

Do You Drive a Car?

EYE DISCOMFORT may be aggravated by driving a car. The attempt to focus the eyes on objects which you are passing rapidly, irritates the already strained eyes. Don't give up driving—but HAVE YOUR EYES ATTENDED TO.

Society

If you know of a society item and do not inform the newspaper, it is your own fault if it is not printed.

The Emanon club gave a dance at Moose hall Saturday evening for the benefit of the army and navy Y. M. C. A., the net proceeds being $25. There was a large attendance and an enjoyable evening was spent.

Miss Arlie Langdon, of Cottage Grove, and B. G. Vinson, of Florence, were married Saturday at the parsonage of the Christian church in Eugene, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Grimm. Mr. Vinson is a dentist and will reside at Florence.

Emanon Club Report.

The receipts from the dance given by the Emanon club for the benefit of the Red Cross were $85. The expenses were $9.50, leaving a balance of $75.50, which was paid over to K. K. Mills, treasurer of the Red Cross.

The receipts from the dance given for the benefit of the Y. M. C. A. were $31.50 and the expenses $6.50, leaving a balance of $25, which has been paid into the Y. M. C. A. fund.

The Emanon club wishes to express thanks to all who in any way helped to make these dances successful, and especially to the Moose, who gave the hall free, and to those who furnished the music at practically no charge. Mr. DesLarzes, A. C. Spriggs, E. J. Howe, Claud Kime and Mervel Veatch would make no charge for their services or for the use of their instruments.

Roy N. Castor and Miss Effie C. Crowe were married November 7 at the home of Hugh Matthews at Lorane, Rev. Charles J. Searies officiating.

The Emanon club met last Thursday with Mrs. Van Allison, where a very pleasant afternoon was spent. Some of the members will take up Red Cross handwork while others will take up knitting. Tea was served and Mrs. Allison's mother, Mrs. Atkins, caused a great deal of merriment by telling the fortunes of the girls.

The M. P. G. club met Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Roy Short. Light refreshments were served. The club adopted a resolution to eliminate refreshments thereafter, as requested by the food administration. Mrs. O. O. Veatch, Mrs. E. S. Holderman, Mrs. Bert Trask and Mrs. G. M. Scott were guests of the club.

The Constellation club meets this afternoon at Masonic hall.

The Social Twelve club met last Thursday with Mrs. Geo. M. Hall. The club may suspend to allow members to take up Red Cross work. Light refreshments were served. On account of small attendance the communication from the food administration was not acted upon.

NOTICE

As I am now in the service of my country on a foreign soil and am unable to personally see those who are indebted to me, I take this means of asking all those who owe me to call at the earliest possible moment and settle their accounts in full or in part with Mrs. Frost, who will be found at my former office. The money is urgently needed and it is as important to me that those owing me answer this call as it was to my country that I answer its call. I trust none will take advantage of the fact that I am away in the service of their country to evade a just debt which they are able to pay. DR. C. E. FROST.

Subscription Rates.

After November 20, the following rates will apply upon subscriptions to The Sentinel:

One year, $1.75; six months, 90c; three months, 50c. One year, when paid in advance, or within 30 days after expiration, $1.50 (this special rate applies only upon subscriptions for full year).

The advanced rates are made absolutely necessary by the increased cost of producing a newspaper.

CHRISTMAS BOXES FOR THE SOLDIER BOYS IN EUROPE

By agreement between the war department, the postoffice department and the express companies, the commanding general, Hoboken, New Jersey, is designated as the forwarding agent for the re-routing and shipping of all express and mail matter, intended as Christmas presents, for ultimate delivery to the American expeditionary forces.

All boxes shipped by express should be limited to 20 pounds in weight, measure not more than two cubic feet in volume, be of wood, be well strapped, and should have a hinged or screw top to facilitate opening and inspecting. No food products, other than those enclosed in cans or glass jars, should be packed in any such shipments.

Boxes must be fully, correctly and legibly addressed and conspicuously marked "Christmas Box." The consignee's name, company, regiment or other organization, followed by the words "American Expeditionary Forces," should appear in the address, and this should be followed by "In care Commanding General, Hoboken, N. J." In the upper left corner the name and address of the sender must be placed. The contents of each package should be stated on the outside to clearly indicate the general nature of the contents.

In addition to the name and address of the sender and consignee, it is permissible to write or print on the box the occupation of the sender and inscriptions such as "Merry Christmas," "Please do not open until Christmas," "Happy New Year," "With best wishes," and the like may be placed on the box in such a manner as not to interfere

All boxes must be waybilled to Hoboken, N. J., as prepaid to Hoboken, N. J.

The government will undertake the transportation of these Christmas boxes from New York to the expeditionary forces abroad free of charge. No export license, invoices or other customs papers are required.

These boxes will be admitted to foreign countries free of duty.

The name and complete address of both the consignee and the sender should be written on a piece of paper or cardboard and enclosed within the box.

Thompson Found Guilty.

It took a jury only a short time Wednesday to find George Thompson, of Cottage Grove, guilty of a statutory crime alleged to have been committed upon the person of his 14-year-old niece last summer.

His attorneys asked 10 days in which to file a motion for a new trial and 60 days in which to appeal, both of which requests were granted. Thompson was remanded to the county jail to await sentence.
