HONOR GUARD NOTES.

All girls who have chosen aid to the Red Cross are enlisted in corps 2, which comprises home work, such as sewing, knitting, social service, care of sick and needy, etc. All members of this corps who wish to take up knitting may do so under the direction of local Red Cross. Yarn will be furnished. Sweaters are the main product at present.

Some time ago Ruth Jorgenson, Tryta Martin and Lela Ferguson were appointed as a membership committee. Through their efforts and with the aid of other Honor Guard girls we have been able to increase our membership 25 per cent. Let's all work together, girls, beginning with the new year, and bring in new members daily.

At a recent business meeting C. J. Kem was elected a member of the advisory board.

Once more we say, girls, pay up your delinquent dues. Do this by December 31, so we can start the New Year with a clean slate. As mentioned before, all members who fail to pay can be and probably will be, suspended.

Bills are already posted for a New Year's dance for the benefit of the Honor Guard. Everybody welcome. Good music and a good time assured.

We have received the magazine of the Girls' National Honor Guard of Oregon. Bound attractively in gray, with many departments such as social service, Red Cross, personals, reports of various guards, messages from our national president, Miss Theodora Booth, from our state manager, Miss Lucile Danforth, whom many of us had the delightful privilege of meeting recently, and from the governor of Oregon, are certainly proud of it. We wish

OUR customers made our Christmas a merry one by the unusual business we enjoyed, and we trust that all, whether our customers or not, are enjoying a merry and happy holiday season. To one and all we extend wishes for a prosperous New Year
