Civic Improvement Club Organized.

A civic improvement club was organized at a meeting of members of the women's clubs of the city held at the commercial club Tuesday. A committee was appointed to draft a constitution and by-laws and a meeting will be held Tuesday, March 27, for the election of officers.

The Social Twelve club meets this afternoon with Miss Esther Silsby.

Ladies' Aid Elects.

The annual meeting of the ladies' aid society of the Presbyterian church was held yesterday afternoon at the church. The only business to come up was the election of officers and the following were unanimously re-elected: President, Mrs. B. R. Job; vice-president, Mrs.

George Kerr; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Curria Cooley.

The M. P. G. club meets next Tuesday with Mrs. Leon DesLarzes.

The Semi-monthly Dancing club will hold a session at Moose hall tonight.

The Order Eastern Star held a memorial service Friday evening in commemoration of the death of Mrs. Lenora B. Knowles, a member and past worthy matron.

The Joker club has issued invitations for a St. Patrick's day party to be held in Odd Fellows hall next Monday night. Five hundred will be the diversion.

A pleasant surprise party was tendered "Grandma" McKee Saturday, the occasion being her eightieth birthday anniversary. Friends and relatives to the number of thirty-five gathered at about 11 a. m., with well filled baskets and presents. After dinner about an hour was spent in a prayer and praise service led by Rev. Groat. The ministers present, in addition to Mr. Groat, were Rev. S. Kern, of the Church of God; Rev. F. W. Oliver, of the Free Methodist church; Rev. D. D. Dodge, of Grants Pass.

The Emanon club met yesterday afternoon with Mrs. Van Allison. Instrumental music by Mrs. Munson and vocal music by Mrs. Luech and Mrs. Horace Cochran were very much enjoyed. A delicious luncheon was served, consisting of pressed chicken, hot biscuits, pickles, jelly, ice cream, cake and coffee. Little Helen Rodolph assisted with the serving. Mrs. Clyde Umphrey will be the hostess at the next meeting.

Saginaw Society.

Mrs. L. L. Whitcomb delightfully entertained the Good Neighbors club Thursday. The afternoon was spent in sewing and fancy work. Dainty refreshments were served. Members present were Mrs. Burgess, Mrs. Hartley, Mrs. Enslay, Mrs. Briggs, Mrs. Vaughn, Mrs. Queener, Ethel Moody and Kathleen Allen.

Hebron Society.

Mr. and Mrs. George Kapauff entertained a few friends at their home Saturday evening. Cards were the diversion of the evening and refreshments were served.

Mrs. Bendele entertained the ladies' club last Thursday. Those present were Mrs. J. A. Powell, Mrs. George Kapauff, Mrs. John Murray, Mrs. Sarah Finley, Mrs. Emma Kelly, Mrs. George Gilerist, Mrs. Jessie Gilerist and Miss Myrtle Gilham.

The Cedars Society.

The basket social given at The Cedars by the literary society Saturday night was well attended and was a complete success in every way. The drama was greatly appreciated by all. Each member of the cast played her part well and did credit to her training. The baskets sold brought $20.15.

Miss Kathryn Hemenway served a three course dinner in honor of the birthday anniversary of her brother, Reed, who was six years old March 6. The guests were Reed, Margaret and Mary Elizabeth.

Delight Valley Society.

The G. T. X. club met last Wednesday at the Nixon home. The main feature of the afternoon was a stork shower given one of the members, which was a pleasant surprise. The gray-haired members had charge of the refreshments and a delicious lunch of pie, sandwiches and coffee was served.

Silk Creek Society.

Almira Bristow Dies.

Almira K. Bristow, one of the earliest pioneers of Lane county and for more than 60 years a resident of the Pleasant Hill neighborhood, died on the old Bristow donation land claim there last week at the age of 91 years.

She was the last surviving member of the Elijah Bristow family circle, the members of which were so prominent in the early history of the county.

where he will enlist in the British army. His brother was killed while fighting against the Germans on the western front last April.

ROYAL ARCH MASONS ORGANIZE CHAPTER HERE

A chapter of Royal Arch Masons was organized at a meeting of Royal Arch Masons held at Masonic hall last night. A dispensation will soon be received from the grand chapter, when a permanent organization will be completed. This is the only chapter between Eugene and Roseburg.

The officers elected last night were: High priest, O. O. Veatch; king, Worth Harvey; scribe, M. H. Anderson; secretary, Chas. Adams; treasurer, T. C. Wheeler. The remainder of the officers will be elected after the receipt of the dispensation.

