

TEA
Oolong, Spiderleg, Gunpowder, Ceylon
50c to $1 the pound

COFFEE
Flyer, Pearl Caricole, Special Blend, White House
25c to 45c the pound

Quality Guaranteed Phone 30

KERR & SILSBY

TALES OF THE TOWN

J. W. Crow, of Loran, underwent an operation Thursday at the Cottage Grove hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Marksoury were in Eugene Thursday.

Don't forget that by paying a full year's subscription in advance you get it at the old rate of $1.50. The new rate applies on delinquent accounts only. If A. J. Ness, an old-time friend of B. S. Swengel from Minnesota, visited here Thursday.

Shoes! Shoes! Shoes!
Men's Dress and Heavy Work Shoes—the kind that will keep your feet dry.

Children's Dress and School Shoes. Ladies' Shoes—the Latest Styles, all kinds in Dependable Makes, Direct from the Factory.

POWELL & HEMENWAY
THE GOLDEN RULE STORE

Christmas presents, wedding presents, in diamonds at H. C. Madsen's, n29tfc

C. R. Lawrence motored up from Comstock Thursday.

W. W. Powell, of Tangent, returned Thursday from visiting his daughter, Mrs. C. B. Hayes, of Wildwood.

I give special attention to the Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat, as well as General Surgery. Eyes tested and glasses fitted. Dr. Wendt, at Cottage Grove Hospital.

Wouldn't you like to have a car that can show 'em all where to head in at? BUCK SPEED ROADSTER in tip-top mechanical condition and will do 90 miles when the cops aren't looking. Well worth more than the price...$500 Woodson Brothers.

John Silsby and Andrew Brund were in Drain Friday.

For THANKSGIVING
ROASTERS
GLASS CASSEROLES AND COOKING DISHES
CARVING SETS AND BAKING DISHES

We have the only stock of glass cooking dishes in the city. Come in and see them even if only out of curiosity

Wynne & Kime

John Hatton, Mrs. C. L. Churchill and Mrs. L. Kirtley left Friday for San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hart have taken furnished rooms over the People's meat market.

Don't forget that by paying a full year's subscription in advance you get it at the old rate of $1.50. The new rate applies on delinquent accounts only. If Robert Hanna and family have moved into the John Hanna property on Cherry court, Mr. Hanna will again work for the Southern Pacific.

Mrs. L. B. Jordan is visiting her sister, Mrs. L. Nichols, and her cousin, Mrs. Sarah Knox.

The Commercial barn has been reopened under my management. Rates for stalls: 15c for one horse; 25c for two horses. Feed at different rates. A. P. Larson, n15decipd

George Bisby has purchased the Gettings property on Eighth street and has moved here from London.

Miss Minnie Schoenberger, who is staying with "Aunt" Jane Emerson, went to Springfield Friday.

Used cars can be bought of Woodson Brothers with small payment down.

Mrs. George Kerr and Mrs. Ray Trask were Eugene visitors Wednesday of last week.

Mrs. James Adams and Frank Adams, mother and brother of Charles Adams, arrived last week from Oakland, Calif.

Mrs. L. M. Thompson is quite ill at her home on south Second.

See E. C. Lockwood for real estate and fire insurance. o18tfc

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Cooper arrived last week from Grants Pass to take charge of the Cottage hotel.

Mrs. Thomas Holleran, mother of Mrs. C. J. Keen, left Tuesday night for her home at Bradford, Pa., going by the way of San Francisco.

The Sentinel is now ready to greet you at its new location on Main street between the Arcade theater and the Allison barber shop.

Mrs. Rena Kelly arrived last week from her home at Denver, Colo., and is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Baker.

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Swengel and Mrs. D. H. Hemenway motored to Eugene Monday.

Lots of good heating stoves from $2.20 up being sold at the Swengel Hardware.

Mrs. W. E. White, of San Francisco, has been visiting at the George McQueen home for several days. Mrs. White lived here in her girlhood days and was a schoolmate of Mrs. McQueen.

Mrs. George Blackwell arrived last week from Libby, Mont., and is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kelly.

