NAIL THE FLAG TO THE PLOW.

Nail the flag to the plow—
The country needs grain
While the sailor boys guard
The tracks of the main.
God gave you the fields
And the sun with its light;
Then double their yields
While the sailor boys fight.

Nail the flag to the plow—
The soldiers must eat
While defending the trenches
Or suffer defeat.
You can help the brave soldier
At this time of his need
By increasing your acres
And planting more seed.

Nail the flag to the plow—
Your children and wife
Must be saved from starvation
While the world is in strife.
Your duty is plain;
Your mission is grand;
Each man is a hero
Who's tilling the land.

You say you're too old
To fight with a gun;
Then work in the fields
Till the setting of sun
And show to the world
By the sweat on your brow
That you're serving your country
With a flag on your plow.—Selected.

WILL YOUR NAME BE THERE?

When the story of the war is written and it develops that Uncle Sam was because the boys in the trenches were backed to the last ditch by the folks at home, will your name be on the list of those who came across?

When it is told that Uncle Sam won the war because the folks at home bought liberty bonds and thrift stamps and gave the use of their money for the purchase of shells and ammunition, will your name be found on the honor roll?

When the boys who come home tell of how, when sick and wounded, they were tenderly cared for by the Red Cross, will your name be found among those who gave what they could?

When the boys who went "over the top" come home to tell of the comforts given them by the Y. M. C. A., will your name be found on the roll of those who gave their support to this great institution?

When the boys who come back tell of the comfort given them by Red Cross sweaters, mufflers and socks, and of how their wounds were stopped and bandaged with dressings made by patriotic Red Cross women, will your name be among those who gave of their time as much as they could?

When the war is won, will you feel that you have done your duty as well as the boys in the trenches did theirs?

When the roll is called of those who gave of their money and time, will your name be there?

Are you satisfied with the manner in which you are backing the boys who are fighting for you?

DOMINATING THE FIELD.

Politicians and wise ones are beginning to realize that within a week's time Gus C. Moser has assumed a commanding position as a candidate for the republican nomination for governor.

It had been previously acknowledged that he would carry Multnomah county by a plurality of 7,000 to 10,000 and now his bold defiance of the paving trust has won him thousands of votes throughout the state that he could not otherwise have hoped to get.

People in Lane county, for example, are beginning to believe that the state is not getting a square deal in the expenditure of the six-million-dollar bond issue and that Lane county, in particular, is being discriminated against.

Moser's demand that the promises made the people be carried out or hard-surfacing stopped, should carry Lane county for him by a handsome plurality. His demand for a dollar's worth of paving for every dollar spent should carry for him everyone in the many counties that voted against the bonds, and already Moser is receiving encouragement from many road boosters in counties which voted in favor of the bonds but are dissatisfied with the manner in which the money has been spent.

Moser's declaration has served to place him upon a pinnacle while at the same time putting the other candidates in a whole.

Withycombe will be forced to defend the actions of his appointees on the highway commission, and by so doing he will lose the farmer vote which nominated him four years ago and which already was slipping from him.

Moser has grabbed the most troubling, pulsating issue there is to be grabbed and Oleott, who would be expected, as a West candidate, to land on the paving trust and other of the interests, will be left without an issue or be put in the embarrassing position of trying to steal Moser's thunder.

Anderson, the "dry" candidate, would make a first-class governor, but prohibition is now a dead issue, and it seems as if his candidacy would help, rather than hurt, the Moser candidacy.

The contest at this moment seems to be between Moser and Oleott, and when it is learned that the election of Oleott means that Geo. Chamberlain will resign to take a federal job and that Oleott will appoint West to the senatorship, his candidacy will flatten out.

While many changes in the situation are possible between now and the May primaries, it is certain that at the present moment Moser dominates the field.

There are a lot of things to be righted in the social and political world, and every candidate thinks he is the man ordained by God to do the job.

When a political party is "in" too long it gets found out.

A person can't expect to collect his thoughts unless he has some out.

There is only one thing lower than a nonentity—that's an ex-vice-president.

The man who doesn't collect his bills is about as bad as the one who doesn't pay his bills—and both are usually found in the same person.

This is the day especially set aside for doing that good deed you have been putting off so long.

HONOR GUARD NOTES.

New members this week are Pearl Whiteley and Florence Sylvester.

Our Uncle Sam cries o'er the land,
"O, who will lend a helping hand
Toward the nation in times so hard;
The answer comes back, 'The Honor Guard.'"
From Elgin, Ore.

A number of young people met one afternoon this week and picked over the Honor Guard beans at the O. L. Nichols home. A jolly good time was enjoyed and considerable work was accomplished. The party consisted of Miss Juanita Short, Martha and Thelma Wilkinson, Ruth Phelps, Lela Ferguson, Belle Burkholder, Mrs. Lee Tennis, and Francis Laeey.

A very successful dance was given by the Honor Guard New Year's eve. Credit for this is due to Miss Ruth Jorgenson, chairman of the committee, and her efficient helpers, Hildred Hall, Myrtle Swanson, Susie Witherox and Trysta Martin. We wish also to thank Miss Mabel McFarland who, although not an Honor Guard, very kindly assisted us in taking tickets. Misses Stella Coffman and Muriel Shay presided in a capable manner at the punch booth.

The Honor Guard will lend their aid to the Affiliated Societies for War Relief, which organization includes all young people, both girls and boys, of Cottage Grove. Saturday, January 19, we will conduct an old clothes drive. All old clothes will be forwarded to Seattle to be sent to war sufferers in Armenia. Collect all your old clothing, still fit for use, and a committee will visit you Saturday to obtain same.

The A. S. F. W. R. will give a cafeteria supper Saturday, January 19, from 5 to 8 p. m., at K. of P. hall on Main street. An entertaining program will be given after the supper. Everybody welcome. Your money's worth guaranteed. Misses Juanita Short, Thelma Wilkinson, Ruth Phelps, Fern Holcomb, Esther Jorgenson, Ruth Jorgenson and Alice Garetson comprise the Honor Guard committee which will assist in conducting the supper and entertainment.

The list of Red Cross members is printed from a list furnished the printers by the campaign committee, and the correction of errors should be made through the campaign committee. The members of the committee have given freely of their time and have endeavored to give a correct list for publication, but mistakes are almost unavoidable when work of this sort is conducted voluntarily by those who must set aside their regular daily duties in order to give their services to their country. If any errors are discovered they are thus explained and will be gladly corrected if called to the attention of the committee. The Sentinel offers its space freely for the correction of any errors.

Italian Prune Trees.
In all grades and a complete line of fruit, nut and ornamental trees, shrubs, roses, etc., for this season's planting. The present outlook insures a continuation of the high prices paid for prunes and all fruit products of the past year. Over one and a half million pounds of northwest prunes sold to the government in one order. What would bring you better results, and at the same time aid in the food problem, than an orchard planted on suitable ground and well cared for? # GET GLASSES OR SCOWL

A permanent scowl and lack of luster to the eyes is certainly more disfiguring than any kind of glasses. Yet some people who are suffering from eyestrain put off wearing glasses longer than they should for their own good.

Meanwhile the scowl grows deeper. Our 28 years' experience at diagnosing eyestrain is at your service. SAVE YOUR EYES.
