

Dinner Sets

JUST ARRIVED, IN

Fancy Decorations Gold Band and White

The last shipment we will be able to get this season. Prices on Dishes have advanced 30 per cent, and no more deliveries until August. Buy what you need now—we can save you money as long as we have the stock.

NEW GLASSWARE—SPLENDID ASSORTMENT, ALL AS LOW AS EVER—IF YOU BUY NOW

THE FAIR

TALES OF THE TOWN

Mrs. G. E. Longworth and daughter returned to their home in Eugene Sunday, after a visit with Mrs. Longworth's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Rogers.

David Alexander writes from Folsom, Calif., sending kind regards to Cottage Grove friends and enclosing a year's subscription.

Pupils of Mrs. Leon DesLarzes, vocalists, will give a public recital at the high school auditorium Tuesday evening, May 22. Admission free.

Miss Ora England has returned to Row river from Wendling, where she completed a term of school.

Mrs. T. Hunt, of Eugene, returned home Saturday, after a visit with the Dennis Slagle family.

Cottage Grove Chautauqua, June 3 to 8.

JITNEY SERVICE

DAY OR NIGHT

Phone Oregon Hotel—44
CHEVROLET CAR

Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Keithley were in from London Saturday to meet Mr. Keithley's aunt, Mrs. Hattie Keithley, of Long Beach, Calif.

Mrs. Sarah McCoy returned from Leona Saturday.

Go to the Bon Ton for ice cream and candies.

Mrs. C. C. Goodall, of Eugene, visited the past week with her sister, Mrs. Joe Schneider, who has been sick with the measles.

Mrs. J. R. Medley and daughter went to Portland Saturday.

Home-made bread is the best.

Mrs. Cornelia Drake and daughter, Miss Zena Wheeler, who were here to attend the Comer funeral, returned home Saturday.

DO YOUR BIT

By the use of the proper implements you can raise bigger crops than ever before. See our FARM AND GARDEN TOOLS of all kinds

Wynne & Kime

HARDWARE

Because her husband deserted her and left her without means of support, Mrs. Grace Van Boskirk seeks a divorce. She and John R. Van Boskirk were married in Ainsworth, Neb., September 24, 1898, and have two minor children, Donald, aged 18, and Ruth, aged 16, whose care and custody the mother seeks. Carlton E. Spencer is attorney for the plaintiff.

Spray's is now located in the former Lurch stand.

G. M. Marksbury was in Eugene Sunday, Monday and Tuesday.

Mrs. Sarah Thomas, of Beckwith, Calif., is visiting at the home of her uncle, Shelby Churchill.

Prepare for the time when the shoes you are wearing will have holes in the soles and have those repaired that you have laid aside. Dr. Goff, Shoe Chiropractor.

Floyd Churchill and family, of Coles Valley, Douglas county, have moved to Black Butte, where Mr. Churchill has employment in the mines.

Miss Blanch Groom completed her school at Anlauf last week. The closing program will be held Saturday of this week.

Those who advertise in The Sentinel are deserving of your business because they tell you that they want it and name prices that should get it.

Mrs. Dora Collins, of Springfield, visited this week at the home of her brother, Henry Damewood.

L. P. Day sustained a severe injury to one foot, upon which a rock fell while he was working at Black Butte.

You always get service—at Linch's garage.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hendricks, of Burns, Ore., are visiting at the home of Mr. Hendricks' mother, Mrs. Jane Emerson.

Mr. and Mrs. John Long and Mrs. Landon Kenney, of Portland, motored up Saturday and were guests until Tuesday at the A. W. Kime home. Mrs. Jack Callahan accompanied them and visited at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Johnson.

Always ask for home-made bread. Be patriotic and at the same time get the best bread.

Mrs. D. H. Hemenway is visiting her sister, Mrs. R. R. Giltner, at Portland.

L. L. Harrel's auto truck got mixed up in a collision this week resulting in considerable damage to one of the wheels.

In the old line of business at a new stand, Spray's, old Lurch stand, m17tf

Mrs. Jane Sherwood, of Los Angeles, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Groutt.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Bradford are moving here from Yoncalla.

