

Household Paint, 10c a Can

Last lot at this price

You will find our 5c, 10c and 15c counters well supplied with useful articles. A great many of them can hardly be sold at old prices but you can find plenty of good picking yet. Call and look over our bargains.

Canvas Gloves at 10c-12 1/2c-15c a Pair

THE FAIR

TALES OF THE TOWN

The juvenile band from the home at Des Moines, Wash., appeared here again Tuesday night before a crowded house.

Mrs. F. J. Gonier, of Roseburg, returned home Monday after a week's visit with Mrs. Sam Brand.

Jitney service. Linch's Garage, n16tf

C. E. Westenhaver and Herman Edwards, of the U. of O., spent the week end in Cottage Grove.

The BRIDGE Harness and Shoe REPAIR SHOP

I am now prepared with latest improved machinery to sew on soles, and do all shoe and harness repairing electrically and neatly. All work guaranteed.

Prices as low as consistent for good material and good work.

E. B. GRABLE, Proprietor

Frank King, of Culver, visited over Sunday with his family.

Mrs. M. F. France, of Springfield, spent the week end with her sister, Mrs. J. H. England.

Two fine organs, used very little; took them in trade on pianos; will sell cheap. See E. D. Rike, at Cottage hotel. m1pd

Mrs. Clyde Kerr, of Mt. Vernon, Wash., is visiting relatives and friends in Cottage Grove.

The Golden Rule Store

We have on hand the most complete line of Ladies', Men's and Children's Shoes ever offered by us since we have been doing business. And we are still under the market in prices. Select your shoes before another raise.

The Cottage Grove hospital was formally opened Monday and has been visited by a number of the residents of the city.

W. C. Johnson attended a grocery-men's convention in Portland last week.

Miss Georgia Raines arrived from Roseburg last week for an indefinite stay. She was accompanied by Mrs. D. E. Bennett, of Wheeler.

Spray will pay you cash for potatoes or wheat.

Mrs. Eva Perkins is at Springfield receiving hospital treatment.

Prof. Jewett spent Friday and Saturday at Salem, where he acted as toastmaster at a banquet and visited the Salem schools.

Mrs. A. L. Drake returned Friday morning to her home in Newport, after a visit at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Frank Woodruff.

The Sentinel wants a live correspondent at London.

Julia Turner, Anna Lindstrom and Ruth Mackey spent the week end at their homes at Divide.

Mrs. C. H. Carson was called to Albany Friday to attend the funeral of her grandfather, A. H. Martin, who died at the age of 83.

Dr. J. E. Bridgwater was up from Creswell one day last week and visited the Cottage Grove hospital.

Closed in car at your service day or night. Linch's Garage. n16tf

Miss Lulu Currin spent the week end in Eugene.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. McKinley, of Dorena, were here last Thursday to meet their niece, Mrs. Verian Athey, who arrived from Salem.

Dorris Medley left for Eugene last week to attend the University of Oregon.

George Matthews can tell you in song "A Man's a Handy Thing to Have Around," at the Church Fair, March 7, at Presbyterian church.

Edd Jenks returned Sunday from Portland, where he had been serving on the federal grand jury.

W. P. Huff is recovering from an attack of the grip which has confined him to the house for a couple of weeks.

J. D. Kippen returned Monday from a trip east.

POWELL & COMPANY WHERE PRICES ARE RIGHT

Quite a few college girls from the U. of O. spent the week end in the city. They were Miss Esther Hill, Miss Ida Hill, Miss Florence Hemenway, Miss Belle Messick, Miss Jean Cochran and Miss Ada Matthews, and all returned to Eugene Sunday evening.

Miss Edith Brown went to Salem Sunday morning to visit her sister.

We will meet any train, day or night, with closed-in car. Telephone us. Linch's Garage. n16tf

CITY MEAT MARKET Phone 89 PRIME MEATS OF ALL KINDS

The ten-days-old baby of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Seward, who live up Row river, died Saturday and Mrs. Seward is critically ill.

The roof of the McKibben saw mill fell in Saturday. No one was hurt as the mill was not running.

Charles Adams returned Monday from a ten days' business trip to San Francisco.