The new 1918 model Maxwell now on display at the Henry Garage. She is a little "beauty." n27tfc

The F. W. Oliver family moved Saturday into the George Freeman house on Twelfth street.

Th. George Currin family, of Leona, spent the week-end with Mr. Currin's mother, Mrs. Rosa Currin.

Any use for a motor truck? If you have, take a good look at the following: STUDEBAKER combination truck; a good tire equipment and car in first-class condition; will soon pay for itself at...$750 Woodson Brothers.

Harlow Garetson and John Elms returned to San Diego, Calif., Sunday.

Mrs. O. W. Perry went to Oakland Sunday to spend Thanksgiving with her parents.

The Sentinel is now ready to greet you at its new location on Main street between the Arcade theater and the Allison barber shop.

Mrs. Edgar Willson left Saturday for San Francisco to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Smith.

Verne Johnson, of Loran, went to Colburg Saturday to spend Thanksgiving with friends.

Mrs. L. M. Harding and daughter Grace went to Creswell Sunday to spend Thanksgiving.

Diamond engagement rings, earrings, and diamond jewelry of every description at Madsen's. n29tfc

Mrs. C. A. Truer went to Portland Sunday to join her husband who is employed there.

Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Scott, who had been visiting Mrs. Scott's mother, Mrs. Kittie Grubb, have returned to their home at Leona.

Miss Eva Woodson spent the week-end with Miss Florence McFarland at the Cedars.

The City Meat Market pays cash for eggs.

Mrs. Joe T. Smith went to American Lake Saturday to spend Thanksgiving with her husband who is a member of the ambulance corps stationed there.

E. R. McMin and family, of Colburg, are visiting at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Callison.

Mrs. Martha Ross, mother of Mrs. Joseph Knotts, returned Saturday from Lafayette.

The Sentinel is now in its new location between the Arcade theater and the Allison barber shop.

Luther Myers went to Albany Saturday to visit relatives.

Miss Frances Hamblin is visiting with friends at Comstock for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Q. A. Young leave soon for Camas Valley, Marshfield, and other points in the hope of benefiting Mr. Young's health.

AT SCHOLL'S JEWELRY SALE

Emblem Pins for all lodges at 1/2 Price
RINGS—Solid Gold—200 of them at Big Discounts—1/4 and 1/2 off Reg. Price
All Other Jewelry at Big Sacrifices.
All Must Sell Before January 1, 1918.

Do not forget that I write fire insurance. I represent some of the strongest companies in America. I am still making loans on the installment plan; also loans payable in one or more years. Come in and talk with me about fire insurance or loans. I can save you money. Geo. H. Brainard. n24tfc

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Kidd leave soon for an extended visit in Missouri.

"Fat" Fuhrer was home from Fort Stevens during the past week.

SPRIGGS BROTHERS

Horseshoeing and Blacksmithing

Agents for
John Deere Farm Implements
Cor. Sixth St. and Washington Ave.

Beta Kelly is spending the Thanksgiving vacation with her sister, Mrs. Stanley Damswood, at Wildwood.

Spray now. The Swengel Hardware has lots of bluestone, dry lime, and lime-sulphur solution.

Miss Velma and Ora Fuller have gone to Marcola to spend Thanksgiving. They visited at Eugene en route.

Mrs. Judson Allen, Mrs. J. L. Queen and daughter, Harriet, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Benston, Miss Ethel Moody, Roy

WANTED-HEWED TIES AND TIE-MAKERS

We pay for making ties 18c per tie. We pay 30c per tie on switches at Walker, Saguana, Cottage Grove, Latham, Veatch Spur, Divide, Comstock, Curtin and Anlauf.

THE GROVE LUMBER COMPANY
Cottage Grove, Oregon

Taplin, Miss Bessie Nichols, Mrs. Kelly Moody, Miss Mary Neat, Hal Gibber and Miss Etta Scott were in from Saguana to spend an evening with Van Beatty, who was home from Fort Stevens visiting at the home of his uncle, J. L. Beatty.

If your subscription expired during the first week of November, it will be necessary to pay it next week in order to get the 25-cent reduction.

Robert Griffin, who has been confined to his bed for several months, remains about the same.

