

OREGON NEWS NOTES OF GENERAL INTEREST

Principal Events of the Week Briefly Sketched for Infor- mation of Our Readers.

Pure-bred livestock men of Oregon, held their convention at Salem last week.

The Oregon State Grocers' association held its annual convention at Salem last week.

Prairie City has a diphtheria scare because of the illness of several pupils of the public schools.

The Pacific University basketball team holds the lead for the non-conference championship of Oregon.

With the close of the first semester at the Oregon normal school at Monmouth, 55 students were graduated.

The eighth annual automobile show of the Portland Dealers' Motor Car association began at Portland Saturday.

The end of the car shortage under which the Southern Pacific has labored for months past is declared to be almost in sight.

A crew of 15 men is engaged in surveying the proposed federal-aid highway across Umatilla county between Pendleton and Echo.

The will of the late A. E. Eaton of La Grande remembers Willamette University, already endowed by him, to the extent of $33,000.

Work on the survey of the proposed Eugene to Coos Bay highway has begun under the direction of Deputy State Engineer Cantline.

Farmers of Yamhill county have undertaken to raise money by private subscription to retain their agricultural agent for another year.

Six thousand rose clippings, from the hedges that beautify the campus, are ready for distribution by the University of Oregon over the state.

The 14th annual convention of the Oregon Federation of Labor closed its sessions at Salem. Astoria was chosen as the place of the next meeting.

Work of enrolling members of the Oregon naval militia in the national naval volunteers, as provided by a recent act of congress, was taken up this week.

The secretary of agriculture announced the second allotment of funds under the good roads law of last session. Under this allotment Oregon will receive $157,374.

Two carloads of flax seed bolls, in which there is a small percentage of flax seed, have been sold by the Eugene flax committee to the Portland Linseed Oil works.

Anglers and commercial fishermen from all sections of Douglas county met at Roseburg in an effort to agree upon legislation regulating fishing in the Umpqua river.

The secretary of war has decided definitely to purchase a tract of land in the vicinity of Linnton, for a rifle range for the use of troops stationed at Vancouver barracks.

Forest Supervisor Cryder, of the Umatilla national forest, announces that commencing February 1 special weather forecasts will be sent out for the benefit of stockmen.

The Salem Hospital association has commissioned a Salem architect to draw plans for a proposed $50,000 hospital structure which may be erected during the present year.

That all kind of livestock are coming through the unusually severe winter in splendid condition is the report from stockmen of all parts of Baker, Grant and adjoining counties.

Union county's jail, from which several prisoners have made their escape in recent years, was declared by the grand jury to be unsafe, and extensive repairs and improvements are urged.

With only five votes registered against it, the project for the formation of the South Side Irrigation district for the irrigation of 8000 acres of land on the south side of Rogue river was carried.

The directors of the Mount Angel bank have offered $5000 to the farmers of the surrounding country with which to build silos. The board has announced that this sum will be loaned for this purpose at 5 per cent.

Plans for draining French prairie, comprising a district embracing 15,000 acres, were discussed at a meeting held at Gervais Saturday afternoon. Government surveys have been made and the officials say the land is easily drainable.

The report of the laying contest at Pullman, Wash., for the first two months and a half shows that a pen of white leghorns owned by J. A. Hanson, of the College View Poultry farm, Corvallis, is in the lead with a total of 194 eggs.

Any girl in Oregon, between the ages of 9 and 18 years, who can sew well enough to win first place, will be given a trip to the Oregon Agricultural college this summer, with all expenses paid, to receive lessons in sewing. The contest is being carried on under the direction of H. C. Seymour, state leader of boys' and girls' club work.

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS

LORANE

(Special to The Sentinel)

Jan. 30.—Mrs. W. W. Jackson was in Eugene last week.

Miss Madge Hamble went to Crow Friday after school to spend the week-end with Mrs. Holland.