Gasoline 23c cash, at Linch's Garage. Rev. D. A. MacLeod leaves Saturday

HELLO 58! Baker's Bakery Good Bread!

for Albany, to be gone for a few days, and Rev. J. L. Beatty will conduct the services at the Presbyterian church.

Miss Marion White, a trained nurse, who recently returned from Springfield, has gone to Dorena on a case.

Rosecoe Yearous arrived Tuesday from Codagan, Alberta. His family had arrived here some time before.

Chinese song, by Mrs. Bert Trask; Gypsy solo and chorus by Mrs. J. D. Westenhaver, at the Church Fair, March 7, at Presbyterian church.

Miss Margaret Young and Miss Faye Goble, teachers at Lorane, passed through the city Friday on their way to spend the week end in Eugene.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Holleran and Thomas Holleran, the parents and brother of Mrs. C. J. Kem, arrived the first of the week from Bradford, Pa., for an extended visit with Mr. and Mrs. Kem.

Clarence Boyd returned to his home in Gold Hill Friday. His little son is now out of danger.

Cash paid for hides, pelts, wool or mohair at Spray's.

Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Jennings, of Leona, passed through the Grove Friday afternoon on their way to Dorena to spend the week end.

Mrs. Van B. Pierce and children have gone to Harrisburg, where Mr. Pierce is working on the Bulletin.

H. J. Carter and wife have returned to their home in Wells, after a visit with Mrs. Carter's sister, Mrs. H. H. Oleott.

A few more good second hand buggies and wagons at Spray's. n16tf

Mrs. Fred Porter left last week for Purple Springs, Alberta. Her husband had already gone there.

Mrs. Maud Griggs and little son, of Eugene, visited Mrs. Hiram Griggs one day last week.

Mrs. E. R. Spencer visited Mr. Spencer in Eugene during the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. M. Hawley returned Saturday from a visit in Eugene.

For sale, high grade piano used a few months; cost $450.00. Will take less than half price and give some terms. See E. D. Rike, at Cottage hotel. m1pd

The Cottage Grove hospital was formally opened Monday and has been visited by a number of the residents of the city.

W. C. Johnson attended a grocery-men's convention in Portland last week.

Miss Georgia Raines arrived from Roseburg last week for an indefinite stay. She was accompanied by Mrs. D. E. Bennett, of Wheeler.

Spray will pay you cash for potatoes or wheat.

Mrs. Eva Perkins is at Springfield receiving hospital treatment.

Prof. Jewett spent Friday and Saturday at Salem, where he acted as toastmaster at a banquet and visited the Salem schools.

Mrs. A. L. Drake returned Friday morning to her home in Newport, after a visit at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Frank Woodruff.

The Sentinel wants a live correspondent at London.

Julia Turner, Anna Lindstrom and Ruth Mackey spent the week end at their homes at Divide.

Mrs. C. H. Carson was called to Albany Friday to attend the funeral of her grandfather, A. H. Martin, who died at the age of 83.

Dr. J. E. Bridgwater was up from Creswell one day last week and visited the Cottage Grove hospital.

Closed in car at your service day or night. Linch's Garage. n16tf

Miss Lulu Currin spent the week end in Eugene.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. McKinley, of Dorena, were here last Thursday to meet their niece, Mrs. Verian Athey, who arrived from Salem.

Dorris Medley left for Eugene last week to attend the University of Oregon.

George Matthews can tell you in song "A Man's a Handy Thing to Have Around," at the Church Fair, March 7, at Presbyterian church.

Edd Jenks returned Sunday from Portland, where he had been serving on the federal grand jury.

W. P. Huff is recovering from an attack of the grip which has confined him to the house for a couple of weeks.

J. D. Kippen returned Monday from a trip east.

representative Roy Griggs was up from Comstock yesterday. He reports that his daughter, whom he recently took to Eugene for eye treatment, is improving.

"Joy, joy, to come to the 'Fair' at Presbyterian church March 7.

Mrs. Walter Baker, of Canby, is spending the week as the guest of Mrs. H. H. Petrie.

