

IMPORTANT to You

Read This List Our Prices for This Week

These Prices Are Possible Only by Our Having the Stock Bought at Old Prices

The Fair

Jar Rubbers, 10c kind, doz. 5c
Mason top, buy now, doz. 25c
Peroxide, 4-oz. size, 10c
Peroxide, 8-oz. size, 15c
Peroxide, 16-oz. size, 30c
Wire Clothes Pins, the 10c kind, per doz. 5c
Mail Boxes, each, 15c
Toilet Paper, 6 rolls, 25c
12-quart Dairy Pail, 45c
10-quart Enamel Pail, 59c
White Paper Napkins 100 20c or 1000 for $1.50
7 bars White Laundry soap for, 25c
Sunlight Cleanser, 5c
All sizes Enamel Dairy Pails from, 10c to 30c
60-in. Table Damask, yd., 48c
60-in. Table Damask, yd., 38c

Prepare for the time when the shoes you are wearing will have holes in the soles and have those repaired that you have laid aside. Dr. Goff, Shoe Chiropractor. apr12tf

L. R. Long, Mrs. Jean Mosby and Mrs. Lucy Holland motored to Eugene Sunday.
Hunting and fishing licenses in Oregon will cost more after May 21 than in the past. The new law, which was passed by the last legislature, raising the price of licenses from $1 to $1.50, will go into effect then.

Those who advertise in The Sentinel are deserving of your business because they tell you that they want it and name prices that should get it.

Mrs. Anna Hess, of Roseburg, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Miller.

Miss Enid Venech, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Venech, returned Sunday from a visit at Eugene.

You always get service—at Linch's garage. m8tf

D. J. Scholl, the optometrist, has been doing his bit by giving free eye examinations to the new recruits for Sixth company. The work has kept him pretty busy at times.

Captain Woods says that he is anxious to enlist a good cook for his soldier boys. He wants them to have the best.

Mrs. W. G. Beattie spent a couple days last week in Creswell.

John Spray and George Marksburg were among those in Eugene on business last Thursday.

Mrs. H. H. Fiester visited in Eugene last Thursday.

London-Black Butte Stage FREIGHT AND PASSENGERS

Makes regular daily trips between Cottage Grove and Black Butte. Leaves Woodson Bros' Garage, Cottage Grove at 7:00 a. m. Returning leaves Black Butte 12 m., London 1 p. m., arrives Cottage Grove 2:15 p. m.

All goods bought at our store delivered free along the line. Phone your order in. If we haven't what you want, we'll get it if it is made. EMERSON KEITHLEY, LONDON

Always ask for home-made bread. Be patriotic and at the same time get the best bread. m8tf

An 8-pound daughter was born last week to Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Roberts.

Arthur Ellidge, of Portland, who has joined the navy, visited during the past week with his parents.

Jesse Darling, of Lorane, shipped an Irish setter pup to Portland last week.

Mrs. Frances Gray visited in Eugene one day last week.

Mrs. Jane Johnson and daughter, of Grand Island, Nebr., have been guests the past week of Mrs. Johnson's niece, Mrs. James England.

Mrs. Ralph Dean is visiting her parents at Grants Pass.

Rev. David Waggoner, of Juneau, Alaska, who is on his way to attend the general assembly of the Presbyterian church of the United States at Dallas, Texas, visited over Sunday at the W. G. Beattie home and preached at the Presbyterian church Sunday evening.

Henry Krueger, of Butte, Mont., who, with his wife, had been visiting at the Ben Lurch home since the funeral of Mrs. Lurch, left for home last week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Hauser motored up from Eugene Thursday. Mrs. Hauser's mother, Mrs. Allie Hawkins, and the latter's grandson, Ameil, returned with them to spend the week.

J. E. Overholser has been in California this week on business.

Mrs. T. R. Saltzman and son left last week for Chico, Calif.

Mrs. Aggie Miller, of Roseburg, niece of Mrs. S. E. McKinney, of this city, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Binger Hermann, died at Portland last week following an operation.

