IN MEMORIAM

Mary Shirley
1929-2015

Mary Shirley, 85 of Drain, Oregon passed away April 8, 2015.

She was born Nov. 15, 1929, in Coeur d' Alene, Idaho to Jack and Florence (Langtree) O'Brien.

Mary was a loving wife, mother, grandmother and great-grandmother. There was nothing that made her prouder than caring for her family. She enjoyed camping, hunting, gardening, cooking and dancing. She was full of joy and life and loved being around family and friends.

Mary married James "Bus" Shirley April 10, 1982, in Reno, Nevada.

She is survived by son William (Nadia) Harroun; stepson Thomas "Tommy" (Debbie) Shirley; daughter Marci Fairchild; daughter Genene "Gigi" (Edie) Johnson; sister Lotus (Mark) Kuk; seven grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by a grandson, Ian Guinto.

A Celebration of Life will held at 11 a.m. on Monday, April 13, 2015, at Smith-Lund-Mills Funeral Chapel in Cottage Grove. Memorial contributions can be made to Signature Hospice, 135 Silver Lane, Suite 200 in Eugene, OR 97404-2215.

2015 of COPD. He was born Feb. 28, 1950 in Pittsburg, Calif. to Walter and Peggy Swicegood who preceded him in death.

Bob graduated from Liberty Union High School in Brentwood, Calif. June 1967. He served in the Army during the Vietnam War.

Music was a large part of Bob's life. He was happiest when playing his electric violin and singing with his fellow musicians in his favorite taverns.

He is survived by his devoted and loving special friend Susan Klein and sisters Joyce Zamora (Ben) of Antioch, Calif., Etta Sanchez (Dennis) of Brentwood, Calif. and Joan Hoehn (Keith) of Fall Creek, Ore. A sister Monte Westbrook (Jack) of Cottage Grove, Ore. preceded him in death.

A celebration of life will be held April 19, 2015 at 2 p.m. at Jojo's (formerly Good Fellows), 14th and Main St., Springfield.

Cleta Earline Moore
1934-2015

Arrangements under the care of Smith-Lund-Mills Funeral Chapel, 123 S. 7th St., Cottage Grove.

Larry Neil Heater
June 5, 1940-Apr. 3, 2015

Larry Neil Heater, of Creswell, passed away at home on April 3, 2015, of complications of Alzheimer's. He was 74.

He was born on June 5, 1940 in Portland to Clyde and Jean (Brush) Heater. He was the eldest of five children. The family lived in Sherwood, Ore. before moving to Creswell in 1950, when Larry was in fifth grade.

He graduated from Creswell High School in 1958, and married his high school sweetheart, Karen Simmons, on June 7, 1959 in Creswell. Their first date was on Christmas Eve of their eighth-grade year, and they had dated through high school.

The couple moved to their home on Hidden Valley Ranch, east of Creswell, in November of 1959, where they raised their two sons.

Larry began his longtime real estate career at Grove Realty in Cottage Grove in the 1970s, working there for several years before moving on to Countryman Realty in Eugene, where he and Jerry Schwewe became partners and great friends. Larry worked there for many years, earning back-to-back Salesman of the Year awards in 1981 and 1982 for the highest volume of residential sales and listings sold. He then purchased H.N. Traxler's Realty in Creswell, where he worked as a real estate broker, once earning Creswell Chamber of Commerce's Business of the Year Award. He retired in June 2010.

Larry enjoyed gardening, fishing, spending time at his family vacation home on Siltcoos Lake and traveling with Karen around the U.S. and to Australia and Tasmania. But most of all, he loved being at home with his family and his animals, spending time with his grandchildren and attending their activities and events.

He was a longtime member of the Creswell Presbyterian Church, where he had been an elder, and served on the Creswell Cemetery Board.

Family and friends will remember him as friendly and funny, frequently giving his children and grandchildren "knuckle sandwiches" and playing other jokes. He was able to easily put people at ease, had beautiful blue eyes that sparkled and was loved by a lot of people.

