

Toroid Lenses

For the man or woman who wants to get the most out of life, perfect vision is very essential.

That is the reason for our Toroid Lenses.

They give the wide-angle vision of the natural eye and avoid the various drawbacks of the ordinary "flat" lenses.

Remember the exact name "Toroids" and that you can get them right from us.

PIANO PUPILS PRESENT A PLEASING PROGRAM

Mrs. R. E. Griswold's Class Gives Recital Monday night.

The piano pupils of Mrs. R. E. Griswold, assisted by Mrs. Leon DesLarzes and A. A. Richmond, gave a pleasing program at the Baptist church Monday night and an appreciative audience, which completely filled the church, listened with delight to its presentation.

Following is the program:

PART I

- 1—Piano Duet, "March," from Birthday Suite (Carl Bohm)—Miss Francis Beatty and Miss Edna Hull.
- 2—Solo, "Starbeam," Reverie (Spaulding)—Mabel Spray.
- 4—Piano Duet, "Invitation to the Dance" (Weber)—Arna King and Mildred Cichran.
- 5—Solo, "Trunmeri" and "Little Romance," Opus 68 (Schumann)—Mildred Cochran.
- 6—Solo, "Knight Errant" (Burgmüller) Opus 25—Hilda Harden.
- 7—Solo, "Song of the Flowers" (Woodward)—Marie Veatch.
- 8—Vocal Duet, "Home to Our Mountains" (Verdi)—Mr. Albert Richmond and Mrs. Leon DesLarzes.

PART II

- 1—Piano Duet, "Asa's Death" and "Anitra's Dance," from the Peer Gynt Suite (Grieg)—Virgil Powell and Mrs. Griswold.
- 2—Solo, "The Mill Song" (Ringstet) Miss Edna Hull.
- 3—Solo, "Buona Notte," Opus 25 Number 4 (Nevin)—Miss Edna King.
- 4—Solo, "La Sereana" (Moskowsky) Virgil Powell.
- 5—Solo, "Fantasia de Concert" Opus 30 (Holt)—Miss Frances Beatty.
- 6—Solo, "Rustle of Spring" (Sinding) Virgil Powell.

Vocal Solo, "Spring's Awakening"

(Sanderson)—Mrs. Leon DesLarzes.

Virgil Powell, an advanced pupil, easily carried off the honors. His interpretation of the Sinding number in particular, which is a difficult bit of technique, was an exhibition of finished artistry accomplished with ease and grace. Mr. Powell also displayed exceptional ability in the four-hand arrangement of the Peer Gynt numbers, which he played with Mrs. Griswold.

Miss King's "Good Night" number from Nevin's "A Day in Venice," was given an unusually sympathetic interpretation.

"June Flowers" by Hazel Bosley, "Knight Errant" by Hilda Harden, "The Mill Song" by Edna Hull, and "La Sereana" and "Rustle of Spring" by Virgil Powell, were all memorized and played without the score.

Many other numbers were worthy of special mention, and all were rendered in a manner highly creditable to the pupils and to their teacher.

Mrs. DesLarzes and Mr. Richmond, with Mrs. Griswold at the piano, sang Verdi's "Home to Our Mountains" in a splendid manner.

"Spring's Awakening," the closing number, was probably the most appreciated feature of the program. Mrs. DesLarzes was in excellent voice and sang this dainty, difficult composition with an ease and a finished technique that delighted everyone.

Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Godard celebrated their twelfth wedding anniversary Monday evening with a seven o'clock dinner. Guests present were Mrs. E. R. Spencer, Mrs. VanBoskirk and Mrs. Clarence Spieker.

A meeting of the civic improvement club will be held at the commercial club next Tuesday afternoon for the election of officers.

The Loyal Women's class of the Christian church was entertained Friday at the home of Mrs. S. L. Knox. Mrs. Huff gave a review of the bible and a number of hard questions were asked and answered. Music followed the serving of a two-course luncheon.

Joker Club Entertains

The Joker club held a pleasant session Monday night, entertaining about a hundred guests, each of whom was decorated with a shamrock. Five hundred was the diversion of the evening, head honors being won by Mrs. Will Hall and H. E. Jewett. Refreshments of ice cream, cake and coffee were served. A St. Patrick's day flag flying in the center of the ice cream gave it the appearance of a submarine, and it was sunk without warning. The members of the club were prettier even than usual in dainty green caps.