Mrs. David Allison is here from Roseburg visiting relatives.

Miss Esther Paulsen, of Portland, is a guest at the home of her sister, Mrs. J. E. Arnold.

Those from out of the city who were here to attend the funeral of Ethel Blanche Sterling were Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Sterling, of Brownsville; Mr. and Mrs. Thad Sterling and daughter, of Lebanon; R. E. Warner, of Crawfordville; Mrs. Frank Watson, of Brownsville, and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Lyon, of Springfield.

Mrs. C. B. W. Clapp and daughter, Miss Margaret, of Chicago, are here visiting their son and brother, C. R. Clapp, and the Westenhavers.

Miss Blanche Johnson, of Portland, is here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Johnson.

The Cottage Hotel is doing its bit by furnishing a meeting place for the Honor Guard.

Miss Nellie Myers was up from Eugene to spend the week-end with her sister, Mrs. Elbert Smith.

Armand Wynne was in from Black Butte Thursday.

The Woolen Mills store has received a fresh coat of paint this week.

Petitions were circulated here last week to refer to the people the Rogue river fishing bill passed by the recent legislature.

Roy Knox was up from Albany Saturday visiting his mother, Mrs. Sarah Knox, who is quite ill.

J. V. Stewart was up from Jasper

Baker's bread. Best by test. m8tf

Lewis C. Beebe, a student in the university, received notice this week from army headquarters stating that his application for examination for appointment to a second lieutenant commission in the regular infantry has been accepted. Mr. Beebe will take the competitive examination July 23.

Miss Marjorie Shay returned Friday from Mariat, Oregon, where she had just completed a six months' term of school.

Jitney service day and night. Linch's garage. Always ready to serve. m8tf

Roseburg Review: Mrs. L. C. Currin, who had been visiting at Cottage Grove for a week or two, returned home last evening. She is staying with her daughter, Mrs. Robert Gile. * * * J. P. Wheeler, wife and children arrived here yesterday after visiting at Cottage Grove and Portland. Mr. Wheeler is connected with the Adventist church here and is well known in this section of the state.

O. W. Davis, of Bohemia, has collected the bounty on four bobcats.

Mrs. Walter Briggs and two sons were in from Saginaw for the circus.

Cash paid for hides, pelts, wool or mohair at Spray's.

Kandyland, which was closed for several weeks following the death of Mr. Hovess' son, has been reopened.

C. R. Nokes writes from his new station at Silverton, enclosing a year's subscription.

City Meat Market

GOVERNMENT INSPECTED
STEER BEEF, HAM, BACON AND LARD.

Highest Prices Paid for Poultry
Dressed Veal and Hogs

Mrs. C. Schrack, of Lorane, returned Friday from a visit at Sutherlin.

When you get insurance you wish to be sure that you have your policy in a company that will be able to pay any loss and that there will be no extra assessments of any kind. For that reason you should talk with Metcalf. Both fire and life policies. m3tf

Ben Lurch was in Eugene Friday on business.

Joe Young was in Eugene Friday on business.

Miss Mabel Wilson was in Eugene Friday.

Allen Kirk was in from Dorena Friday on business. He is looking hale and hearty despite his advanced years.

W. D. Heath writes from Pendleton, enclosing a year's subscription.

Charles Matthews has bought a Maxwell car.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Matthews were in Eugene Friday afternoon in their new car, bringing Miss Ada back with them to spend the week-end.

W. D. LaVine has dug a well on his place on Pacific highway, striking water at 12 feet.

Joe Wicks, of Star, has collected the bounty on two bob cats.

Mrs. J. R. Medley visited her daughter at Oakland during the past week.

W. L. Lundy, of Seattle, visited during the past week at the home of his sister, Mrs. E. B. Grable.

Mrs. E. B. Spray returned to her home at Roseburg Friday, after a visit with relatives in this vicinity.