Dr. R. McCargar was in Eugene Monday evening on business.

When you get insurance you wish to be sure that you have your policy in a company that will be able to pay any loss and that there will be no extra assessments of any kind. For that reason you should talk with Metcalf. Both fire and life policies.

Miss Grace McCauley, of Albany, spent the week end with Miss Esther Van Orsdal.

Chas. Cooley was in Curtin Monday on business.

Mrs. Hugh Currin, of Juneau, Alaska, is visiting at the home of Mr. Currin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pope Currin.

Soft drinks at the Bon Ton.

Mrs. G. F. Mills was in Eugene Monday.

G. F. Mills expects to leave the latter part of the week for the Southern Pacific hospital at San Francisco. He is able to get about quite a little now, although his back is far from well.

The cheapest tires are the best—sold by Linch's garage.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hemenway, of Lorane, were in Eugene Tuesday night.

Mrs. L. D. Harrington leaves Friday for an extended visit in eastern Oregon.

Little Ardys Heine was brought in from Silk Creek Sunday for the removal of a pin which she had swallowed.

Everybody should attend the recital of high class vocal music which will be given at the high school auditorium Tuesday, May 22, by the pupils of Mrs. Leon DesLarzes. Admission free.

Mrs. J. R. Nokes received word Saturday evening of the death of her sister, Mrs. Henry Applegate, of Princeton, Minn.

Shorty Linch and Joe Smith returned Tuesday from Portland with a Reo and a Studebaker Six.

Baker's bread. Best by test.

Mrs. W. D. LaVine sustained a re-dislocation of one of her hips Tuesday while working about the yard. The hip was first dislocated when she fell through a sidewalk, receiving damages of $250 from the city. Her name at that time was Stephens.

Finley Whippa has undergone an operation for appendicitis at the Cottage Grove hospital.

Cash paid for hides, pelts, wool or mohair at Spray's.

Sam Damewood was up from Azalea this week.

Bill Edwards has come in from Black Butte and expects to leave for the Bohemia district this week.

Mrs. J. H. Edwards returned to Corvallis yesterday, after a visit at the home of her brother, Virgil White.

Jitney service day and night. Linch's garage. Always ready to serve.

Leon DesLarzes is suffering from a sprained foot, the result of a fall from a bicycle.

Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Swengel returned the latter part of last week from Portland, where they were called by the illness and death of Mr. Swengel's mother.

London-Black Butte Stage

FREIGHT AND PASSENGERS

Makes regular daily trips between Cottage Grove and Black Butte. Leaves Woodson Bros' Garage, Cottage Grove at 7:00 a. m. Returning leaves Black Butte 12 m., London 1 p. m., arrives Cottage Grove 2:15 p. m.

All goods bought at our store delivered free along the line. Phone your order in. If we haven't what you want, we'll get it if it is made.

EMERSON KEITHLEY, LONDON

Mrs. Cornelia Chapin has returned from a three months' visit in Eugene. Cottage Grove Chautauqua, June 3 to 8. C. C. Westenhaver is in Seattle on business.

Miss Lola Wilson is recovering from an attack of lung trouble.

The Golden Rule Store

We call your attention this week to the fact that we carry

The Largest Stock of Shoes in the City

And the prices are right because they were bought right.

POWELL & COMPANY
WHERE PRICES ARE RIGHT

Mrs. J. S. Medley, of Eugene, visited here over Monday night.

Reduced prices on tires at Linch's garage.

Mrs. E. K. Turpin is visiting her son and family in Portland.

Oscar Vaughn, formerly employed in the electric light plant here, has gone to Black Butte to work in the plant there.

City Meat Market

GOVERNMENT INSPECTED
BEEF, HAM, BACON
AND LARD

The Highest Prices Paid for Poultry, Dressed Veal, Hogs

E. A. Schrepel has been here from Corvallis this week.

Zerolene, 43c at Linch's Garage.

The J. A. Dunne family left Tuesday for Payette, Idaho.