Don't Wear Glasses

before you have it proved to you that your troubles will be removed by their use.

I will explain fully why your eyes need glasses if you will have to have them.

My recommendations are my customers.

D. J. SCHOLL

Optometrist & Optician, Cottage Grove

Bert Trask has accepted a position handling the tank wagon for the Standard Oil company. Albert Helms will take Mr. Trask's place with Roy Short.

The Sentinel is now in its new location between the Arcade theater and the Allison barber shop.

Mrs. Maud LeRoy went to Portland Monday to bid goodbye to her son Wade, a member of Sixth company, who has been transferred to Florida to take the mechanical training for an auto truck chauffeur.

J. E. Young was in Eugene Tuesday on business.

J. F. Spray was in Eugene Monday on business.

Mrs. Jennie Warner, accompanied by her son Gerald, is here from Portland visiting with her daughter, Mrs. C. L. Churchill.

Show tickets have not advanced in price, but the government requires us to collect a tax on each admission. Arcade Theater. n28tfc

A. E. Clark and family came up from Anlauf yesterday to spend Thanksgiving here.

Al Cruson came up from Portland this week.

Roy Griggs was up from Comstock Tuesday.

1914 FORD, just overhauled and all worn parts replaced. You'll never get another bargain like it at...$300 Woodson Brothers.

Mrs. Edna Sullivan has returned to her home at Klamath Falls, after an extended visit with her mother, Mrs. S. E. Kerr, her sister, Mrs. G. B. Pitcher, and other relatives.

Wm. Haldeman is home from Fort Stevens on furlough. He has gained 20 pounds since going to the fort.

If your Ford cranks hard these cold mornings, try some real Pennsylvania motor oil from Swengel Hardware. It will surprise you.

Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Harris and son, of Eugene, visited at London Sunday.

Worth Harvey, G. M. Scott, R. S. Trask and Nelson Durham attended a Masonic meeting at Eugene Thursday evening.

Earl Lehman bought a second-hand Ford this week from Woodson Brothers.

As we have been so busy moving we have not had time to notify subscribers about their accounts. For that reason, anyone whose subscription expired any time after the 15th of October will be given the 25-cent reduction by paying this week.

The Standard Oil company, of Cottage Grove, bought one of those famous Ford runabout gas wagons from Woodson Brothers this week.

A. W. Wampole was up from Leona yesterday on business.

LaSalle Stewart, foreman at the logging camp for the Brown Lumber company, has received a commission for the forest service in France.

Dressmaking and plain sewing wanted. Prices reasonable. Your patronage solicited. Mrs. Kittie Grubb, north K and Ash ave. n22d13pd

W. V. Chapman, of Redfield, Wash., visited during the past week at the Kate Sears home.

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Hockett went to Eugene Monday. Mrs. Hockett continued on to Wendling to visit her sister, Mrs. Ava Stucky, while Mr. Hockett returned home.

A full line of records on hand at H. C. Madsen's. n15tfc

Mr. and Mrs. John Burns, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Moors, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Baker and daughter Lillian and Calvin Burns motored up from Springfield Sunday and visited friends here.

Mrs. Gladys Kime returned to Mabel Monday.

Notice—The government compels us to collect a war tax on every admission, and it became necessary for us to add this tax to each ticket sold after November 1. We have added nothing to the price of the ticket. We are simply collecting the war tax you must pay the government, and which we must collect, under penalty of the revenue law. Arcade Theater. n28tfc

Mr. and Mrs. Joe McKibben and family went to Portland Monday to visit Mrs. McKibben's sister, Mrs. Leo Stroud.

Mr. and Mrs. George J. Post, of Boise, Idaho, have come here for the winter to put their children in school.

Mill supplies; Swengel Hardware.

C. E. Jones has gone to Hornbrook, Calif., where he will take a position on the railroad with his brother-in-law, Charles Neal. Mrs. Jones will soon join him.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Powell went to Jefferson Monday to visit their daughter, Mrs. S. Overholser.

Finest line of diamonds in the city at H. C. Madsen's. n29tfc

Mrs. J. M. Marksberry went to Halley Monday to visit her daughter, Mrs. Muller.