J. J. White, employed at the Brown Lumber company's mill, sustained an injury to one of his hands Friday.

Mrs. Walkershaw and daughters, of Yonah, were here to attend the circus, visiting at the home of Mrs. Walkershaw's brother, Wm. Chestnut.

James Allen and family have moved here from Leona.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Cox, of Portland, visited relatives here this week.

Mrs. John McKibben arrived from Summit last week.

Mrs. Frances Gray visited in Eugene one day last week.

Mrs. Jane Johnson and daughter, of Grand Island, Nebr., have been guests the past week of Mrs. Johnson's niece, Mrs. James England.

Mrs. Ralph Dean is visiting her parents at Grants Pass.

Rev. David Waggoner, of Juneau, Alaska, who is on his way to attend the general assembly of the Presbyterian church of the United States at Dallas, Texas, visited over Sunday at the W. G. Beattie home and preached at the Presbyterian church Sunday evening.

Henry Krueger, of Butte, Mont., who, with his wife, had been visiting at the Ben Lurch home since the funeral of Mrs. Lurch, left for home last week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Hauser motored up from Eugene Thursday. Mrs. Hauser's mother, Mrs. Allie Hawkins, and the latter's grandson, Ameil, returned with them to spend the week.

J. E. Overholser has been in California this week on business.

Mrs. T. R. Saltzman and son left last week for Chico, Calif.

Mrs. Aggie Miller, of Roseburg, niece of Mrs. S. E. McKinney, of this city, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Binger Hermann, died at Portland last week following an operation.

Mrs. David Allison is here from Roseburg visiting relatives.

Miss Esther Paulsen, of Portland, is a guest at the home of her sister, Mrs. J. E. Arnold.

Those from out of the city who were here to attend the funeral of Ethel Blanche Sterling were Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Sterling, of Brownsville; Mr. and Mrs. Thad Sterling and daughter, of Lebanon; R. E. Warner, of Crawfordville; Mrs. Frank Watson, of Brownsville, and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Lyon, of Springfield.

Mrs. C. B. W. Clapp and daughter, Miss Margaret, of Chicago, are here visiting their son and brother, C. R. Clapp, and the Westenhavers.

Miss Blanche Johnson, of Portland, is here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Johnson.

The Cottage Hotel is doing its bit by furnishing a meeting place for the Honor Guard.

Miss Nellie Myers was up from Eugene to spend the week-end with her sister, Mrs. Elbert Smith.

Armand Wynne was in from Black Butte Thursday.

The Woolen Mills store has received a fresh coat of paint this week.

Petitions were circulated here last week to refer to the people the Rogue river fishing bill passed by the recent legislature.

Roy Knox was up from Albany Saturday visiting his mother, Mrs. Sarah Knox, who is quite ill.

J. V. Stewart was up from Jasper

Baker's bread. Best by test. m8tf

Lewis C. Beebe, a student in the university, received notice this week from army headquarters stating that his application for examination for appointment to a second lieutenant commission in the regular infantry has been accepted. Mr. Beebe will take the competitive examination July 23.

Miss Marjorie Shay returned Friday from Mariat, Oregon, where she had just completed a six months' term of school.

Jitney service day and night. Linch's garage. Always ready to serve. m8tf

Roseburg Review: Mrs. L. C. Currin, who had been visiting at Cottage Grove for a week or two, returned home last evening. She is staying with her daughter, Mrs. Robert Gile. * * * J. P. Wheeler, wife and children arrived here yesterday after visiting at Cottage Grove and Portland. Mr. Wheeler is connected with the Adventist church here and is well known in this section of the state.

O. W. Davis, of Bohemia, has collected the bounty on four bobcats.

Mrs. Walter Briggs and two sons were in from Saginaw for the circus.

Cash paid for hides, pelts, wool or mohair at Spray's.

Kandyland, which was closed for several weeks following the death of Mr. Hovess' son, has been reopened.

