WAITING FOR THE BOYS.

Mother, put the kettle on, the boys are on the way,
Comin' home from all about to spend Thanksgiving day.
One a judge, and one a doc, and one a milli naire,
But hungry for the old home kiss, and pl in old homely fare.
Baste the turkey once again, and crisp his golden brown,
Bet they can't get grub like that a-livin' down to town.
Cramb'y sassa and veg'tables—ain't they fine to see?
Our boys are bringing appetites home to you and me.
Our boys are bringin' other things, but dearest in our sight
Is love for us who keep the home, and faith and appetite!
Mother, put the kettle on, and have the water hot,
CHASE & SANBORN'S coffee is the stuff that hits the spot,
Gracious, ain't it splendid when you open up that tin,
Beats the scents of Araby! Lemme sniff ag'in.
Boys will smell it from the hill, and how they'll hurry up,
Shake from dad—a kiss from Ma, and then a brimming cup.

A Picture of the Home Folks Carries Warmth and Comfort to the Hearts of the Soldier Boys

In order that there may be no deterioration in our QUALITY PHOTOS during the absence of Mr. Armstrong at the fort, the work at the home studio is being handled by Mr. J. C. Stratford, a photographer of 30 years' experience and an artist in his line. Some excellent samples of his work are on display. You are assured of prompt service, courteous treatment and work unequalled anywhere.

With all the extra work from Fort Stevens we are going to be unusually busy this Christmas season and we urge you to make your appointments for Christmas Photos early. A present loses much of its sentimental value when it arrives late. Do your part and we will have your pictures out in plenty of time to reach your friends by Christmas.

Optometry Means Eye Service

WHERE QUALITY COUNTS MOST

In getting glasses most people are quick to notice the quality of materials used in the mountings. Yet the quality of the SERVICE they receive is of far more importance.

The first requisite of good service is a thorough examination, for without it you cannot get satisfactory glasses.

Our 28 years of sight testing experience is at your service.