A number of grangers went from here to Eugene yesterday to be guests of the Eugene chamber of commerce for the day.

G. W. McFarland, master of Cottage Grove grange, was on the program.

Cottage Grove Chautauqua, June 3 to 8.

A special train to the strawberry carnival at Roseburg will pass through here at about 8 o'clock Saturday morning. Returning the train will leave Roseburg about 9 p. m. that evening.

R. E. Griswold is adding a sleeping porch to his residence on Adams avenue.

Gasoline 23c cash, at Linch's garage.

H. W. Libby, county engineer, was up from Eugene Monday on road business.

Mrs. A. R. Hansen and Mrs. E. R. Brooks and daughter Luella were in Eugene Monday.

Frank Snyder was in Eugene Monday. Stocking up ready for business again.

Spray's, in Lurch building.

Mrs. George Stopples was called to Randon Monday by the serious illness of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Alex Osburn, a former resident of Cottage Grove.

The property of the estate of Lena Lurch, deceased, is valued at $11,325, according to the inventory filed last week in probate court by George M. Hall, G. W. Len and W. P. Huff.

Are you interested in saving? Or have you a few hundred dollars to invest? I can make you better than 8 per cent. Safe as a bank. Geo. H. Brainard.

Mothers' Day was observed in the churches of the city Sunday, appropriate sermons being preached.

C. G. Rozine sold his home in the southern part of the city this week, M. S. Currier being the purchaser.

All the children of the J. W. Clark family have had the measles. Two have recovered and are now back in school, while two are still sick.

Sandwiches and coffee served at the Bon Ton.

The manual training department and domestic art department of the high school will give an exhibition in the Vench building between Fifth and Sixth streets on Main avenue Friday afternoon and all day Saturday. The work done during the past year will be on exhibition and the domestic science girls will give a demonstration of cooking during the exhibition.

A junk shop has been opened in the Jenks building near the depot.

Why pay more when you can get your gas and repairs cheaper at Linch's garage?

Miss Hester Bemis and Miss Carolyn Schelling were in Eugene Saturday.

Mrs. George Nichols was in Eugene Saturday.

W. B. Currier transacted business in Eugene Saturday.

Gasoline 23c cash, at Linch's garage.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Cox returned to Portland Saturday, after a visit at the home of Mr. Cox's sister, Mrs. Robert Cooley.

Lee Roy Woods, Jr., spent the week-end in Corvallis.

Mrs. Nellie Pitcher was in Eugene Saturday.

Mrs. A. Stocks and Mrs. S. B. Currin were in Eugene Saturday.

We have a number of satisfied borrowers in Cottage Grove. If you contemplate making some changes in your house, or building an addition, I can loan you the money. Pay back monthly.

Geo. H. Brainard.

William Landess is at Portland on jury duty.

J. W. Perkins, juvenile officer for Lane county, preached in the Methodist church Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Armstrong motored to Eugene Sunday evening.

Chas. Gettys returned Sunday from a visit at Florence.

Roscoe Hemenway was down from Portland Sunday visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Hemenway.

Miss Electa Hamilton was up from Eugene over Sunday.

John Armstrong left Sunday to take a position in a store at DuPont, Wash.

Miss Florence Hemenway, Miss Jane Reekie, Victor Chambers and Harvey Madden were up from the U. of O. for the week-end.

Sherman Godard returned Saturday from a business trip down the valley. He has sold 11 tile silos so far this season and will erect them during the summer. Last week he was engaged in construction work on a bank building at Toledo. He expects to leave on another trip today or tomorrow and will be accompanied by Mrs. Godard.

Howard Cox was in Eugene Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. David Sterling were in Eugene Saturday, taking their son Claud down for a medical examination.

Mrs. Ella Kennedy was in Eugene Saturday.

H. W. Mahon, of Portland, one of the operators of the West Coast properties, went into the mines Monday.

Frank Sears was in Eugene Friday.

Mrs. Anna J. Burkett, postmistress at Divide, was in Eugene last Thursday.