C. R. Nokes writes from his new station at Silverton, enclosing a year's subscription.

WE HAVE ON HAND A FINE LOT OF Bulk Garden Seeds
Also Cabbage and Tomatoe Plants
FINE SEED POTATOES

Dried Fruit at the Following Low Price

Italian Prunes, per pound, 10c
Petite Prunes, 3 pounds, 25c
Dried Peaches, per pound, 10c
Dried Apples, per pound, 10c

Store will close at 11 a. m. Friday, May 25. Traveling Men's Picnic. Come out and have a good time with us.

A. BRUND & Co.
PHONE 65

TALES OF THE TOWN

Mrs. J. S. Pitcher, of Alaska, who was here with her husband some months ago, has returned from California for a visit with relatives. Mr. Pitcher has returned to Alaska, but Mrs. Pitcher will spend the summer in Oregon and Washington.

An 8½ pound son was born yesterday to Dr. and Mrs. S. M. Wendt.

Paint your auto with Black Shine. Complete outfit and material to paint your car for $2.85, at The Wall Paper & Paint Store.

JITNEY SERVICE
DAY OR NIGHT
Phone Oregon Hotel—44
CHEVROLET CAR

J. A. Briggs, the Walker poultry man, was in the city yesterday on business.

Rev. D. A. MacLeod left last night for Dallas, Texas, as a commissioner to the general assembly of the Presbyterian church of the United States.

If you own a lot you can borrow the money to build, pay back same as rent and save money at the same time. I have loaned $2100.00 this month in Cottage Grove. Geo. H. Brinnard. a26tf

F. L. Hunter was in Eugene yesterday.

DO YOUR BIT

By the use of the proper implements you can raise bigger crops than ever before. See our FARM AND GARDEN TOOLS of all kinds

Wynne & Kime
HARDWARE

Miss Dora Hawkins returned Sunday from Portland, where she attended the wedding of her sister, Miss Verna.

Cottage Grove Chautauqu, June 3 to 8.

Roy Smith transacted business in Creswell Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Moody, of Eugene, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Leon DesLazars. Mr. Moody sang a tenor solo at the Methodist church.

Home-made bread is the best. m8tf

The Golden Rule Store

Ladies' Spring Coats and Silk Fiber Sport Sweaters OF THE LATEST MODELS

A full and complete line of the latest styles of ladies' footwear

POWELL & COMPANY
WHERE PRICES ARE RIGHT

Short's Grocery

The buying of groceries is one of the most trying duties of the housewife. She must buy them almost daily, she is often puzzled to select a variety, and she often wonders if everything she buys has been kept clean.

Buying here solves all these problems. Our goods are displayed in such a manner as to greatly aid in their selection, everything is kept where mice and animals can't get to it, and courteous clerks are always at your service.

Walk a Block and Save a Dime

Telephone 153

Watch For The "Purple Mask"

Arcade Theater
MAY 29
5c and 10c

The cheapest tires are the best—sold by Linch's garage. m8tf

A. A. Richmond returned Monday morning from Portland, where he accompanied Mrs. Richmond, who underwent an operation Saturday for appendicitis. She underwent the operation successfully and is well on the road to recovery. Little Ruth Griswold accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Richmond as far as Hubbard, where she visited her aunt, Eva Richmond, until Mr. Richmond's return.

The E. O. Elliott family has moved into the Zacharias house on Quincy avenue.

Cottage Grove Chautauqu, June 3 to 8.

Word has reached here that Mrs. W. H. Abrams, formerly of this city, has been married in New York to a girlhood sweetheart who had remained a bachelor.

A truck belonging to W. W. McFarland and driven by Horace Cochran, backed off the sidewalk into Ben Lurch's yard Tuesday afternoon. With a dozen or more men to push, it was gotten out without doing any damage to the yard or car. The reverse lever dropped and connected with the engine, causing the accident.

Disston-Champion Stage Line

Alex Lundberg, Proprietor
FREIGHTING
Saddle Horses and Packing to All Parts of the Camp
Phone 10F41

Baker's bread. Best by test. m8tf

Lewis C. Beebe, a student in the university, received notice this week from army headquarters stating that his application for examination for appointment to a second lieutenant commission in the regular infantry has been accepted. Mr. Beebe will take the competitive examination July 23.

