

SPEEDWAY

Continued from 1B

Finally, the Hornets feature was a caution plagued affair. Westfir's Josh Corley was the car to beat for most of the race before some mechanical issues forced him to pull onto the infield with just a few laps to go. Joe Maricle of Veneta picked up where Corley left off and stayed out in front of the rest of the field for the final laps to get yet another win.

Cottage Grove Speedway was back in action on Tuesday-for the Wild West Modified Shootout.

This Friday will see the return of the Kage Karts for the third time in 2015. General Admission to the race is FREE and action starts around 6:30 p.m. Saturday is Retro T-Shirt Night. Classes on the card include the Extreme Sprints, Late Models, Street Stocks, and Dwarf Cars. Front gates open at 4:00 p.m., and racing begins right around 6:45.

KARTS

Justin Lemon of Fall Creek was the early race leader in the 125cc main event before Lebanon's Kyle Roles took over after a few laps. Roles mastered the restarts of the two cautions to get his first CGS win of 2015.

Brenden McMaster blazed the trail early in the 250cc ranks. But Conner Hanson of Creswell soon passed the Roseburg youngster. Hanson stayed in the position and dominated the rest of the distance to win for the first time at Cottage Grove.

Finally, the Open Kage division saw quite a battle for the lead. Oakland's Scott Fox got the lead early, but he would be under tremendous pressure for the entire distance. But Fox managed to stay out in front to hold on for the victory.

The next race for the Cottage Grove Speedway Kage Karts is Friday, June 19.