Larry is survived by his wife of nearly 56 years, Karen Heater of Creswell; two sons: Ron Heater (and his wife, Kathy) and Jeff Heater (and his wife, Sharon), all of Creswell; five grandchildren: Brandon, Elise, Nick, Gabe and Lauren; one brother, Don Heater of Australia; and three sisters: Judy Schroeder of Baker City, Ore., Mary Ellen Wadds of Australia and Bonnie Clugston of Unity, Ore.

He is also survived by numerous aunts and uncles, nieces, nephews and cousins, including cousin Jerry Lynn McDaniel, who helped with care giving during Larry's illness.

The family is also grateful to Cascade Hospice and caregiver Lanae Craig.

A Memorial Service will be held at 2 p.m. on Sunday, April 19 at Creswell Presbyterian Church. A reception and potluck will follow in the church's Fellowship Hall. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to Creswell Presbyterian Church, 75 S. 4th Street, Creswell, OR. 97426. Arrangements entrusted to Andreason's Cremation & Burial Services of Springfield.

Glenn Edward Robertson

Glenn Edward Robertson, 55, passed away Monday, April 6, 2015 in Poway, Calif. He grew up in Cottage Grove and graduated from Cottage Grove High School. He joined the Navy and lived in Long Beach, San Diego and finally settled in Poway with his family: wife, Valerie and children, Erica and Devin. He was in the Navy for 20 years. He retired and went to work for a company that made accurate security locks. He developed diabetes and suffered for years. A mass is being held at his Catholic Church on April 14 in Poway, Calif. He is survived by his wife, Valerie, his daughter, Erica and son, Devin, all of Poway, his parents, Glenn and Dianne Robertson of Cottage Grove, his sister, April M. Fletcher and niece Jasmine L. Fletcher and brother, Michael S. Robertson and his wife, Wendy, of Dexter and their children, Michael and Jacque.

He was greatly loved and will be greatly missed.

Cathleen Carlson Lambert
1953-2015

Cathy (Cathleen) Carlson Lambert passed away on April 6, 2015. She was born June 16, 1953 in Eureka, California to Norman Carr and Maxine (Woody) Carr. She lived in Eureka until age 15 when she moved to Cottage Grove, Oregon. She married John Carlson and had three sons: Brad, Chad and Chotu Carlson. Chad died at age 2 1/2 years of age on April 6, 1977, 38 years to the day of his mother's death. Cathy's heart never healed from the loss of Chad, but they are together forever now.

Cathy was a professional photographer and a teacher of special needs children in Roseburg, Oregon. She also loved being a partner, mother, grandmother, sister, aunt and friend to all that knew her. Cathy loved to brake for all garage sales, ride motorcycles and travel. She was an excellent interior decorator, produced beautiful stained glass and was a wonderful cook!

Cathy met Jerry Lambert nine years ago and they became soul mates and loved each other very much. Cathy was tough and survived a liver transplant and tried her very best to be happy and healthy. The family would like to thank Jerry for all his love and support to Cathy these last years. Cathy adored her children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Her dogs always had a special place in her heart too.

Cathy was survived by her soul mate, Jerry Lambert, two sons, Brad Carlson and wife, Debbie, and Chotu Carlson, two sisters, Christine Woody and Jackie Saunderson, a brother, Norman Carr and Father Joe Parker, two granddaughters, Shea and Jordan, and great-grandchildren, Kylan and Wesley and soon-to-be Jaylee.

She was preceded in death by her son, Chad Carlson.

There will be a Celebration of Life for Cathy on Saturday, April 18, 2015 at 1 p.m. at the Elk's Lodge in Cottage Grove. It will be a potluck and we ask you to bring your favorite dish and memories of Cathy to share.

Private interment will be held at a later date at Fir Grove Cemetery.