Mrs. Gertrude Humphrey and children, Gorton and Elinor, and Miss Maude Humphrey were dinner guests of Mrs. J. N. Chapman Thursday.

John Runk went to Cottage Grove Thursday for the doors and windows for Mr. Buddington's new cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Humphrey and children and Mrs. J. D. Humphrey were Cottage Grove shoppers Wednesday.

Mrs. Jess Darling was in Eugene last week.

Helen Foster was a stage passenger over from Cottage Grove Friday to spend the week-end with home folks.

Mrs. Walter Holland was up from Crow Friday afternoon.

Ethel Rogers of Cottage Grove is spending the week-end with her grandparents.

Leitha Collins, of Springfield, is visiting her cousins, Mrs. Ethel Lynch and Mrs. Ruby Davis.

Roy Castor, of Tacoma, Wash., has purchased the J. D. Humphrey ranch down the river. The Humphreys go to McMinville the middle of April to make their home.

Minton, the cattle buyer, was in after cattle Tuesday and Wednesday.

Elmer Crowe went to Eugene Sunday to bring home his wife who has been in the hospital.

The Rawleigh man was through the valley last week.

A dance was given in the M. W. A. Hall Saturday night. An unusually large crowd was in attendance.

The valley was visited by a snow storm Sunday.

Ora Davis will begin his new duties as rural mail carrier Thursday, taking the place of Jack Humphrey, who will leave soon for his new home at McMinville.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Perkins, of Dorena, returned home Sunday after a week's visit with Mrs. Perkins' daughter.

W. W. Hawley Jr. went to Cottage Grove returning Sunday with Mrs. Hawley and children who have been visiting her parents up Row River.

DORENA

(Special to The Sentinel)

Jan. 29.—Mr. Robert Alton, of Portland, was in Dorena on business last week.

Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Ettinger and children, of Alberta, Canada, arrived last Tuesday for an extended visit at the home of Mrs. Ettinger's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Anderson Ward.

Edith Kirk went to Cottage Grove Wednesday returning Thursday.

Scott Chrisman has been quite sick with the grip, it being necessary to call a physician from the Grove last week.

Mrs. Lee Thompson had an attack of tonsillitis last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Perkins went to Lorane last Tuesday to visit Mrs. Perkins' daughters.

Chas. Jennings went to Waltherville Saturday to see Miles Stacy, who is in poor health.

Miss Benetta Teeters was unable to attend school last week on account of sickness.

Miss Edith Messenger, who teaches the Wildwood school, went to Eugene Saturday on business.

C. H. Miller, of the Coast Steel & Machinery Co., of Portland, bought the lathe and drill press of the Dorena sawmill last week and Bales Bros. will move it out to Dorena.

Mrs. Wes Chrisman has been on the sick list.

Miss Minnie Gouley, of Eugene arrived Saturday for a visit with her parents.

Miss Faye Jennings spent the week-end visiting her sister Ruth at Creswell.

Miss Lottie Van Schoick, who is teacher of the Fair View school, will give a program in the school house Saturday, Feb. 10. Lunches will be sold, the proceeds from which will be used in benefit of the school.

Miss Linnie Reams, of Eugene, spent last week visiting at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Dave Baker.

Mr. B. F. McCollum has been quite sick the past few days.

Miss Anna Sharpe has quit school.

Mrs. J. R. Bennett and son, Ervle, were Grove visitors Saturday.

THE CEDARS.

(Special to The Sentinel)

Jan. 29.—A number in this vicinity are suffering from the grip.

W. A. Hemenway and family attended services and the big basket dinner at the Christian church in Cottage Grove Sunday.

Mrs. Joe Schneider and Mrs. T. C. Peek called at the Chas. McFarland home Monday afternoon.

G. A. Lawson has received his new stump puller and is trying it out pulling stumps on the Ed Ashby place.

Florence McFarland attended church in the Grove Sunday morning.

Aunt Susie Camp went to town Monday to help care for her niece, Mrs. Perry Hubbard, who is quite ill with the grip.

