MR. AND MRS. GEO. WILSON
AND FAMILY.

SAGINAW MAN IS AN INVENTOR

Perfects Machine Which Rakes and Bunches Hay

Bert C. Myers, who resides three miles east of Saginaw, was in the city Saturday. Mr. Myers has recently received letters patent on a machine which rakes and bunches hay with one operation. The implement gathers the hay from the swath, conveys it to a table, there it is packed and, upon reaching any determined weight, is automatically dumped.

Mr. Myers is convinced of the utility of his machine and will at once take steps to have it placed on the market.

Small Blaze Tuesday.

The fire department was called out Tuesday afternoon to extinguish a roof fire at the W. C. Sanford home at Tenth and Washington. The fire was evidently started by a spark falling into some dry moss.

The damage probably did not exceed $100, and was covered by insurance.

Dies at State Hospital

Charles Harris, aged 75 years, and who had been an inmate of the state hospital at Salem about eight years, died Sunday and was brought here Monday for burial. The remains were interred in the Silk Creek cemetery.

He was a brother-in-law of Mrs. Fannie Harris, a well known Cottage Grove resident.

Trade for Woodburn Property.

Brainard & Thornton, realty dealers, of this city, have traded their equity in their 152-acre farm on Silk creek for a handsome bungalow and three-quarters of an acre of ground in Lebanon. They returned Monday from Lebanon, where they had gone to view the property, and where the transaction was completed.

BLUE MOUNTAIN

(Special to The Sentinel.)

Feb. 6.—Walter Landwehr left Monday for Corvallis, where he will attend school.

Mr. and Mrs. Dold are visiting at George Downes this week.

Paul Landwehr returned home from the coast Monday.

Mrs. Traer, who has been quite ill, is improving.

Arthur and Orpha Camb were callers at Landwehr's Sunday.

The will be church services here Saturday evening.

Sunday morning and Sunday night Mr. Oliver will preach.

SOCIETY

Mrs. Charles Adams was a charming hostess to the Social Twelve and the M. P. G. club on Tuesday. Dainty primroses adorned the rooms, in happy harmony with the balmy spring-like day. Adding to the gay spirits of the fortunate guests was an afternoon of entertainment reminiscent of good St. Valentine. Places for lunch were found by an original scheme employing the symbolic red heart.

The hospitable home of Mrs. J. D. Westenhaber was opened Saturday evening to the Euterpean club, who entertained thirty-six favored friends with one of the pleasing programs characteristic of the organization. Tempting refreshments were served after the following musical numbers had been enjoyed:

Piano solo, Secret Love—Bethel Goudy.

Double Duet, Come With Me—Mrs. Shinn, Mrs. Westenhaber, Mrs. Short, Jessie Smith.

Piano solo, Fairy Dance—Grace Sanford.

Vocal solo, Somewhere a Voice is Calling—George Matthews.

Vocal solo, Creole Love Song—Mrs. Roy Short.

Piano solo, Morning in the Woods—Myrtle Sanford.

Ladies' Quartet, Ave Maria—Miss Wileox, Mrs. Short, Mrs. Cruson, Miss Smith.

An affair of interest is to be given next Wednesday at the I. O. O. F. hall, for which invitations have been issued by Mrs. Leon DesLarzes, Mrs. Roy Short, Mrs. George Scott, Mrs. Albert Hellivell and Mrs. Karl K. Mills.

The Women's Missionary society of the Presbyterian church met yesterday afternoon with Mrs. Nellie Griswold.

The program was especially interesting. The subject was "Alaska," and Mrs. W. G. Beattie led the meeting. Mrs. Beattie formerly lived in Alaska and her intimate knowledge of the subject made the session a delightful and instructive one.

Dorena Society.

The monthly social and business meeting of the Senior Christian Endeavor society was held at the home of Mrs. Bowyer last Friday night. An important feature of the business meeting was the election of delegates to the State Christian Endeavor convention to be held at Salem the last of this month. The following were elected:

Mrs. Annette Vaughn, Miss Benetta Teeters, Dale Veatch and Rebecca Bales were elected as alternates. The rest of the evening was spent in playing interesting games which had been planned by the social committee. Refreshments of cake and cocoa were served.

Mrs. B. F. McCollum entertained the Junior Christian Endeavor society Saturday afternoon, it being their monthly social and business meeting.

This was a very unique affair as it was a "backwards social." The children came dressed backwards and refreshments were served as soon as all had arrived. The afternoon was very pleasantly spent in playing games. Those present were: Bertha Kirk, Mabel Robinson, David Robinson, Pearl McCollum, Dora Mosby, Nellie Teeters, Thelma Thomason, Anna VanSchoick, Carl McCollum, Elmer McCollum, Vernon Thomason, Clifford VanSchoick, Earl VanValin, Roderick Doolittle, Elsie McCollum, Mrs. Lee Thomason, Miss Benetta Teeters, Mrs. B. F. McCollum.

Delight Valley Society.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Sears very pleasantly entertained a few of their friends Saturday evening. Cards were the diversion of the evening after which the hostess served a dainty lunch. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Lee Nixon, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Nichols, Mrs. Cowley and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Conner.

The Cedars Society.

Mrs. Chas. McFarland entertained the Ladies Welcome club on Thursday afternoon. A few of the members were unable to attend on account of sickness. A very pleasing time was spent in needlework, chat and music. Dainty refreshments were served.
