

Latin rhythms fuel downtown Fiesta

Art Walk celebrates Fiesta Cultural

Latino arts and culture figured prominently into Friday's Downtown Art Walk in Cottage Grove, one of four art walks chosen as part of a county-wide initiative of the Lane Arts Council. Attendees were able to enjoy tamales at All-America City Square, where Orquesta La Combinación with Xavier Tavera brought salsa rhythm to several downtown city blocks. Educational art panels on Main Street also helped commemorate Latino culture. At the Opal Center for Arts and Education, Ballet Tlanese, an independent dance troupe based in Salem, showcased the many musical styles of Mexico through dances and songs that incorporated the costumes, music and footwork of eight Mexican states. Director Paola Sumoza said that the group's repertoire includes music from the north of Mexico, where tunes have a decidedly "countryish" feel, and from the south, where marimba and harp sounds are the norm. Cottage Grove will host one more Downtown Art Walk in 2015, which will take place on Friday, Oct. 30 at participating downtown businesses.