Mrs. Ella McFarland called at the Magee and Hemenway homes one day the past week.

Otto Dobberstein was transacting business at the county seat Monday of this week.

Owing to the bad weather Saturday night the literary was not largely attended. Some of the numbers, however, were very good. The talk on the fish

New Spring Goods Arriving

Just Received!

We have just received a most beautiful assortment of fancy new collars, for ladies and misses. They are shown in the very newest patterns and styles. Some are shown in the small round and square styles, daintily trimmed in lace edging, while others in the larger sizes are shown in attractive patterns, scalloped and pointed edges. They are all neatly made and a visit to this department will convince you that they are all we claim in attractiveness and the values are self evident.

Shoes!

Never before in this city, or in cities of much larger population has there been such an attractive line of shoes as you will find at this store. Our spring shipment of shoes is here and our salespeople are glad at all times to show them. We have the white kid, the new buck, and the two-toned effects in shoes for ladies, also a very attractive line for men, misses and children. We invite your inspection of this line, you will not be urged to buy.

New Wash Goods

The woman who figures ahead will know that now is the time to begin her spring sewing.

We call your attention at this time to our beautiful new ginghams, schoolday cloth and galateas.

We now have in stock a very complete stock of the most attractive patterns in these goods, and the nice part of it is they are all new and attractive patterns. We will invite your inspection of this line and you will always find the prices right.

Exchange

We take Eggs, Butter, Wood, Beans and other farm products at their Market Value in Exchange for Merchandise. We also Exchange Any Goods Bought at This Store, or REFUND YOUR MONEY.

Westenhaver Bros.

Burkholder Corner

Cottage Grove, Oregon

Bed Spreads!

For a More Beautiful Bedroom

ZION Satin Bed Spreads appeal to every woman who thoughtfully plans the furnishing of her bedroom. Their snowy whiteness and simple floral designs lend cheer and brightness to the whole room. They are made in good widths, are finely woven and very durable. The scalloped edges made with mercerized thread can scarcely be distinguished from hand work. We now have a complete stock. Call in and see them.

Bergmann Logger

We are the Only Authorized Agents for the Famous Bergmann Logger Boot. A complete run of sizes always on hand.

hatchery by T. C. Peek and the solo by Miss Tiller deserve special mention. At the next literary meeting, on February 10, there will be a debate. The subject to be debated is "Resolved: That there is more knowledge to be gained by reading than by observation." Everybody is invited to come.

SAGINAW.

(Special to The Sentinel)

Jan. 31.—Lyman Adams was up to his ranch near Cottage Grove.

Miss Bessie Nichols, of Cottage Grove, spent the week end at home.

Nora and Clara Lebow and Byron Jackson, of Lynx Hollow, and Wade Wiseman, of Walker, attended church here Sunday evening.

Quite a number from here attended the funeral of Mrs. Johns, of Portland, at Walker last Tuesday.

Mrs. Scott returned Friday from Springfield Friday after visiting there a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Whiteley.

Miss Bertha Neat and J. F. Neat were in Cottage Grove Friday.

Ben Johns and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Johns and daughter Ruth returned to Portland Sunday after a week at the home of Chas. Sharon.

A basketball game was played between the first and second teams of Walker and the first and second teams of Goshen at Walker Saturday night.

The Goshen first team won over the first team of Walker and the Walker second team won over the Goshen second team. After the games refreshments were served and a general good time was enjoyed until the Goshen teams departed on the 2:20 a. m. train.

Miss Esther Jorgensen visited the week end with Miss Agnes Redford.

Carl Allen has entered the high school at Walker.

SILK CREEK

(Special to The Sentinel)

Ralph Damewood and Sherril Slagle returned Friday from Crow where they had visited their uncle Frank Damewood.

C. E. Woods, Lester Ellwell and Frank Paulson went to Leona last week to work.

Miss Leta Collins, of Springfield, has been visiting friends here the past week.

Lee Damewood left for Red Bridge the last of the week.

