Today it's a battle of wits—and brains win. Muscle and brawn don't count so much as they used to. The great question now is "What do you know?" GERMANS DEFEATED ON 20-MILE FRONT

Second Line of Defenses is Reached in Many Places by Allied Troops.

London.—British troops in conjunction with the French forces on their left attacked the German positions along a wide front north of the river Lys. The entente allied forces have advanced well beyond the shell shattered front line German trenches. In many places they have reached the second line defenses on a 20-mile front of attack, according to the reports.

Between Dixmude and Boesinghe the attackers reported they had secured the two first lines of trenches after having fought over the most difficult terrain imaginable.

The British again have captured La Bassaveille, which they recently relinquished to the Germans.

The British and French forces are facing a large concentration of German artillery and fresh troops which have been rushed up.

The entente allies have established complete air superiority.

The entente military officials say the morale of the Germans here is not up to the old standard.

RUSSIAN ARMY IN CRITICAL POSITION

London.—A dispatch to the Post from Petrograd referring to the Russian retreat in Galicia says it is conservatively estimated that more than two million Russian troops are steadily marching rearward. These consist the 11th and 7th armies with their reserves.

The 8th army, which is largely cavalry and not included in the foregoing figures, also is retreating, and its position, says the correspondent, is extremely critical. The Germans are straining every effort to capture it while following up the Eleventh and Seventh armies, and it looks as if the Eighth army might be caught in a bag.

A dispatch to the Times from the headquarters of the Russian army says the situation is more hopeful. Panics among the retreaters are suppressed ruthlessly. Three divisions of cavalry have taken positions across the whole front of retreat.

Deserters are shot and attempts to spread panic are suppressed by prompt executions.

GERMAN LOSSES ARE GREAT

Only Reserve Forces Are the 1918 Class of Youths.

With the French Armies in the Field.—Germany has used one third of her whole army since April 16 in fighting on the Aisne and Champagne fronts. The terrific losses inflicted upon this great force has been such that the enemy is now entirely without reserve resources of human material—except the 1918 class of youths.

Calculations showed since April 16 the Germans have used 71 divisions—approximately 1,955,000 men—on these two fronts of the French alone. This comprises at least one third of the total fighting forces at Hindenburg's disposal.

Raids have developed the fact that in many cases German regiments have been totally annihilated, their effectives being transferred to fill the ranks of other units decimated in the fierce fighting against the French.

Belgium Will Be Retained.

Copenhagen.—The Berlin Lokal Anzeiger, commenting on the recent proceedings in the British house of commons, says:

"Mr. Asquith's inquiry as to whether we were ready to restore Belgium's full freedom can only be meant as a rhetorical question, for Mr. Asquith must know that, aside from a handful of dreamers, nobody thinks of handing Belgium again to England and France."

Schooner Del Norte Wrecked on Reef.

San Francisco.—Passengers and crew of the coastwise steamer Del Norte had a narrow escape from death when the vessel struck a reef off Point Arenas, about 100 miles north of here, at 7 o'clock Sunday night. Reactions in the face of extreme difficulties were effected by the steamer Johan Poulsen. Hobbs, Wall & Co., owners of the Del Norte, announced that all on board the vessel were saved.

Deportations From Belgium Continue.

Havre.—Deportations of civilians from Mons, Belgium, continue, the German government sending away 129 men on June 26 and 29 on June 28. It is probable they will be made to work on the German front in France.

More Troops Are Landed in France.

An European Port.—Another American contingent has safely arrived and disembarked.

When a Bear "Charges."

"Bang!" rang out a shot. "Stat!" went a bullet against the rocks a hundred feet perhaps from the bear. "Bang!" in diminutive came the echo from the cliff's opposite. He had been keeping his rifle—he did not know it—at full cock, and, happening unconsciously to tighten his finger on the trigger, the weapon had responded as described. At that moment I could cheerfully have kicked him off the cliff and emptied five soft nosed .401 bullets into his carcass, but I contented myself with an expletive or two and turned my attention to the bear.

I saw a most interesting scene. The animal had been totally unaware of our presence, nor had he yet made us out. He had heard merely the report of the rifle and the shot of the bullet, and the echoes had confused him. For a few moments he stood perfectly still, then ran right in our direction for perhaps thirty yards and hid in a little patch of brush about the size of a small room. His behavior throws light upon many alleged "charges" made by bears whose only thought is escape.—Paul L. Harworth in Scribner's.

Railway Journeys of Long Ago.

It was only the adventurous who dared to face a railway journey in 1823. A writer of that time commenting on the proposed line to Woolwich, remarked, "We would as soon expect the people of Woolwich to suffer themselves to be fired off upon one of Congress's rockets as trust themselves to the mercy of such a machine going at such a rate." The third class carriage of those days was a thing of horror. "It had no roof and no seats," writes J. C. Wright. "Into this the passengers were packed and had to stand during the whole journey or if there was room to squat on the floor, exposed to the rain or sun and bombarded by sparks emitted from the engine. Second class passengers were kindly advised to provide themselves with gauze spectacles and to sit as far from the engine as possible."—London Spectator

Man More Liquid Than Solid.

Every fiber and every cell that enters into the formation of a living body is bathed in moisture, by which means alone these ultimate elements are kept alive and are enabled to carry out their duties. Even the bones, which appear to be the most solid of all, owe more than half their weight to the presence of fluid. That our bodies contain a large amount of fluid is proved in a striking manner by the blisters which rise after the infliction of a burn. Water, in fact, plays a very important part in the human anatomy, for it is through its agency that the vital processes of digestion, absorption and the excretion of waste products are carried out. To reduce the whole matter to figures and taking 154 pounds to be the total weight of an average full grown man, it is said that water alone accounts for 109 pounds of the whole.