The invited guests of the club were Mr. and Mrs. O. Heine, Mr. and Mrs. Kem, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Shinn, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Short, Mr. and Mrs. Helliwell, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold, Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Westenhaver, Mr. and Mrs. Scott, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Shinn, Mr. and Mrs. Corson, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Trask, Mr. and Mrs. Bader, Mr. and Mrs. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Gleason, Mr. and Mrs. H. Veatch, Mr. and Mrs. K. K. Mills, Mr. and Mrs. Skee, Mr. and Mrs. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Atkinson, Mr. and Mrs. Will Hall, Mr. and Mrs. George Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Monroe, Mr. and Mrs. Hemenway, Mr. and Mrs. Powell, Mr. and Mrs. Swengel, Mr. and Mrs. Van Allison, Mr. and Mrs. Bede, Mr. and Mrs. Brand, Mr. and Mrs. McQueen, Mr. and Mrs. DesLarzes, Mr. and Mrs. Richmond, Mr. and Mrs. Spencer, Mr. and Mrs. H. I. Short, Mr. and Mrs. McFarland, Mr. and Mrs. Scholl, Mr. and Mrs. Durham, Mr. and Mrs. Metcalf, Mr. and Mrs. Harrel, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Brund, Mesdames Holleran and Hemenway, Misses Wright and Adella Atkinson, Messrs. Anderson, Harvey, Jewett, Hager, Wyatt, George Hall, Jr., VanDenburg, Frost, Burkholder, and Chas. Westenhaver.

The members of the club who entertained were the Misses Lulu Currin, Kinsey, VanDenburg, Burkholder, Hooper, Silsby, and Schilling, Mesdames Frost, VanDenburg, Dean, Benger, Cruse, J. D. Westenhaver and Beals.

The M. P. G. club met Tuesday with Mrs. DesLarzes, those present spending a pleasant afternoon in social chat over their fancy work. Dainty refreshments were served. Guests of the club were Mrs. Beattie, Mrs. Eakin, Mrs. Roy Short and Mrs. Corson.

Hebron Society

Mrs. J. A. Powell entertained the ladies' club Saturday afternoon with a quilt tacking. Sixteen women and nine children were present and lunch was served.

Mrs. C. E. Gilham entertained some little folks Saturday afternoon. Those present were Ada and Glen Gilham, Lela Kelly and Roy Murray. A dainty lunch was served.

Miss Esther Silsby pleasantly entertained the Social Twelve club last Thursday. The home was prettily decorated with carnations, and refreshments were served. Mrs. W. G. Beattie was elected a new member.

Mrs. Roy Short and Mrs. G. M. Scott will be hostesses to the Constellation club this afternoon.

The Cedars Society.

Mrs. W. A. Hemenway gave a birthday dinner Friday in honor of her aunt, Mrs. Mary Miller, of Pleasant Hill, who is 70 years of age. Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Reed and Grandpa Hemenway, of the Grove, were the other guests. "Uncle" Ves Veatch also spent the afternoon with them and the time was very pleasantly passed in relating anecdotes and stories of old times. Uncle Ves and Grandpa Hemenway are each nearly 80 years of age.

The ladies' club met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. T. Peek, most of the members being present. Mrs. Rex Glenson was a guest of the club. The afternoon was most pleasantly spent with needlework and chat.

A very pleasant dancing party was given at the Chris Haldeman home Saturday evening. Cards, chat and dancing were enjoyed until a late hour. The guests were Joe Schneider and family, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Kidd and sons Homer and William, Miss Shelbourne, Vernon Larson, Mr. and Mrs. John Coleman, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Deward and family, Hassel and Edith Magee, Ralph, Frieda and Emma Aubrey, Mr. and Mrs. Bender and baby, Herman Rudolph, Geo. Lawson and Hazel and Ed. Ashby.

Latham Society

Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Van Nortwick gave a birthday party Saturday evening for the twins, Edna Myrel and John Earl. The affair was a complete surprise, the twins having planned to attend a down-town party. Games were played, after which elaborate refreshments were served. The house was decorated with fir boughs. About twenty young people were present.