Prof. Rockwell has been quite ill with the grip.

Mrs. Nancy Damewood is recovering from an attack of the grip.

Mrs. Mary Jenkins and infant daughter who had been visiting friends here left Monday for Oakland.

The ladies of the Silk Creek aid, also several from the Christian Help band, met at the home of Mrs. L. L. Woolley recently and sewed for the little Williams baby.

Miss Gladys Chandler went to Roseburg the last of the week to visit her parents.

Miss Dorris Fabette left Thursday to visit friends in Albany.

Frank Overholser was in the Grove the first of the week.

Mrs. Ella Thompson called Monday on Mrs. Alice Gildersleeve.

D. A. Estes returned to Leona a few days ago after a short visit with his family.

Wm. McCoy was in Cottage Grove on business the first of the week.

J. B. Chitwood arrived Tuesday from the east and is visiting friends here.

Those who went to Cottage Grove Monday from this neighborhood were O. C. Luchterhand, Mrs. J. F. Gildersleeve, F. P. Wheeler, Mr. Herring, Mr.

and Mrs. John Moe, Mrs. Lou Wheeler, Mrs. T. F. McCord and Mrs. Bart Fawcett.

Mrs. B. W. Garner is suffering with the grip.

Miss Letha Collins, of Springfield, is stopping at the home of her uncle, H. M. Damewood.

Archie Wilson went to Cottage Grove Tuesday on business.

Raymond Wilson is on the sick list this week.

Floyd Painter returned Tuesday from a visit with friends in Roseburg.

MOUNT VIEW.

(Special to The Sentinel)

Jan. 31.—Mr. and Mrs. Ira Beidler returned Tuesday from Oakland, where they had been during the past week.

Among those in Cottage Grove Saturday from this neighborhood were Mr. Kelly and sons, Frank and Will; Lewis Mendal, Add Heath, Brison Sears and Charlie Beidler.

Miss Bertha Sears came home Friday from Leona, where she had been staying at the home of her brother, Carrol Sears.

Mr. and Mrs. George Layng were Sunday visitors at the W. D. Heath home.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Hands, of Gowdville, were visitors Sunday at the home of Mr. Hands' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hands.

Frank Sears is at home this week, having been unable to plow at the Frank Bales place on account of the stormy weather of the past few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bales visited Sunday at the home of Mrs. Bales' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Green, at London.

J. R. Cooley was a Cottage Grove visitor Monday.

DIVIDE.

(Special to The Sentinel)

Jan. 31.—Mrs. George McReynolds went to Eugene Saturday to be at the bedside of her sister, Mrs. Chilson, who is seriously ill.

Angelo Perini and Lewis Permozzi, who are working at Rujsda, are home to stay during the bad weather. They report the snow to be nearly three feet deep.

School closed this week on account of the prevalence of measles among the children.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Burkitt have moved here from Leona.

Word has been received here of the death of Mrs. George Long's mother at Drain.

Pete Tonole shipped a carload of wood to Roseburg one day last week.

H. H. Russell was up from Winchester Sunday.

Mrs. Neil McCoy is reported to be very ill.

Miss Mary Mathers was a week end visitor at the F. M. Chapman home.

DISSTON.

(Special to The Sentinel)

Jan. 29.—W. W. Elmer and John Coffman, of Bohemia, passed through Disston en route to Cottage Grove Thursday.

Mrs. Frank Henderson, of Rujsda, was in Cottage Grove between trains Saturday.

Mrs. Albert Ziniker, of Cottage Grove, spent Saturday night and Sunday at the Ben Pitcher home.

Rev. Chester Skelton, of Disston, held services at Star Sunday.

James Spahr, of Star, spent Friday and Saturday at the Ben Pitcher home.

Ben Pitcher, of Disston, spent Monday night at the home of his parents,

Mr. and Mrs. Miles Pitcher, Sr. His father is quite ill with the grip.