Spain and the Mustache.

The home of the mustache is in Spain, and here is the history of its origin: After the Moors first invaded the country the Christian and Moslem population became so mixed that it was difficult to say which were Moors and which Spaniards. The Spaniards then hit upon a means by which they could at once distinguish their brethren. They did not shave their lips any longer, and they allowed a tuft of hair to grow below their under lips, so that their beards formed the rude outline of a cross. Thus the mustache became a symbol of liberty and fraternity.—Exchange.

You Must Be Earnest.

That which dominates the life, which is ever uppermost in the mind, generally comes somewhere near realization; but there is a great difference between a lukewarm desire and a red-hot purpose. It takes steam to drive the piston in the engine; warm water will never turn the wheels. The longings that fail of realization are usually just below the boiling point.—Orison Sweet Marden.

PRACTICAL HEALTH HINT.

- Overcoming Nervousness.
- To remedy the condition of nervousness, jumpiness at sudden noises and loss of sleep, carefully correct the diet by taking three good plain meals a day at regular hours and masticating all food well. One should be a good meat meal. A cold sponge down or tepid bath every morning before breakfast, followed by a brisk rubdown, will also help, with brisk outdoor exercise daily internally take a good tonic containing strychnia for the nerves and iron for the system generally. For supper try biscuits and a cup of cocoa made with cream or plenty of milk. Sleeplessness may generally be overcome by taking a warm bath just before going to bed.

THREE BIG ISSUES BEFORE CONGRESS

Senate Will Revise Revenue Bill to Raise About Two Billion Dollars.

Washington.—All three of the big issues before congress—food control, revenue and prohibition—are on the congressional calendar this week, with minor questions coming up in such numbers that the leaders are resigned to indefinite prolongation of the session.

The immediate work to be done on food and revenue legislation must be done in committee, but before the week is over the food conferees and the senate finance committee, revising the war tax bill, hope to report out their measures.

The senate finance committee reached a tentative agreement to revise the present $1,570,000,000 war tax bill so as to raise at least $1,943,000,000, the larger part of the increase to come from higher income taxes.

Members of the committee said it is possible the total of the bill before it gets to the senate will be $2,000,000,000. According to the present plan about $230,000,000 of the increase will be obtained through higher income tax rates—$70,000,000 from individuals and the rest from corporations. The committee figured on an increase in the normal rate on individuals from 2 to 5 per cent and on corporations to 6 per cent. The rest of the increase may be obtained by increasing the excess profits tax and by consumption taxes on sugar, tea, coffee and cocoa.

The senate committee will confine its work for the present to the present war tax bill and will leave to the house the task of raising the rest of the $7,000,000,000 the administration believes it must have to prosecute the war this year.

WAR INDUSTRIES BOARD IS CREATED

Washington.—Reorganization of the government's war purchasing system through creation of a war industries board to supervise buying and to decide priority of manufacture and shipment was announced by the Council of National Defense.

The new board will be the connecting link between the government and industry. It will be charged with the great responsibility for quantity production, will determine the question of creating or extending industries demanded by the war and will pass on prices to be paid by the government. Its membership is as follows:

Frank Scott, of Cleveland, O., chairman; Bernard M. Baruch, of New York, of the council's advisory commission; Hugh Frayne, of New York, representing labor; Robert S. Brookings, a St. Louis merchant; Robert S. Lovett, of the Union Pacific system; Lieutenant-Colonel Palmer E. Pierce, representing the army, and Rear Admiral Frank E. Fletcher, representing the navy.

"LEGION OF DEATH" HEROIC

Only 50 of 200 Russian Girls Who Went to Front Return.

London.—Women are fighting women on the battle front in the east. This news comes from Petrograd in dispatches which state that when Vera Botchkoreva's "Legion of Death" entered its first action last week, it found that German women were fighting side by side with the men in the hostile trenches. A number of these Amazons were captured.

Of the original 200 Russian women in the "Command of Death" only 50 are left. The commander, Mme. Botchkoreva, and her chief aide, Maria Skrdyloff, daughter of the former minister of marine, are both wounded. Twenty were killed, eight captured and the rest are wounded.

Potato Crop May Be Short.

Washington.—Warning that this year's potato crop might not reach the 452,000,000 bushels record production forecast for it because of poor seed, scanty use of fertilizer because of high prices, and possibility of diseased plants, was issued by Lou D. Sweet, the Colorado potato expert commandeered by the food administration.

Governor of Texas Indicted.

Austin, Texas.—Governor James M. Ferguson was indicted by the grand jury of this county for alleged misapplication of public funds. An indictment was also returned against Secretary of State Barlett charging misapplication of public funds; also against C. O. Austin, state commissioner of insurance and banking, for alleged violation of the state banking laws.

The amount of money to be raised by this special tax is more than the amount raised by the special school district tax in the year immediately preceding this, for the following reasons:

- 1st. To meet the running expenses of the school and to pay outstanding warrants consisting of about $4,000.00.
- 2nd. To pay $1,000.00 of the bonded indebtedness of the school district.
- 3rd. To meet increased expenses of the school district, such as the salary of an additional high school teacher, made necessary by increased attendance.
- 4th. A twenty per cent reduction of the value of the real estate of the school district was made after the levy last year, causing a deficit.

Dated this 25th day of July, 1917.
Attest:
WORTH HARVEY, District Clerk aug2-9-16
H. J. SHINN, Chairman Board of Directors.