P. R. Fuson writes from Lyons, Kans., sending money order for a year's subscription.

A. D. Watts and mother and sister and G. D. Watts and family left yesterday for Oakland, Calif., where they expect to make their future home.

Cash for chickens and eggs at Spray's. n16tf

Mr. and Mrs. Will Hart are up from Corvallis.

The family of Robert Sutcliffe is expected to return within a few days from Idaho Falls, Ida., as Mr. Sutcliffe is leaving on his chautauqua tour.

Mrs. F. W. Hawkins visited in Creswell Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Manchester, who recently sold the Palace restaurant, have moved to Eugene.

Get that old cherished picture copied or enlarged at Monroe's Studio. He is an expert at copying. Sundays by appointment. n15tf.

W. W. Comer has traded his place here for a place at Drain and the family will move there Friday.

B. F. Fuller was in Eugene Tuesday. His son, E. J. Fuller, returned with him.

Frank Fisher, of Star, has received the bounty on a coyote and three wildcats.

Miss Verna Hawkins visited in Eugene Sunday.

Anyone wanting to buy a piano or player piano see E. D. Rike, wholesale representative for Kohler & Chase Piano Co., of Portland. m1pd

Mrs. J. P. Morris is at a Eugene hospital where she has undergone a major operation.

Mrs. Lucy Holland is suffering with a bursted blood vessel, the result of a fall.

G. W. McFarland, master of Cottage Grove grange, was installed as overseer of Pomona grange at the meeting in Santa Clara Saturday.

Gasoline 23c cash, at Linch's Garage.

D. P. Burton, county assessor, who has been quite ill at Eugene, has about recovered and is again able to attend to the duties of his office.

Mrs. Nelson Durham returned Saturday from Portland, to which place she accompanied her sister, Miss Mabel Goodridge, who is receiving medical treatment.

Miss Beulah Hawkins has gone to Creswell, to be employed in the Creswell hotel.

A bargain is not merely low price. Only when you get a low price and high quality do you have a bargain. Call at our office and see for yourself the club of four magazines that we offer for only 25 cents more than the cost of our paper alone.

The girls of the domestic science department of the high school give their third of a series of four ten-cent lunches at noon today.

O. E. Woodson returned from Portland Sunday with a 1918 model Studebaker Six, which he drove up. He found the roads to be in rather bad condition.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Brund were in Eugene Friday night, Mr. Brund attending the Elk feed and Mrs. Brund visiting friends.

Reduced prices on tires. Linch's Garage.

Mrs. Maud Miller, who is accompanying her father, Theodore Renshaw, from Grants Pass to Coos Bay, their new home, stopped off here today to visit her cousin, Mrs. C. M. Jackson. Mr. Renshaw went on to Eugene and his daughter will join him there.

Miss Ruth Shearer and Miss Florence Luebke, who have been conducting the depot restaurant, shut up the business Wednesday. Miss Shearer will go to her home at Row River and Miss Luebke to Dallas, Oregon.

Hear Mr. Skei pay tribute to Old Glory at the Church Fair at Presbyterian church March 7.

Sam Veatch, general chairman of the O. R. C., has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Burne Veatch, and other relatives and friends.

The condition of Van Allison continues to improve.

J. H. Robinson, who sustained a fracture of his left arm several months ago, has undergone a rebreaking and setting of the arm, as some of the ligaments were being injured.

Cold weather. Good shoe repairing. Goff. n16tf

J. E. Overholser spent the week end at Central Point.

Wm. Haupt writes from Wilmer, B. C., that he expected to arrive here the first of February but that he has been laid up with a sore leg and will probably not arrive until early in March.

Miss Benetta Teeters, Mrs. Annette Vaughn, Edwin Redford and Miss Louie Brown were here Friday morning to take the special train to attend the Christian Endeavor convention at Salem. They were the only delegates from this section.

The price of leather is going up every day. Have those shoes fixed before it goes out of sight. Dr. Goff. n16tf

Mrs. J. M. Hansen and two children moved to Portland Thursday to make their home there.

Mr. and Mrs. James Piteher, of Tolstoi, Alaska, left Thursday for a month's visit to San Francisco, Los Angeles and other southern California cities.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Proudfoot spent Thursday in Creswell.

