CROWDEDHOUSEAPPLAUDS

"THE CHURCH FAIR"

Musical Comedy Is Well Presented by European Club Under Direction of Miss Silsby and Mr. Skei.

"The Church Fair," a tuneful and joyous light opera given in the Presbyterian church last night, had a stage setting that made it look like the real thing. The platform of the church was uniquely arranged showing a real church fair, there being a fancy work booth, the flower booth and the candy booth, each having its quota or bevy of pretty maids to dispose of the wares.

The comedy was really first class and the singing artistic with plenty of the comedy. With all the trained voices of the European club taking part, the presentation was far superior to that of the average traveling musical comedy company and showed painstaking rehearsal under competent instruction.

The choruses were particularly pleasing and the work of the male quintet, which developed much of the comedy, was especially appreciated. The three little grab-bag girls were a particular hit.

This was, undoubtedly, by far the best of the many musical productions with which Miss Silsby has been connected.

The following musical program preceded the opera:

The Dragon Fighter.....Hoffman
Ruth Stewart, Junanita Short

Male Quartet.....Selected
Messrs. Brown, Kime, Wallace, Wyatt

"Come With Me".....Company
Mrs. Shinn, Mrs. Westenhaver
Mrs. Short, Jessie Smith

The Last Call.....Sanderson
Dale Wyatt

Salut a Pesth.....Kowalski
Ruth Stewart

My Ain Folk.....Laura Leron
Frank Wallace

Lullabye.....Kate Vannati
Miss Wilcox, Mrs. Short,
Jessie Smith, Mrs. Cruson

The characters in the opera were as follows:

Mrs. Wrightley, a jolly motherly lady.....Miss Frances Beatty
Charlotte, in charge of the candy booth.....Mrs. Westenhaver
Anna, in charge of flower booth.....Mrs. Short

Grace—Mrs. Trask; Irene—Jessie McCord; Sara—Mrs. Cruson; and Ella—Mrs. Armes.

.....in charge of fancy work booth
Richard—W. G. Beattie; Wallace—George Matthews; Charley—Joe Smith; Will—Albert Helliwell and Harry—Mr. Skei.....young men who assist in the preparations

Gertrude, Gypsy fortune teller.....Mrs. Westenhaver
A Visitor.....Miss Wilcox
Miss Snipper, severe and rather elderly.....Miss VanDenburg

Mrs. Merriman.....Lauretta Beals
Waitresses.....Ella Counts, Myrtle Potts, Irma Violet
Grab Bag Children.....Evaline Veatch, Dolly Pitcher, Pearl Robinson

The production was directed by Miss Esther Silsby and Alfred Skei. Mrs. W. G. Beattie directed the little girls and Mrs. George Kerr played the piano score.

Every seat in the church was taken.

The Common Law.

The story of the screen version of Robert W. Chambers' widely read novel, "The Common Law," in which Clara Kimball Young will appear at the Arcade theater on March 21, is one that will appeal to every patron of motion pictures.

Valerie West, an educated and cultured girl who has become an artist model through force of circumstances, falls in love with Neville, a painter for whom she poses. Her love is returned, but owing to the artist's social connections, Valerie is convinced that a marriage would ruin his career. She offers herself in love to the man of her heart and the day is set on which she is to come to him under "the common law."

Through a chain of incidents of unusual dramatic power, Valerie conquers the objections of Neville's family and in the end the lovers find themselves free to be united in the safer and more conservative bonds of the law made by man.

The characters in the story are distinct metropolitan types of unusual interest, and as produced by Director General Albert Capellani, the picture promises to be the sensation of the coming season.