Mrs. George Hall visited in Eugene last week.

Clarence Spencer was up from Salem over Sunday. His wife returned with him.

B. K. Lawson was here from Round Prairie a few days of the past week, going to Eugene to take army examinations.

Mrs. S. E. Cochran went to Harrisburg Sunday to visit relatives.

Sigmond Cooper, of St. Helens, visited the past week with her sisters, Mrs. Esther Wallace and Mrs. Henry Hohl.

Mrs. Jane Larrabee returned to Portland Friday, after a visit with her niece, Mrs. Frank Woodruff.

Virgil Powell was in Eugene Friday.

ATTENTION MASONS! There will be a special communication of Cottage Grove lodge No. 5, A. F. & A. M., in Mason's Temple Saturday, May 19, 1917, at 7:45 p. m. Work in F. C. degree. Visiting brethren are cordially invited. By order of W. M. CHAS. ADAMS, Secretary.

D. J. SCHOLL

Optician, Optometrist

I am equipped with every facility for examining your eyes, and supplying the glasses to meet your individual requirements.

I am now also prepared with the latest machinery for grinding lenses.

Any lens matched, or broken lens replaced the same day received.

FRIENDLY ADVICE

Can Vegetables and Fruit

Fruit Jars and Jar Covers will be scarce this year and as the season advances much higher in price than they are now.

If you are going to need any Fruit Jars or Jar Covers this year get them now.

We have all sizes of Mason Jars. Get our prices. We expect to sell these cheap for the next thirty days, and will sell for cash only.

A. BRUND & Co.

PHONE 65

May 29

5c-10c

Arcade Theatre

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Hartley and Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Epperson were in from Saginaw Friday.

Miss Gladys Chandis and Clarence Hebele, students at Royal intermediate school, left for their homes in Roseburg Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Nixon and Mrs. Ernest Sears motored in from Saginaw Friday.

Mrs. J. V. Stewart returned to Jasper Friday, after an extended visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Parker.

Mrs. Sarah Damewood, of Glendale, has purchased the J. E. Morris place.

Mrs. George Byers has returned to her home in Grangeville, Idaho, after a visit with her mother and sister, Mrs. R. Todd and Mrs. Chas. Brown.

Mrs. M. C. Verastig, of Amity, visited last week with Mrs. Frank Woodruff.

Curtis Parker was in Portland during the past week on business.

Mabel Hanna, of Portland, is a guest of her grandmother, Mrs. S. E. McKinney.

Mrs. A. J. Grubb, of Yoncalla, has purchased the Mrs. Carrie Hefty property on the west side.

Mrs. Walter Kittridge, of Ashland, has been the guest the past week of her aunt, Mrs. Jas. Porter.

Mrs. Roy Griggs was in from Comstock last Thursday shopping and visiting relatives.

Pearl Ritchie went to Drain last Thursday.

Mrs. Ralph Dean returned last week

Enjoy a Pleasant Evening at BILLIARDS AND POOL

Eagle Cigar Store

Cigars, Tobacco, Candies, Nuts and Soft Drinks

Weinhard's 'Luxo' on Draught

GENTLEMEN COME IN AND SEE OUR STYLISH FOOTWEAR

Right up to the last tick of the clock are our styles in men's summer shoes, in black and tan leathers. Newest styles and cuts.

Our shoes fit your feet because we try them on you and know that they fit before we will sell them to you.

Our low shoes are high in quality, but low in price.

THE WOOLEN MILLS STORE

LEADIN CLOTHIERS

For Your Country's Sake

Uncle Sam expects Every American housewife to be food thrifty and avoid waste by buying foods that are nutritious, wholesome, yet economical. Cottage Grove housewives can save by buying at SHORT'S CASH GROCERY

FRUIT JARS

As every article in tin cans will be much higher this fall, you should put up lots of fruit and all kinds of vegetables. It would be wise to lay in your supply of fruit jars, caps and rubbers early, as they no doubt will be much higher.

ROY E. SHORT

WALK A BLOCK :: SAVE A DIME