Twin brothers Luke (left) and Justin Bennett celebrate after the Lion King Pageant on May 2. Justin was named "King."

Lions raise $18K for the babies

On Saturday, May 2, Justin Bennett was crowned king of the 21st annual Lion King Pageant — the capstone of a multi-month journey for eight senior boys of Cottage Grove High School to raise funds for the Sacred Heart Neonatal Unit and community awareness of children's health issues.

The Lion King contestants — which in addition to Bennett included his twin brother, Luke, Jacob Eckstine, Spencer Quimby, Jarett Raade, Cameron Sandoval, Elijah Shanklin and Kenny Thurman — raised nearly $18,000, which will be used to purchase vital medical equipment and supplies for treating sick and injured infants.

Prior to the May 2 pageant, the contestants spearheaded a variety of fundraising efforts including a penny drive at Latham School, a student vs. staff basketball game, a car wash and a family fun night carnival. They also served meals at El Tapatio restaurant, delivered a presentation to the Kiwanis Club and offered babysitting services in exchange for donations.

"After touring the NICU at Sacred Heart Medical Center and being born a twin, I felt grateful that I was not born premature or with complications," said Justin Bennett, who plans to pursue a career in health care. "The pageant has really shown me the difficulties that others have gone through, and how we,

as a community, can help them overcome these difficulties."

The mission of Children's Miracle Network is to help Sacred Heart Medical Center provide vital medical equipment used specifically for treating infants and children and to encourage community involvement in supporting excellence in medical care for all children, regardless of their injury, illness or ability to pay.

BOND COMMITTEE VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

South Lane County Fire & Rescue is looking for interested Fire District residents to serve on a Capital Equipment Bond Committee. Committee members will work with Fire District staff in analyzing Fire District needs, then prepare a recommendation to the Fire Board. Anyone interested should submit a letter of interest that includes a brief description of their background and why they believe they should be appointed to the Bond Committee. Letters of interest must be at the district office at 233 E. Harrison in Cottage Grove no later than 5:00 pm May 29th, 2015.
