Caroline (Coop) Shultz 1926-2015

Caroline Coop Shultz of Creswell, Oregon, a descendent of one of Oregon's pioneer families from 1853, died Feb. 19, 2015. She was 88.

She was born Sept. 13, 1926 in Tillamook, Ore. She grew up in Cottage Grove and worked in her father's foundry making cores while attending Cottage Grove High School.

She went off to Graceland College in Lamoni, Iowa. After a year of college she went back to work at the foundry. There she met Lowell Shultz and they married in Salem, Ore. on Aug. 31, 1947. They settled in Cottage Grove, where Lowell was working at a blacksmith shop. They purchased their first house in Springfield on Laura Street, where they raised four children: Marilyn, Dan, Lloyd and Chris to adulthood. They purchased property between Pleasant Hill and Creswell, where they farmed, built a home and then retired.

Caroline worked at the cannery in Eugene for 27 years and was a member of the Teamsters. Caroline was very active in the VPN Auxiliary in Creswell and enjoyed attending the Community of Christ Church in Cottage Grove.

Sister Nora Treadwell, husband Lowell Shultz, children Sarah and Dan Shultz and Marilyn Simonsen preceded her in death. Caroline is survived by her brothers Vern, Duane and Dale Coop, son Lloyd, daughter Chris Lasley, grandchildren Doug and Stan Simonsen, Melissa Fery, Carmie Melie, Lehl and Joe Shultz, Taylor Eden Treadwell, Erica Lasley, Katie Amberg, and 12 great-grandchildren along with generations of nieces and nephews.

Services were held at Anderson's Funeral home 320 N. 6th, Springfield, Ore.

Happy 80th Birthday WILL PARRISH

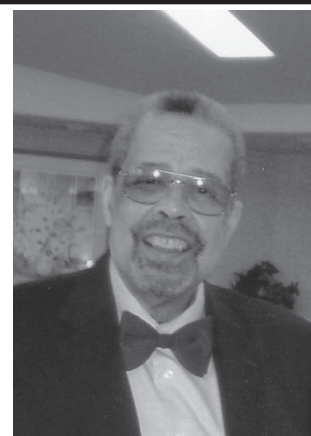

The most awesome husband, father, grandfather, great-grandfather and friend we could ever have.

Love,
Janice, Linda, Denny,
Christine & Kyle