Reduced prices on tires. Linch's Garage.

Wyley Oleott and wife, of Leona, are visiting Mr. Oleott's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Oleott.

W. T. Lopp, chief of the Alaska division of the United States bureau of education, under whom Superintendent W. G. Beattie worked for five years, visited Mr. Beattie Thursday evening while on his way to Washington, D. C.

Mrs. K. E. Winsgar, after a month's visit with relatives, left Thursday for Marshfield, her future home.

Gasoline 23c cash, at Linch's Garage.

Mrs. A. H. Denison has returned to her home in Grants Pass, after a two weeks' visit here.

Mrs. C. M. Hager left Thursday for a visit with friends at Lewiston, Idaho.

B. K. Lawson was here from Round Prairie Friday. He had been at Eugene.

C. F. Walker arrived Monday from Ashland to spend a couple of weeks on business.

Alta King was in Eugene Saturday on business.

Alfred Jury, who has really been a citizen of this country for a quarter of a century, has filed application for his final papers and will be examined at the June term of court. His first papers were taken out in Minnesota years and years ago. Mr. Jury was to have been examined at the present term, but upon presenting himself for the examination found that one of his witnesses was technically disqualified by reason of not having known him long enough.

Mrs. Ida K. Couillard arrived Friday from Portland, to be employed as a trained nurse at the Cottage Grove hospital.

Mrs. Esther Wallace and Mrs. Henry Hohl went to Eugene Tuesday morning.

Miss Ruth Lunan returned from Leona Tuesday morning. Her sister Anna is critically ill with typhoid at the home of her sister, Mrs. Fisher, in Leona.

Dr. and Mrs. W. Leonard Rennie have gone to their home in Butte, Mont., after a short visit with the family of Dr. D. L. Woods.

Miss Mabel Wilson is suffering with an attack of the grip. Her place at the Fair store is being filled by Miss Ruth Robinson.

Eight-year-old Henry Howe, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Howe, is now slowly recovering from a sickness of six weeks' duration.

H. D. Whitlock returned Wednesday from California. He says that is a great country down there but that Oregon is good enough for him and he is glad to get back.

Miss Hazel Hemenway underwent an operation last week for the removal of tonsils.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Wood and J. B. Protzman are in Portland this week.

"Grandma" Shortridge, who is not very well, has been taken to the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. J. Weeden.

J. J. Weeden and Clyde Langdon and family left last week for California. Mr. Weeden went to Coalinga and the Langdon family to Kirkwood.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Hanna had as guests the past week Mr. and Mrs. Peter Goltos, of Patrot, Greece. Mrs. Goltos just arrived from a three months' ocean voyage and they were married upon her arrival in Portland.

R. S. Trask left last night for Portland on business.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Griffin were up from Eugene Tuesday evening to attend the birthday party of Mr. Griffin's father.

W. B. Finney has been appointed deputy assessor for the Bohemia district. Edd Jenks has been appointed deputy assessor for Cottage Grove.

E. M. Sharp was in Eugene yesterday. R. G. Fuller, S. W. B. Haynes, J. B. Ford and W. C. Applewhite, contractors and architects, were up from Eugene the first of the week on business with the Cottage Grove Manufacturing company.

The Cottage Grove Manufacturing company has received orders for four silos.

H. M. Barrett is at the Cottage Grove hospital sick with the grip.

Attend Moose Meeting.

Among those from here who attended the Moose meeting in Eugene February 15 were L. R. Long, Homer Currin, Ed Lane, V. S. Goff, George Marksbury, Sid Vaughn, Roy Coats, S. S. Hiecox, Clair Spray and M. P. Garoutte.

Accepts Maxwell Agency.

J. T. Smith has accepted the agency for the Maxwell car for Cottage Grove and has purchased a new 1917 model from the Pacific garage, of Eugene.

Observe Washington's Birthday.

A special assembly of the Cottage Grove high school was held last Thursday afternoon in honor of George Washington. The address was delivered by Rev. King.

Mrs. H. F. Alden Dies.