Mr. and Mrs. William Ward came up from Anlauf Monday to visit friends.

Claude Silkwood and Minard Weeks arrived from Fort Stevens on furlough Monday.

Cooking apples for sale. W. H. Holliston, Creswell, Ore. n29c

F. L. Rasone, of the United States geological survey, was met at the station Monday by E. B. Crane, of Black Butte, and was taken there to study the quicksilver mines.

John Coffman, who is down from the Bohemia district, went to Eugene Monday.

If your subscription expired in October, it must be paid by Saturday in order to get the 25-cent reduction.

Mrs. Pet Sanford left yesterday for Portland to spend Thanksgiving with her children, Ken Sanford and Mrs. L. P. Bennett.

S. L. Godard, who is erecting a cheese factory at Tillamook, was home a few days this week, returning yesterday.

Now is the time to pick out a graphophone for a Christmas present. Call and see them at H. C. Madsen's. n15tfc

The almost famous five-dollar case of Bede & Grant vs. Crites has been reversed and remanded by the supreme court on a writ of review from the district court.

L. S. Hill returned yesterday from California. His family remained for a longer visit.

Spray will pay you $10 per ton for any kind of old iron or steel. Clean up and help lick the Kaiser. n28tfc

M. A. McKibben has returned from Divide, where he was doing some millwright work at the Grove Lumber company's mill, and is now working on the reconstruction of the Brown mill.

J. H. England, who was at Mabel a couple of weeks, has returned here and resumed his position as engineer at the electric light plant.

Mechanics' tools; Swengel Hardware.

James Sutherland, night clerk at the postoffice, has been on the sick list this week. Raymond Veatch has been filling the night job.

A. A. Richmond and family are down from Wildwood to spend Thanksgiving with Mrs. Richmond's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Durham.

If you want a bakery in your city, buy home-made bread. City Bakery's bread is the best. n20tfc

W. E. Burkett, of Divide, who only recently returned from an extended trip to California, was in the city yesterday.

Miss Kathleen Kem is home from the university spending the Thanksgiving vacation with her sister, Mrs. C. M. Scott.

C. H. Corson returned Tuesday from Eugene, where he was called by the strike of telephone workers.

Along the lines of conservation, don't forget that the soldier boys need shoe leather, and that having your shoes repaired will save leather for the fighters. Doe Goff, Shoe Chiropactor. n22tfc

E. C. Shay returned yesterday from Aberdeen, Wash., where he was employed in the shipyards.

Miss Lenora Habel was in Eugene Saturday.

Mrs. Elbert Smith visited in Eugene Saturday.

Mrs. L. M. Thompson, who has been quite ill for some time, went to Eugene Tuesday to visit the family of her brother, D. F. Burton.

Despite the War Tax, We Are Still Selling Tobacco at Old Price

DR. HESS' PANACEA
Is Guaranteed to Make Your Hens Fill the Egg Basket

A. Brund & Co. Phone 65

Lanterns at last year's prices still selling at Swengel's Hardware.

Lewis Booker is working at Umphrey & Mackin's during the absence of Dale Wyatt.

Mrs. W. A. Hemenway and three children left Tuesday for Pleasant Hill to spend Thanksgiving with Mrs. Hemenway's aunt, Mary Miller.

Look at the label on your paper, and don't forget that you get a reduction of 25 cents by paying your subscription within 30 days after expiration.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. McMahon, who have been visiting Mrs. McMahon's sister, Mrs. C. M. Callison, left Tuesday for their home at Tacoma.

Mrs. F. M. Harding returned to her home at Salem Tuesday, after an extended visit at the home of her brother and with friends.

Mrs. Mary Smith has returned to Medford, where her daughter, Miss Jessie, is attending the state normal school.

Possibly you don't like the idea of buying a new car until after you have learned to drive. How would one of these do for you to practice up on?

1912 FLANDERS 29; in fair condition; not a modern car, but has lots of service left and is going quick at...$200

1913 PATERSON; 30 h. p. Lots of power and lots of value at only...$210

E. M. F. 30; good tires and a bargain at...$250

Woodson Brothers.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Doolittle went to Harrisburg Tuesday to spend Thanksgiving with their daughter, Mrs. Elbert Hedges.

