Saturday

One More Time Marching Band

Saturday, July 18 at 11 a.m.
(after parade)

The One More Time Marching Band has been a Eugene-area institution since 1986 and is appearing on the BMD Main Stage for the fifth time. The band got its start playing in the Eugene Celebration parade and parades have remained close to their hearts. The band also loves playing at concerts in the parks, at baseball games and at all kinds of community celebrations. Following its appearance in Saturday morning's Grand Miner's Parade the band will give a 45-minute concert on Bohemia City's Gazebo Stage in Coiner Park. Don't miss it!

Dallas and PJ McCord

Saturday, July 18 at 1 p.m.

BMD welcomes Dallas and PJ McCord for their debut performance at Bohemia Mining Days on the Cultural Stage on Saturday at 1 p.m. Sponsored by Seeds of Change, "The Cowboy Way" show blends Western music and cowboy poetry with a bit of cowboy wisdom and logic. Dallas & PJ are founders of the Coast Fork Cowboy Festival, a fundraiser held in Creswell from 2005 to 2009, to support music programs in area school districts. The event gave locals a taste of Western music and cowboy poetry. Dallas & PJ are currently settled in Creswell, OR. For booking information call 541-514-1575 or visit: <http://www.dallasmccord.com>

Opal Center Band Camp

BMD welcomes to the Main Stage the 2015 Opal Center Band Camp on Saturday afternoon at 1:30 p.m. and is presented by KSOW Radio.

The Opal Center for Arts and Education's Summer Band Camp is led by Mallory Glaser and Robert Lee. It began June 15 at the Opal Center with approximately 10 young students. Divided into 2 five-member bands, they have been learning new instruments, how to play in a band, and to play at least two songs together, which will be covers of modern songs as well as some classics. Located in the Historic Downtown District at 513 E. Main Street, the Opal Center for Arts and Education is Cottage Grove's Downtown Art Center, which supports and showcases our community's creativity through classes, theatre, and the arts.

Annie Mae Rhodes Band

Saturday, July 18 at 3 p.m.

BMD welcomes The Annie Mae Rhodes Band back to the Main Stage on Saturday at 3:30 p.m.

Annie is well-known in South Lane County from her many appearances at fairs, charitable benefits and special events. She and her band members enjoy entertaining audiences with a wide variety of music – from bluegrass to country to oldies to original music. It's a unique collection of great musicians who love what they do and they do it well. Feel free to clap along, tap your toe – or even get up and dance!
