Society

If you know of a society item and do not inform the newspaper, it is your own fault if it is not printed.

Invitations are out for a New Year's party at I. O. O. F. hall Tuesday night. The hosts and hostesses are Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Monroe, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Durham, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Umphrey, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Richmond, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Shinn, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Mackin, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Trask and Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Silsby.

A pretty wedding was solemnized last Thursday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Mills, when George Thomas Boyd led to the altar Miss Irma Hazel Mills, Rev. D. A. MacLeod being the officiating clergyman. The groom was accompanied by Kenneth Mills, the bride's brother, as best man, while the bride was attended by the groom's sister, Miss Raetta Boyd. Little Miss Georgia Mills served in the capacity of a flower girl. The parlor decorations were of green white, the principal decorations being ivy, laurel and snow berries. Following the ceremony a dainty wedding dinner was served. Besides members of the two families, the guests were Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Walling and Miss Walling, of Salem, uncle, aunt and cousin of the bride, and Mrs. J. E. Eger, wife of the chief train dispatcher of the Southern Pacific company at Roseburg. Both the bride and groom are well known young people of the community. Mr. and Mrs. Boyd went directly to their newly furnished farm home about two miles south of the city, where they will reside.

The Semi-monthly dancing club held a well attended party Thursday night. A number of new members were received and Mrs. C. A. Lynch was elected secretary to succeed Mrs. Elbert Bede, resigned.

Mrs. Bert Trask entertained the Emma club last Thursday. The home was beautifully decorated with evergreens. A small Christmas tree was prettily decorated.

rated and sat in the center of the table. Pop corn balls hung from the limbs for each guest. Another tree sat in the parlor with the club gifts on. A dainty two course luncheon of chicken tamales and plum pudding and coffee was served. Mrs. Roy Short assisted with the serving. The next meeting will be held with Mrs. Hiram Griggs.

The Social Twelve club held their Christmas tree last Thursday with Mrs. John Bader. The gifts on the tree were joke presents, the money that would have been spent for gifts having been put into a fund for a charity basket. The home was beautifully decorated throughout with Christmas bells, holly leaves and potted ferns. In the center of the dining table was a miniature Christmas tree and a carnation was at each place. Refreshments consisted of chicken salad, blanched almonds, ice cream, cake, coffee and olives. Each member wrote a card to Mrs. Ben Lureh, a member of the club, who is in Los Angeles. Mrs. Chas. Adams was a guest of the club. As the guests were leaving, Mrs. Bader presented each with a potted fern.

Charles Glen Jennings and Miss Ada Land, both of Dorena, were quietly married at Creswell Christmas day.

V. C. Proudfit and Miss Hazel M. Anderson were quietly married Sunday afternoon at the Methodist parsonage. They left immediately for Portland on a short wedding trip. Mr. Proudfit is one of the operators at the Southern Pacific depot and the bride recently arrived from Halsey.

The Constellation club meets this afternoon at the Silsby home with Mrs. Helen Silsby and Miss Esther Silsby as hostesses.

A crowd of young and old people serenaded the newly married couple Friday evening.

Wheeler Cole.

Silk Creek, Ore., Dec. 27.—(Special to The Sentinel.)—Sunday evening at the Seventh-day Adventist church the marriage of Roy A. Wheeler and Nellie M. Cole was solemnized, G. E. Johnson officiating. At exactly 8 o'clock Mrs. J. P. Wheeler began playing the prelude to the Nightingale Song, which was sung by a mixed quartet, composed of Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Wheeler and Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Wheeler. Following this Mrs. J. P. Wheeler sang a solo, "Promise Me," while Mrs. W. W. Gilder sleeve played the accompaniment. Then to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march the flower girls, little Zetha and Mildred Wheeler, marched up the aisle followed by Miss Cole and Miss Vern Estes, maid of honor. The groom and best man, Bennie Cole, were preceded by Elder Johnson and the small page, Eldon Wheeler bearing the bible, which, as the party met in the center of the rostrum, the page handed with great solemnity to the minister, who proceeded at once to marry the couple and introduced to the large audience Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wheeler. All were invited to a reception at the academy chapel where cake was served, after which all who desired spent some time in marching. The church rostrum was beautifully decorated with ferns and vines and lovely bouquets of white callas, carnations and roses. The bride's dress was white lace over blue. Her veil was fastened with orange blossoms. The young couple left at 1 o'clock Tuesday morning for St. Helena, Calif.

