Season Outlook:

Head Coach Gary Roberts and his team are coming out with heads held high. After a strong week of practice and an impressive scrimmage, Roberts believes his team "looks a lot sharper" than last year. The team lost offensive lineman Daniel Romero and running back/defensive back Johnny Conrad, along with starting center Austin Gordon, who transferred from Cottage Grove. However, Roberts is confident with the players who have stepped up, such as wide receiver/linebacker Brynden Howell, wide receiver/defensive back Reily Boyce and Kory Parent, who threw well during the scrimmage game.