Miss Marjorie Shay returned Friday from Mariat, Oregon, where she had just completed a six months' term of school.

Jitney service day and night. Linch's garage. Always ready to serve. m8tf

Roseburg Review: Mrs. L. C. Currin, who had been visiting at Cottage Grove for a week or two, returned home last evening. She is staying with her daughter, Mrs. Robert Gile. * * * J. P. Wheeler, wife and children arrived here yesterday after visiting at Cottage Grove and Portland. Mr. Wheeler is connected with the Adventist church here and is well known in this section of the state.

O. W. Davis, of Bohemia, has collected the bounty on four bobcats.

Mrs. Walter Briggs and two sons were in from Saginaw for the circus.

Cash paid for hides, pelts, wool or mohair at Spray's.

Kandyland, which was closed for several weeks following the death of Mr. Hovess' son, has been reopened.

C. R. Nokes writes from his new station at Silverton, enclosing a year's subscription.

Sunday visiting his wife, who is a guest at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Parker.

Miss Lena Wilson returned to Flavel Sunday, after a visit with her sister, Mrs. Mabel Lackey.

Miss Mabel Gerald and Miss Lucy Ely, teachers in the Eugene schools, were week-end guests of the Alfred Jury family.

Mrs. R. A. Millick returned to Dallas Sunday, after a visit with her mother, Mrs. Eli Cochran.

Mrs. H. H. Oleott returned Sunday from a visit at Canyonville. She was accompanied from Leona by Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Oleott.

Miss Nancy Whitsett was up from Eugene Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hedrick were in the city from Drain Saturday.

Mrs. C. A. Bartlett, Mrs. R. B. Porter and Mrs. L. S. Hill motored to Eugene Saturday.

Mrs. James Groom and daughter Blanche were in Eugene Saturday.

Alta King was in Eugene Saturday on business.

Mrs. F. C. England was in Eugene Saturday.

Frank and George Overholser left Saturday for Moscow, Idaho.

W. B. Finney has completed his work as deputy assessor.

Martin Foster, C. L. Frost and O. E. Crowe, of Lorane, were in Eugene Sunday.

Mrs. Joseph Walton left Saturday for Seattle to take medical treatment.

Mrs. R. L. Purdin was called to Ellensburg, Wash., Friday by the death of a brother.

Wm. Skidmore and Herald White are up from the University of Oregon.

Dr. Wm. Kuykendall was up from Eugene yesterday.

Ed. Brasher was brought in from London last night quite seriously ill. Emerson Keithley brought him in in his car.

Mrs. D. W. McKinney has done her bit by furnishing the Honor Guard with all the beans they will need for planting purposes.

Three new members have been added to the Honor Guard.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to extend our heartfelt thanks to all the kind friends who assisted us in caring for and laying away our father.

PHILIP JONES,
MRS. W. B. OSMON.

pd

Card of Thanks.

We wish to extend our heartfelt thanks to all the kind friends who assisted us in caring for and laying away our father.

PHILIP JONES,
MRS. W. B. OSMON.

pd

Card of Thanks.

We wish to extend our heartfelt thanks to all the kind friends who assisted us in caring for and laying away our father.

PHILIP JONES,
MRS. W. B. OSMON.

pd

Card of Thanks.

We wish to extend our heartfelt thanks to all the kind friends who assisted us in caring for and laying away our father.

PHILIP JONES,
MRS. W. B. OSMON.

pd

Card of Thanks.

We wish to extend our heartfelt thanks to all the kind friends who assisted us in caring for and laying away our father.

PHILIP JONES,
MRS. W. B. OSMON.

pd

Card of Thanks.

We wish to extend our heartfelt thanks to all the kind friends who assisted us in caring for and laying away our father.

PHILIP JONES,
MRS. W. B. OSMON.

pd