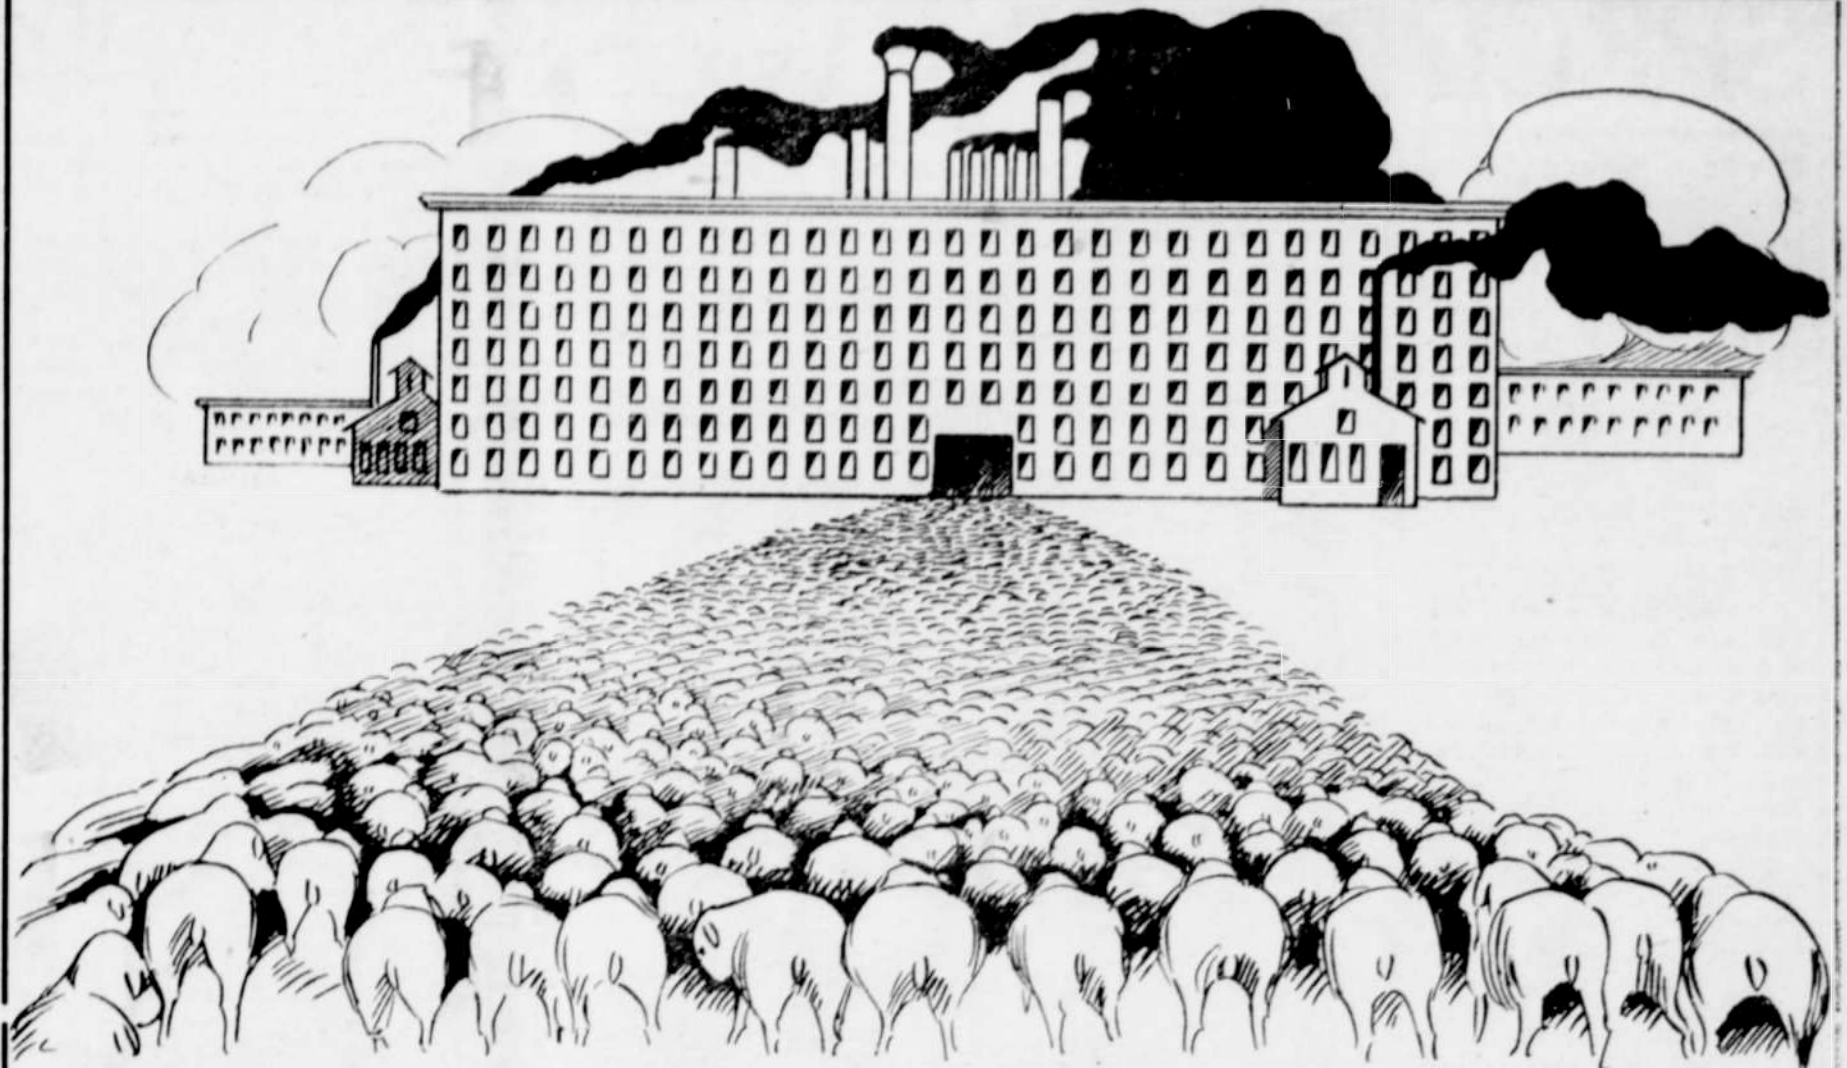

A. C. Wheeler and wife, uncle and aunt of M. M. Wheeler, of the Gowdyville suburb of Cottage Grove, accompanied by their daughter, Miss Wheeler, and grandson, Franklin Broady, arrived from Jefferson county, Nebraska, Thursday evening, and after a brief visit at this place and at Grants Pass will go to southern California to spend the winter.

A few more good second hand buggies and wagons at Spray's. apr5tf

The Southern Pacific tie plant has resumed operations after a shut-down of several days on account of the car shortage.

Marvin Smith has accepted a position as clerk in the postoffice.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Huff and their two youngest children, of Boyd, Wasco, county, arrived Saturday for an extended visit with Mr. Huff's parents,

Western Made for Western Trade

Famous Oregon Cassimere Suits

$15.00

These Suits are the best in America today for the money. The cloth is made from genuine Oregon wool and the tailoring is better than usually found in suits at this price. A new shipment just in. All the new shades of gray, brown and blue in a complete range of sizes, 33 to 44.

THE WOOLEN MILLS STORE

Leading Clothiers

Cottage Grove

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Huff, and other relatives.

Cold weather. Good shoe repairing. Goff. n16tf

F. Lamberty, of Springfield, was in the city Tuesday on business.

The Blue Mountain school will give a Thanksgiving entertainment Friday night.

The Modern Pharmacy will be closed on Thanksgiving afternoon. For emergency calls, phone 135-J. n23c