Eugene Odd Fellows Visit Here.

Sixteen members of the Odd Fellows lodge, of Eugene, visited here last Thursday and conferred the royal purple degree for Const. Fork encampment. A banquet was served, after which dancing was enjoyed until the early hours of the morning, when the visitors took the train back to Eugene. The visitors were: F. W. Davis, J. W. Zimmerman, J. W. Pollock, John Cartmell, John Marsh, J. H. Newman, S. W. Minton, J. A. Torrey, M. Svarverud, J. Grant, John H. Martin, R. B. McKinney, W. S. Gladstone, George Holland, J. R. Ellison, F. A. Rankin.

Timber and Piling Business Good.

The timber and piling business has been quite active recently, although considerable difficulty has been encountered in getting the timber out of the woods on account of the snow. Charles Walker, who is here from Grants Pass looking after some orders, received another good sized order by wire last week. Martin Anderson, another dealer, has also had quite a little business for winter months.

Metcalf & Brund Wins.

The supreme court has reversed the decision of Judge G. F. Skipworth, of the circuit court for Lane county, in the case of Ida May Wicks against H. K. Metcalf and A. H. Brund. The circuit court decided in favor of the plaintiff, but the defendants appealed and won in the higher court. J. E. Young, of Cottage Grove, and Fred E. Smith, of Eugene, were attorneys for the defendants and E. O. Potter, of Eugene, for the plaintiff.

Horse Killed by Snow.

London, Ore., March 13.—(Special to The Sentinel).—Edward Brasher lost a horse as a result of the recent heavy snow. The barn went down with a team of horses and a cow inside. One horse was killed, the other escaped injury and the cow was only slightly injured. There was 30 inches of snow on the barn.

Mrs. Mary Massey is slowly recovering from injuries sustained in a recent fall.

Mrs. Sarah Nowell is still very weak.

League Opposes Bond Issue.

The Southern Lane County Taxpayers' league, at its meeting Saturday, adopted a resolution opposing the proposed $5,000,000 bond issue which will appear on the ballot at the June election.

Drake and Gillette Entertain.

Charles R. Drake, reader and impersonator, and Albert Gillette, baritone, pleasantly entertained a large audience in the high school assembly room Friday evening under the auspices of the high school student body. Both men are quite proficient in their work and the evening was a pleasant one. They are students at the University of Oregon.

ERADICATION OF DIGGER SQUIRRELS IS SUBJECT

All Farmers Invited to Open Meeting of Grange Saturday.

Cottage Grove grange will hold an open meeting Saturday afternoon for the purpose of giving all those interested in the eradication of squirrels an opportunity to hear R. A. Ward, of the United States biological survey.

TAXES LOWERED 1.25 MILLS BY LIGHTER COUNTY LEVY

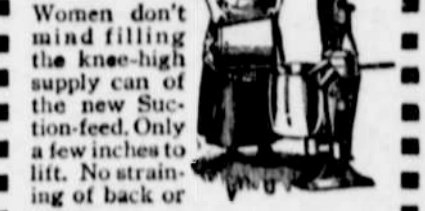

The county tax levy of 17 1/2 mills which was made last week will lower the anticipated tax levy of Lane county towns by 1 1/4 mills as the estimated county tax was 18 3/4 mills. On this basis the taxes of the following Lane county cities and towns will be: Florence, 57 mills; Cottage Grove and Springfield, 46.50 mills each; Junction City, 42.50 mills; Eugene, 41.75 mills; Creswell, 38.80 mills; Coburg, 35.50 mills; and Glenada, 33.50 mills.

These figures give Florence the highest and Glenada the lowest tax rates of the county's cities.

Klamath, Josephine and Jackson counties in cooperation with the county agents and reports some very successful meetings.

Mr. Ward will discuss the habits of the squirrels and will give a demonstration in preparing the poison.

The eradication of the squirrel is an important problem to Cottage Grove farmers.

Just a Tilt of the Pail

Women don't mind filling the knee-high supply can of the new Suction-feed. Only a few inches to lift. No straining of back or arms.

THE NEW SHARPLES SUCTION-FEED

Separator gets all the cream off the time. Any other separator will lose cream when the speed slackens. You can't always turn at exactly the right speed. No one can. It's impossible. The Suction-feed skims clean, fast or slow, and delivers even cream. Capacity increases with the speed. Come in and let us show you how it works.