Mrs. Cooper, of Upton, is quite ill with the grip.

STAR.

(Special to The Sentinel)

Jan. 31.—Wm. Shane visited in Cottage Grove the latter part of last week.

Ed. Cole has returned to Rujsda at which place he is employed in the U. S. logging camp.

Johanne Cole returned from Cottage Grove Tuesday.

Dale Owen was a Dorena visitor Sunday.

Mabel Wicks and Francis Wicks visited in Dorena Tuesday.

DELIGHT VALLEY.

(Special to The Sentinel)

Jan. 31.—C. H. Haight and Chas. Conner were grubbing with a horse-power grubber last week.

J. A. Joll has been suffering from the grip.

The 28 line has purchased a right on the new poles being put up by the 30 and 31 lines and a number of men are out helping with the work.

LANE GETS MUCH MONEY FROM AUTO LICENSES

Is Fourth In List of Counties of State in Receipts From This Source.

Lane county is fourth on the list of various counties for automobile licenses. The amount to be received by this county is $4812.82.

The amounts will be apportioned to all counties as follows:

Baker	2,576.87
Benton	2,093.56
Clackamas	1,909.08
Clatsop	2,550.00
Gilliam	829.56
Columbia	2,110.41
Coos	1,964.54
Crook	225.45
Curry	2,474.46
Douglas	3,818.11
Gilman	847.61
Grant	675.91
Harney	874.68
Hood River	1,168.43
Jackson	4,843.46
Jefferson	395.45
Josephine	1,451.52
Klamath	2,393.49
Lake	843.50
Lincoln	213.85
Lane	4,812.82
Linn	3,470.02
Malheur	1,436.75
Marion	7,612.88
Morrow	912.43
Multnomah	45,564.57
Polk	2,512.05
Sherman	1,326.39
Tillamook	1,213.56
Umatilla	5,361.34
Union	2,930.52
Wallowa	1,299.31
Wasco	2,274.10
Washington	3,173.40
Wheeler	358.57
Yamhill	3,142.22

State U Library Has 67,909 Books.

The library of the state University at Eugene contained on January 1 a total of 67,909 volumes, 9494 additions having been made during 1916. The use of the library during 1916 increased 35 per cent over 1915. Packages of books, or individual books, are freely sent to residents of the state. During 1916 there were 2407 individual loans and 783 packages so lent.

ASTOUNDING REPORT FOR COTTAGE GROVE

The wife of a merchant had stomach trouble so bad she could eat nothing but toast, fruit and hot water. Everything else would sour and ferment. ONE SPOONFUL of buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adler-ika benefited her INSTANTLY. Because Adler-ika flushes the ENTIRE alimentary tract it relieves ANY CASE constipation, sour stomach or gas and prevents appendicitis. It has the QUICKEST action of anything we ever sold. The New Era Drug Store.

WANT ADS.

WANT AD. RATES.
One cent per word. No ad accepted for less than 15 cents. Special cash-with-order rate:—Three insertions for the price of two, six insertions for the price of four. Cash must accompany copy. Land for sale or trade, ten insertions for the price of five. Cash must accompany order.

Want to trade automobile for wood.

Linch's Garage. j11tf

For Sale—Concrete mixer, wheelbarrows and tools and entire concrete business.

Taylor & Higgins. jan25pd

For Sale—Good team, wagon and harness.

Also two good milk cows.

Brainard & Thornton. jan4tf

For Sale, with small payment down, small yearly payments without interest—modern 6-room house on Ash ave.

Brainard & Thornton. jan4tf

For sale or trade for cow—One top buggy and harness. Will pay little difference. Emma J. Ivins. j181pd

For Rent—1½ acres for potatoes; 1¼

miles east of town. Address S. E. McGavran, McMinville, Ore. j181pd

Horses, wagon and harness for sale. W.

B. Hawley. j18-25pd

For Sale—The best individual Shorthorn

bull in this part of the country, or will trade for colts. L. W. Hunt,