Clara Kimball Young Makes Hit.

"The Common Law," with Clara Kimball Young in the leading role, was greeted last night by a crowded and appreciative house. The play is a moral one with a pleasing ending and was without question one of the biggest hits in motion pictures ever put on the screen here.

EASY METHOD OF MEMORIZING DIFFICULT NAMES OF FLOWERS

Mrs. Lincoln Taylor has recently prepared some verses to be used in connection with pictures of native flowers for providing pupils of the schools an easy way to memorize the names.

Children like to know the right names for things, because they naturally love the truth; but the Greek and Latin names for the flowers, which unfortunately are the right ones, are often cumbersome and hard to pronounce.

The Sentinel will publish a number of these rhymes, which may be of interest to others. The verse this week concerns one of the earliest of the spring flowers.

Syn-thy-ris Ro-tun-di-fo-li-a

Modest harbinger of spring
Blooming near the snows,
Aren't you afraid the frost
May nip your tiny nose?

Synthyris you are called.
Have you no English name?
Rotundifolia seems long
For such a little dame.

Beneath the stately conifers,
Wrapped warm in coat of fur,
You look so very "comfy"
We almost hear you purr.

Synthyris is a Greek word meaning together, a door, and refers to the valve of the seed vessel, which is closed.

Rotundifolia means round leaf.

The little pale purple clusters of the synthyris are often found in the woods as early as January.

C. E. Convention at Springfield

With "Speed Up" as their slogan and "Service" as their theme, the Lane County Christian Endeavorers are working hard to secure 350 delegates for the big county convention to be held at Springfield April 13, 14 and 15.

Chief among the features of the convention will be the plans for service classes, 15 two-minute speeches by 15 endeavorers, the big banquet Saturday evening, the singing led by Harold Humbert and the four big speeches by four big men.

Mr. Humbert will be assisted in the singing by a chorus of intermediates from Springfield and the Cottage Grove Christian Endeavor orchestra.

The regular round-trip rate of a fare and a third from any point in the county will be secured from the railroads.

COMPULSORY ARBITRATION IS FAVORED

University of Oregon Debaters Appear Here and Speak on Both Sides of Same Proposition.

In the debate here Friday night between the affirmative and negative teams of the University of Oregon upon the subject, "Resolved, that a system of compulsory arbitration should be applied to all industrial disputes directly affecting the public, where 100 or more men are involved," a popular vote was taken giving the decision to the affirmative side by a large majority.

The supporters of the affirmative took the position that present labor conditions are intolerable, that compulsory arbitration would be fair to both sides of the dispute and eminently fair to the third party, the general public, the one often the most concerned. They advocated the substitution of reason for force, maintaining that under present conditions the decision is to the more powerful of the disputants and the general public gets caught between the combatants.

The negative supporters admitted that conditions are intolerable but contended that compulsory arbitration would only make matters worse, that arbitrary awards would not settle strikes, that compulsory arbitration has never been successful where it has been tried and that the great host of unorganized labor, being without representatives, could not take advantage of such a system. They contended that no body of men should be given power to set up a standard of wages, of working hours, of living conditions and of social conditions for another body of men, while the affirmative supporters contended that it is already a recognized principle that the government can set up standards of rates, which the employer may charge, the standard of wage which he must pay and the conditions under which his employees may work, so that it is only fair that labor should be subjected to similar conditions.

Lewis C. Beebe and Walter Myers supported the affirmative and Earl Fleischmann and Nicholas Jaureguy the negative.

These men are the debaters who will represent Oregon in the Pacific coast conference against the University of Washington and Stanford university.

Resolutions of Sympathy

Whereas, our Heavenly Father on high, in his wisdom, has called to her eternal rest our beloved neighbor, Lenora B. Knowles, therefore,

Be it resolved, That the members of Emma Coburn camp, No. 3539, extend our most heartfelt sympathy to the husband and family in this hour of sorrow and commend them to the care and protection of an all-wise Father, and

Be it further resolved, That the charter be draped for a period of six months and a copy of these resolutions be sent the bereaved family, also be spread in full on the minutes of this lodge.
