freshments served. About eighty-five

The Social Twelve club met last Thursday with Mrs. George Kerr. The afternoon was spent in sewing for the Red Cross. The club decided to raise a tobacco fund for the soldiers in France. Mrs. Helen Sibley was a guest of the club. Light refreshments were served.
The Constellation club meets at Ma-

A reception was held at the Methodist church Tuesday evening for the pastor and new members of the church.
A committee received the guests in the lower story of the church, supper being served in the banquet room at 6:30. S.
L. Mackin acted as toastmaster and called upon seven or eight of those present, as well as the pastor, Rev.
Joseph Knotts. After the supper a get-acquainted social hour was held in the upper floor of the church, and altogether the evening was a most pleasant one. Those in charge of the supper had planned on an attendance of about 75, but served some 120.
Mrs. Charles Adams entertained Saturday afternoon in honor of her house guest, Mrs. E. H. Mitchell, of Pasadena, Calif. The entertainment was of an informal and patriotic nature. Light refreshments were served, covers being

RED CROSS NOTES

The Military Relief society sews every Friday afternoon in room 7 at the high school building.
It does not seem to be clear to the average woman why we should save our wheat to be sent to our allies. This is simply because 50 per cent of a Frenchman's food in peace time consists of wheat bread. It is not easy to change the diet of a nation, even in normal times; it becomes almost impossible to change it when that nation is engaged in a life-and-death struggle. It certainly is no time then to try experiments with new flours. Hence it is that every woman should when she can, conserve wheat so that we may send it to the French who are fighting so valiantly.
Some have asked: "Why not send some of our corn abroad for corn bread?" The answer is, again, that the men and women abroad are not accustomed to corn meal. They do not understand its preparation; they regard it with distrust. It is, again, not the time, in the midst of the terrific war upon them, to attempt to teach these people across the sea American cookery.
The following new members have been added this week: Mrs. Nancy Parter and Mrs. Daisy Porter.
Contributions: Mrs. C. M. Shinn, 50c; Mrs. Gildersleve, 25c.
Twenty-four members were present Friday afternoon.

A shipment will be sent about October 20. Please bring in old linens, muslin, or any soft white material suitable for emergency bandages. They are in need of them right now in France. If you have an old table cloth or spread to donate, please send it in at once as we are in need of them at all times.
Tray cloths and napkins are made of the former; wash cloths are made of the latter, and the women take them home and crochet around the edges, the size being 10x10 inches.
No definite word has been received in regard to yarn. There seems to be a decided shortage. Each knitter listed will receive her portion just as soon as a shipment arrives.

HONOR GUARD NOTES.
Military drill is held every Tuesday at 7:30 p. m. at the armory, which is kindly donated by the trustees. Frank Woodruff is instructor.
Classes in third corps work are held every Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. at West Side garage, Earl Harkelroad being the instructor.
First corps classes are conducted by Mrs. Ray Trask at her residence every Thursday evening. As Mrs. Trask is a trained nurse, her experiences in first aid are very helpful to us and make the text of the book much more interesting.
Next Thursday we take up the second chapter in the book on practical band-aging. All members of the First corps are urged to attend.
Several of the girls have purchased Honor Guard pins which are well worth the price, one dollar. They are made in the form of an eagle resting over our national colors with the words "The Girls' National Honor Guard" printed upon them.
Want ads. are for those who want

Several heavy judgments were given in circuit court last week against John F. Spray, of this city.
The case is that of the Alliance Trust company against Spray and others. The Alliance Trust company is given a judgment in the sum of $8449.24 with interest at the rate of eight per cent per annum from September 25, 1917, and $850 attorney fee; the John Deere Plow company, which is named as one of the defendants, is given a judgment against him in the sum of $4074.43 with interest at the rate of eight per cent per annum from January 2, 1917, and Herbert Eakin, another defendant, is given a judgment against Spray in the sum of $8813.59 with interest at the same rate from September 25, 1917, and $250 attorney fee. An order of the court for the sale of the mortgaged property is also made.
Mr. Spray some time ago turned over property which will satisfy all these judgments.