J. W. Stoops writes from Roseburg: "The weekly visits of The Sentinel are better than a letter from home."

Ira Conner continues to improve and will soon be about again.

A. L. Monroe has rented the building next to the Veatch & Spencer real estate office. He is having the building completely remodeled and expects to move in with his photograph gallery within a week or two.

Bottled soda and carbonated gas at the C. G. Bottling works. n23d14pd

W. Peterson and family, of Eugene, visited the A. W. Swanson family Sunday.

Ed. Lilly came down from the hills Monday.

Alta King has been appointed administrator of the estate of Malissa A. Williams, deceased, and Alf. Jury, W. C. Johnson and H. H. Fiester were appointed as appraisers. The estimated value of the property is $620.

Spray will pay you cash for potatoes or wheat.

George Orr, machinist and blacksmith at the Black Butte quicksilver mines for the past year, has been transferred to the Cornucopia mines in eastern Oregon by the management, who control both of these properties. Mr. Orr left for his new location yesterday.

Chet Vandenburg has secured a position in the sawmill at Mabel and left for that place Sunday. He recently returned from a trip to Washington.

Call and see the fine line of Christmas presents at H. C. Madsen's. n26n2c

Mrs. Roy McChallen, of Portland, visited a few days last week with her sister, Mrs. Ralph Dean.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Boone returned to Junction City Tuesday, after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Jephtha Hart.