KINKS IN THE KITCHEN

A tablespoonful of water may be allowed for each egg when preparing croquettes or fish.

There is no simpler way to clarify lard used for frying purposes than by heating it thoroughly with several slices of raw potato and straining.

A lather made of white soap and milk is said to be excellent for cleaning children's white kid shoes.

Rub paraffin on the thread of a fountain pen before screwing on the head, and it will prevent leaking.

When the thread is burnt the scorch may be taken off by laying on a paste made of starch and exposing to the sun.

One of the most useful little presents ever received is a set of six small pattern weights. They consist of bright colored silk bags, about an inch square, partly filled with fine shot. These laid here and there on a paper pattern will hold it down firmly enough and are far easier to handle and less destructive than pins.

Add a teaspoonful of salt to the water in which the stems of cut flowers are placed. This will keep the flowers fresh much longer than under the ordinary conditions.

In making sandwiches it is a saving of time, after the bread is sliced, to trim the crusts off with long-bladed scissors. After the sandwiches are put together they can easily be cut the desired shape and size.

Stale marshmallows that have become hard may be quartered and soaked in a little strawberry preserve juice then sprinkled over with bread or tapioca pudding or over the meringue on pies just before removing them from the oven. This makes a very tasty finish.

TESTED RECIPES

On Toast—If you wish to piece out a dish of vegetables, serve on toast. Any vegetable, except potatoes, will be improved if served on buttered toast.

All of the Egg—If you are making a cake which calls for only the whites of eggs, make cookies which call for the yolks; they will keep and you will have cake sufficient to last for some time.

Banana Pie—Slice ripe bananas into a delicately baked pie crust and cover with whipped cream.

Crab Salad—Two cups boiled meat taken from six or seven hard-boiled crabs, boiled 20 minutes; mix with a good French dressing, serve in small nests of white lettuce leaves, on individual plates.

Baked Ham—A ham of 16 pounds to be boiled three hours. Then skin, rub in half a pound of brown sugar, cover with bread crumbs and bake two hours.

Risotto—Fry in butter a small finely chopped onion and three beans of garlic; add a half cupful of boiling water, one teaspoonful of beef extract, and three of four dried mushrooms that have been soaked and chopped. Allow to simmer for five minutes, pour over boiled rice, and season well with grated Swiss and Parmesan cheese. Bake only until the cheese has softened.

Pancakes and Bacon—Cook one pint of broad beans, then remove the skins and break them coarsely. Break in a basin one egg, to which add four ounces of self-rising flour and a little milk.

Work together to a smooth batter, adding more milk till one gill has been used. Season with salt and pepper, and add a pinch of fresh savory herbs; then put in the beans. Fry as many rashers of bacon as required and use the bacon fat to fry the pancakes, which should be cooked like dripped scones. When all are done, dish up with the bacon instead of broad beans, raw grated potato added to the batter is also excellent.

GOOD TASTE DEMANDS

If you need double vision glasses, don't think of wearing old-fashioned bifocals with the conspicuous line that makes you look freakish.

KRYPTOK (pronounced criptok) are the only bifocals in perfect taste because they look exactly like single vision glasses. These smooth, clear glasses—free from any sign of a line or seam—add a touch of distinction to your appearance and help to keep you young looking. And they enable you to see near and far objects perfectly.

Far Better.

In a neat English village lived a tobaccoist named Farr. Now, this tobaccoist had a rival. Both wanted the trade of the town. Farr, being a wit, devised a sign and hung it outside his shop.

"Best Tobacco by Farr." The townsfolk, reishung a pun, flocked to his shop, and his trade increased at the expense of his rival's business.

Now, his rival brooded and meditated, consulted many books of ancient lore, a Roger's Thesaurus and a rhyming dictionary. One day his face was seen to wrenthe itself into smiles. Gossip hovered expectant about his shop. The anticipations of the townsfolk were not disappointed, for that very day he hung out a sign which read: "Far Better Tobacco Than the Best by Farr."—New York Post.
