MRS. JOHANNA HANSON, PIONEER, IS DEAD

Was Familiar Figure in This City Where She Often Made Long Visits to Her Daughter.

Mrs. Johanna Hanson, well and widely known by residents of this city, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. S. Medley, in Eugene yesterday. The end came as a relief to prolonged suffering. Mrs. Hanson had been ill many months. She would have reached her eighty-ninth birthday March 29.

Mrs. Hanson often made long visits to her daughter, Mrs. Medley, when the latter was a resident of this city.

Mrs. Hanson was born in Tipperary, Ireland, and came to America when she was eight years old. Upon her arrival she made her home in Wisconsin. Later she moved to Illinois and there married Christian Hanson, in 1850. Three years after their marriage, Mr. and Mrs. Hanson came to Oregon.

Mrs. Hanson was the mother of 14 children, nine of whom survive. They are G. M. Hanson, of Modesto, Calif.; Mrs. G. W. Huston, of Santa Cruz, Calif.; Mrs. J. S. Medley, of Eugene; E. Hanson, of Eugene; Mrs. H. B. Miller, of Reno, Nev.; Mrs. E. W. Wallace, of Portland; Mrs. D. W. Bennett, of Roseburg; Frank Hanson and Mrs. R. E. Gross, of Eugene.

The five children who are dead were Mrs. Jennie Jones, Mrs. Margaret Stoops and Harry, John and Anne Hanson.

Funeral services will be conducted from the Catholic church Friday at 10 o'clock a. m. The remains will be at the residence of her daughter until that time.

WALTER GRIFFIN SUBSTITUTES FOR I. H. BINGHAM

Walter Griffin, of Eugene, is attending to the interests of Lane county in the upper house of the state legislature in the absence of Senator I. H. Bingham, who is in New York city and is not expected to return for the session. Mr. Griffin is entitled to a voice in the proceedings but is not entitled to a vote. His substitution was authorized by a special resolution at Friday morning's session.

COUNTY AGRICULTURAL AGENT RECONSIDERS HIS RESIGNATION

Contingent upon the farmers of the county raising $250, which the taxpayers' budget approves, for the county agriculturalists' salary, the county court will raise the county agents' office budget to $1750. This decision was announced by the county court Tuesday afternoon, and N. S. Robb, county agent, has reconsidered his resignation and will retain his position under these conditions.

The agricultural council of the Pomona grange met at Mr. Robb's office Tuesday afternoon and decided to take the initiative in the matter by raising the necessary money by subscription.

The state furnishes the same amount that the county court appropriates for the county agent's office. When the court recently cut the appropriation from $2000 to $1500 the amount from the state was automatically reduced $500. Mr. Robb said the office could not be properly administered on the resulting sum and refused to serve.

LOCAL ORDER OF MOOSE WOULD DOUBLE MEMBERSHIP

A campaign is on for the doubling of the membership of the Moose lodge in this city. The movement was instituted at a Moose meeting Tuesday night at the instigation of S. S. Hickox, organizer, now in the city. Two membership teams were formed—the "Go Get 'em Moose" under the captaincy of V. S. Goff and the "Sign 'em Up Moose" under the captaincy of L. R. Long. At present the membership of the order in Cottage Grove is more than 100. It is hoped that at the close of the campaign there will be fully twice that number. When the smoke of battle has cleared away and the new members are counted, the losing side will be hosts at an oyster supper, their guests to be the winning side and the new members.

Official County Papers Designated. The county court, at its meeting Friday of last week, named the Eugene Register and the Eugene Guard as the official county papers for the year. The award was made upon the basis of the mailed county subscription list. The Register submitted the largest list. The Guard was second, its list containing 185 more names than that of The Sentinel.

Robert E. Teague, of Drain, and Miss Pearl Johnson, of this city, were married today in Eugene, and continued on to Portland, where they will reside.

No hunting or trespassing allowed on Mrs. Laura McFarland's place. Anyone found disregarding this warning will be prosecuted.—J. L. Orr. j18f1pd