Salem Tuesday, after a visit at the home of Mr. Lilly's sister, Mrs. H. K. Metcalf.

A. A. Kelly was in from Lorane Saturday.

J. I. Jones and son Frank were in Eugene Monday on business.

Mrs. J. P. Hart and daughter, Miss Dinah, were in Eugene this week.

Henry Veatch was in Eugene this week on court business.

You can't buy a better Christmas present than the fine photograph at $35. It is one the whole family will enjoy. See them at Madsen's. n26n2c

Col. Blair has returned to Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Nokes were up from Eugene this week visiting at the home of Mr. Nokes' parents.

H. M. Barrett is recovering from an attack of the grip.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Kelley, of Princeton, Ore., visited a few days this week with the Sampson and Giddens families. They were on their way to Kansas City, Mo. Mrs. Kelley and Mrs. Sampson are old time friends.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Johnson returned Tuesday from a visit at Roseburg.

The G. A. R. post and W. R. C. will hereafter hold their meetings in Odd Fellows hall.

An 8-pound daughter was born November 13 to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Whitlock.

J. J. Dillon writes from Portland that nature has again reached its limit up there but he, nevertheless, encloses a check for another year's subscription.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Crites are in Eugene this week, having two cases in district court.

Mrs. Fannie Gray has returned from a visit at Eugene with her nephew, F. M. Hathaway.

The stores of the city will close at 10 o'clock Thanksgiving day.

Miss Hattie Whitworth, of Puyallup, Wash., is visiting Mrs. George Atkinson.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Helliwell left Tuesday for their future home at Talent.

Bill Edwards was in Eugene Monday on business. He expects to return to the mines this week to remain for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Fisher and daughter were up from Leona Sunday.

Miss Nancy Whitsett spent Sunday in Eugene visiting her sister, Mrs. Jessie Lewis, and her brother, Roy, who was seriously injured by a kick from a horse.

A large number of music lovers from here will attend the Schumann-Heink concert in Eugene today.

Dr. B. R. Job was in Eugene yesterday.

C. E. Stewart was in Eugene yesterday.

"Uncle Burn" and "Aunt Jane" Veatch have returned from a visit with their daughter, Mrs. W. V. McGee, at Albany.

Harvey Taylor attended district court in Eugene Tuesday.

Alta King was in Eugene Tuesday on business.

HOME TALENT FIREMEN BENEFIT

The Fortune Hunter

UNDER DIRECTION OF R. EVART CUMMINGS

FRIDAY ARCADE

"The Fortune Hunter," a four-act comedy, will be presented by local talent at the local theater under the auspices of the Cottage Grove firemen. The play is laid about the life of Nat Duncan, a spendthrift who is down on his luck and therefore, is willing to try anything, no matter how contemptible. A chum of his devises a scheme by which he wagers that Nat will become a millionaire in one year if he follows out all rules. All the fun starts in an old drug store in Radville.

Act 1—The sitting room of Henry Kellogg's bachelor apartments in East Thirty-first street, near Fifth avenue, New York city. Time: June; 6:30 p. m.

Act 2—Samuel Graham's drug store in Radville, Pa. Time: June; a quarter to twelve, noon.

Act 3—Same as act 2, a month later.

Act 4—House and grounds of Sam Graham's home; 9:00 p. m., same evening as Act 3.

Nathaniel Duncan, "Nat," the fortune hunter.....	R. Evart Cummings
Henry Kellogg, a rising young financier.....	Robt. Earl
George Burnham, a promoter.....	Frank Wallace
Larry Miller { two Wall street young men.....	Chas. Westenhaver
James Long {	Kenneth Mills
Robbins, Kellogg's servant.....	Don VanBoskirk
Tom, a newsboy.....	Avanelle Thompson

Village Characters

Sam Graham, the druggist.....	Alfred Skei
Mr. Lockwood, the banker.....	Mr. Jewett
Tracy Tanner, the liveryman's son.....	George Matthews
Pete Willing, the sheriff.....	George Hall
Mr. Sperry, the drummer.....	Earl Groves
"Watty," the tailor.....	Frank Wallace
"Hi," old inhabitant.....	Robt. Earl
Roland Barnett, village sport.....	Frank Wallace
Herman, the errand boy.....	Avanelle Thompson
Petty Graham, the druggist's daughter.....	Ruby Hendry
Josie Lockwood, the banker's daughter.....	Georgia Kinsey
Angie, a friend of Josie.....	Mae Armstrong

RESERVED SEATS ARE ON SALE AT THE ELITE CONFECTIONERY