Austin had his hands full in the final laps with two other cars trying to overtake him, and coming to the white flag his right rear tire would go flat and take him out of contention. Springfield driver Daniel Ray was there to capitalize for the victory — his first in the Hornet ranks.

Jim Simmons of Cottage Grove was second, and Marcel Forte from Junction City came in third. The rest of the top five was made up of K.C. Scott from Springfield and Andrew Mathers out of Eugene.

The Late Model Lites made their first visit of 2015 to CGS. Portland's Randy Hansen went wire-to-wire for the victory.
 Second place was Lee Doty of Central Point, and Prineville pilot Dan Prewitt was third.

Cottage Grove Speedway will be in action on Saturday, Aug. 1, for the Wallbanger Cup run in memory of Mark Howard. This is the biggest Street Stock race of the season and will be attracting some really fast cars. Also racing will be the Clark Printing Extreme Sprints,

SPORTS BRIEFS

Stovall golf tourney to be held Saturday

The 20th annual Charlie Stovall Memorial Golf Tournament will be held Saturday, Aug.
 1 at Middlefield Golf Course.
 Registration begins at 7:15 a.m. and a shotgun start will commence at 8 a.m. The entry fee for a team (four players) is $180, and $50 for an individual.
 A barbeque and prize drawing will follow the event.

The tournament is hosted annually by the Kiwanis Club of Cottage Grove to support area high schools.

Those seeking more information may contact Kurt Walker at 541-942-7700, Mike Stovall at 541-942-7796, or email cgkiwanis@gmail.com.

Pickleball debuts in Cottage Grove

Pickleball, one of the fastest growing sports in America, has made its debut in Cottage Grove. The sport is low impact and provides fun and competition for all ages. The game is played on a court that is one-third the size of a tennis court and blends the skills of tennis, ping-pong and badminton. The Cottage Grove pickleball club is currently painting the pickleball courts on the Coiner Park tennis courts so that either sport could be played on any of the courts.

The pickleball club has scheduled to meet at the following times: Mondays and Fridays at 9 a.m., Wednesdays at 7 p.m. and Saturdays at 12 p.m. Players are encouraged to come participate or watch; extra paddles are available for play.

Meeting times will be adjusted as daylight hours change.
 The club will be moving into the Armory for the "wet season".
 Those seeking more information may contact Ken Welker at 541-729-2077.

Register now for bowling

Don't let a few years of age stop you from having fun bowling. The Senior Citizens Bowling League starts on Wednesday, Sept. 2 at the Family Fun Bowling Center, 279 3rd St., in Drain. All seniors 55 and older who are interested in joining an active group of senior bowlers are encouraged to register now.
 Those seeking more information or to register may contact Ginny at 541-510-0160, or Darlene at 541-836-7643.

Sign up now for free youth pheasant hunts in September

SALEM, Ore.—Registration is now open for ODFW's free pheasant hunts for youth (age 17 and under) happening around the state in September.

The events are being held in Baker City, Central Point, Corvallis, Eugene, Hermiston, John Day, Klamath Falls, La Grande, Madras, Portland, The Dalles (Tygh Valley). Dates and registration information can be found online, at a license sales agent or at an ODFW office that sells licenses

ODFW and partners stock pheasants at these special hunts that give youth a head start on regular pheasant seasons, which don't begin until October. Quail and dove may also be hunted.
 Volunteers often bring their trained hunting dogs to hunt with participants. Some events also begin with a shotgun skills clinic, so participants can practice clay target shooting before hunting.

With the exception of a mentored youth hunt at EE Wilson Wildlife Area near Corvallis on Sept. 20, these events are only open to youth who have passed hunter education. (ODFW has many hunter education classes and field days available before the events.) An adult 21 years of age or older must accompany the youth to supervise but may not hunt.

"If your child made it through hunter education but is still new to the sport, this is a great way to get them started," says James Reed, ODFW hunter education coordinator. "These events happen before regular pheasant seasons open and are a great opportunity for kids to get out hunting."

ODFW stresses safety during the hunts. Both hunter and supervisor must wear a hunter orange hat, eye protection and a hunter orange vest—equipment provided by ODFW at the clinics to anyone who doesn't have it.
 Hunters also need to check in and out of the hunt.

The hunts are free, though youth hunters need a valid hunting license ($14.50) and Harvest Information Program validation (free) to hunt. Youth hunters age 14-17 also need an upland game bird validation ($8.50). Purchase online, at a license sales agent or ODFW office that sells licenses. Licenses and tags will not be sold at the events.

While most areas have a hunt both Saturday and Sunday, youth hunters may only sign up for one hunt. They are welcome to hunt stand by on the other day.
