Did you know?

In the summer of 1926, Buster Keaton used the Old Slow and Easy short line to film his movie, "The General."

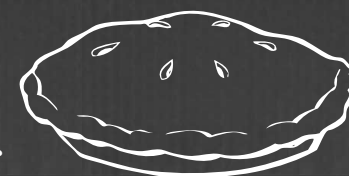

In the 1960s, during Bohemia Mining Days, a popular excursion train carried thousands of people to Disston and back as the Prospectors and Goldiggers Club, the Cottage Grove Riding Club and the local Jaycees staged train robberies to the delight of all ages.

In 1986, the movie "Stand by Me" was filmed along the OP&E railroad tracks next to Dorena Lake.