Dale Wyatt went to American Lake Tuesday to spend Thanksgiving with his brother Ernest, who is in the ambulance corps.

Miss Grace McCauley arrived Tuesday from Albany and is visiting with Miss Esther Van Orsdal.

Roof cement, just the stuff to use wet or dry, rain or shine, any quantity from Swengel Hardware.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Howard arrived Tuesday from Whitehall, Mont., and are visiting at the home of Mr. Howard's mother, Mrs. J. K. Barrett.

Mr. and Mrs. Emit Kirk, accompanied by Mr. Kirk's mother, have moved to Leona, where they will make their home.

Mrs. W. M. Southward has returned from a visit at Medford.

Edwin Redford went to Eugene Tuesday.

Miss Inez White and Prentice Callison went to Eugene Tuesday evening to spend Thanksgiving.

H. J. Shinn was in Eugene Tuesday.

Gottfried Graber was in Eugene on business Tuesday.

Mrs. Lydia E. Long is visiting friends in Eugene.

Worth Harvey, G. M. Scott, George Knowles and J. D. Jensen attended a meeting of the Masonic lodge at Creswell Tuesday evening and assisted in putting on the Master Mason degree.

Hornee Cochran arrived yesterday from Roseburg and will spend two weeks here, after which he will move his family to Roseburg.

The condition of Doc Adams, who was operated upon this week at the Cottage Grove hospital, remains serious.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. White have received word from their son, Lieutenant Noble White, of the Twenty-second company, Third P. T. R., that he will arrive here about December 7 for a two weeks' visit.

Mrs. J. W. Buckley and Mrs. J. L. Buckley were in Eugene Friday.

Miss Nellie Myers arrived from Eugene last evening to spend Thanksgiving with her sister, Mrs. Elbert Smith.

Mrs. Herbert Enkin and Mary Ellen Benson motored to Eugene yesterday.

An item last week spoke of Mrs. Harriett Eddy, when the name should have been Mrs. Merritt Eddy.

H. A. Miller was at Leona Thursday doing some work for the Leona Mills.

Mrs. B. S. Swengel is suffering with a badly injured finger, which she struck with a sharp ax while splitting wood. The member was nearly severed from her hand.

Mrs. Fannie Witte returned Sunday to her home at Elkhead, after a visit with her mother, Mrs. S. E. McKinney.

A Thanksgiving program and box social was given at The Cedars Saturday evening. The sale of boxes netted $5.95.

L. M. Powell has purchased a part of the Harding ranch in Delight Valley.

WOOD WANTED!

IN EXCHANGE
ON SUBSCRIPTION
OR PRINTING

Cottage Grove Sentinel

He will erect a residence at once.

Armand Wynne was in from Black Butte Saturday.

Bird N. Hawley, second lieutenant in the regular army, visited his many relatives here last week while on his way south.

The Sentinel receives inquiries every week from prospective settlers who wish copies of the paper. If you wish to sell your land your ad. should be in The Sentinel, where prospective settlers will see it.

Mrs. F. M. Harding, of Salem, a former resident, is making an extended visit with her brother, W. A. King.

P. F. Mescher, the Carlin mill man, was in the city Monday on business.

All the teachers of this section are attending institute at Eugene this week.

Mrs. S. L. Godard and children motored to Eugene Monday.

The merchants who advertise make it possible for you to have a good newspaper, and for that reason alone they deserve your consideration.

Wanted.

a young man 15 to 18 to learn the optical business. Inquire Sherman W. Moody, Eugene, Oregon. n29tfc

CITY MEAT MARKET

Government Inspected
BEEF, HAM, BACON AND LARD

PHONE 89 FREE DELIVERY

A Picture of the Home Folks Carries Warmth and Comfort to the Hearts of the Soldier Boys

In order that there may be no deterioration in our QUALITY PHOTOS during the absence of Mr. Armstrong at the fort, the work at the home studio is being handled by Mr. J. C. Stratford, a photographer of 30 years' experience and an artist in his line. Some excellent samples of his work are on display. You are assured of prompt service, courteous treatment and work unequal