Word has reached here of the recent death in California of Mrs. H. F. Alden, who moved there from Cottage Grove with her husband about a year ago. The circumstances of her death were pathetic. Mrs. Alden was taken with a fainting spell on the streets of Los Angeles, was taken into a drug store by strangers and there died without regaining consciousness. The funeral was held at Inglewood.

Quite a few college girls from the U. of O. spent the week end in the city. They were Miss Esther Hill, Miss Ida Hill, Miss Florence Hemenway, Miss Belle Messick, Miss Jean Cochran and Miss Ada Matthews, and all returned to Eugene Sunday evening.

Miss Edith Brown went to Salem Sunday morning to visit her sister.

We will meet any train, day or night, with closed-in car. Telephone us. Linch's Garage. n16tf

CITY MEAT MARKET Phone 89 PRIME MEATS OF ALL KINDS

The ten-days-old baby of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Seward, who live up Row river, died Saturday and Mrs. Seward is critically ill.

The roof of the McKibben saw mill fell in Saturday. No one was hurt as the mill was not running.

Charles Adams returned Monday from a ten days' business trip to San Francisco.

Gasoline 23c cash, at Linch's Garage. Rev. D. A. MacLeod leaves Saturday

HELLO 58! Baker's Bakery Good Bread!

Towle's Log Cabin Maple Syrup

SIZES: 25c-50c-$1.00

Bulk Garden Seeds, Onion Sets Chase & Sanborn's Coffee Fisher's Flour Public School Books

A. BRUND & Co.

MUSICAL COMEDY, "THE CHURCH FAIR"

Given by Euterpean Club Next Wednesday Under Direction of Miss Silsby and Mr. Skei.

Following is the program for the musical comedy, "The Church Fair," to be given at the Presbyterian church at 8 o'clock next Wednesday evening by the Euterpean club under the direction of Miss Silsby and Mr. Skei:

The Dragon Fighter	Hoffman
Ruth Stewart	Juanita Short
Male Quartet	Selected
Messrs. Brown, Kime, Wallace, Wyatt	"Come With Me"
Mrs. Shinn, Mrs. Westenhaver	Mrs. Short, Jessie Smith
Le Tourbillon	Goldbeck
Mrs. Bert Trask
The Last Call	Sanderson
Dale Wyatt
Salut a Pesh	Kowalski
Ruth Stewart
My Ain Folk	Laura Lernon
Frank Wallace
Lullabye	Kate Vannati
Miss Wilcox, Mrs. Short, Jessie Smith, Mrs. Cruson

THE CHURCH FAIR.

Characters:

Mrs. Wrightley, a jolly motherly lady	Frances Beatty
Charlotte, in charge of the candy booth	Mrs. Westenhaver
Anna, in charge of flower booth	Mrs. Short
Grace—Mrs. Trask; Irene—Jessie McCord; Sara—Mrs. Cruson; and Ella—Mrs. Armes.
.....in charge of fancy work booth
Richard—W. G. Beattie; Wallace—George Matthews; Charley—Joe Smith; Will—Albert Helliwell and Harry—Mr. Skei.....young men who assist in the preparations
Gertrude, Gypsy fortune teller	Mrs. Westenhaver
A Visitor	Miss Wilcox
Miss Snipper, severe and rather elderly	Mrs. VanDenBurg
Mrs. Merriman	Lauretta Beals
Waitresses	Ella
Counts, Myrtle Potts, Irma Violet Grab Bag Children	Evaline
Veatch, Dolly Piteher, Pearl Robinson
Director of young girls	Mrs. W. G. Beattie
Accompanist	Mrs. Kerr

The admission price is 25 cents.

The Sentinel desires correspondents to send in weekly news from Latham, Coast Fork and London. Write for particulars. dec7tf

Just Received

A Shipment of Boys' Suits for Spring

All wool fabrics in Blue Serges and fancy weaves. Well tailored suits, coats make Norfolk and pinch back styles, pants full lined and seams taped.

Many of these suits come with two pairs of pants.

Priced at—

$5.50, $6.50, $7.50, $8.50

THE WOOLEN MILLS STORE

Leading Clothiers