Lions host Harrier's Challenge in last home meet of the season

With close to 500 athletes competing, Cottage Grove's Harrier's Challenge is another wild success with great weather

Saturday, Sept. 19's Three-Course Challenge was a prelude to the excitement of the Harrier's Challenge in Cottage Grove four days later.

At the Three Course Challenge, freshman Tyra Gordon shone in the 5,000-meter hard course with a time of 30 minutes flat, followed by junior Allie Harris with a time of 30:55 and senior Kale'a Galbreath with the same time of 30:55. For the boys, the top runners were freshman Konrad Raum with an outstanding time of 21:46 in the 5,000-meter hard course, and senior Ryan Barger with a time of 24:38.

The Lions cross country team then looked toward Schwarz Park and Dorena Lake on Wednesday, Sept. 23 for the Harrier's challenge, another 5,000-meter race.

The event saw the attendance of close to 500 athletes and included a new course for the middle school 3,000-meter race. The 5,000-meter race for the varsity squads also saw some course improvements.

Raum led the way again in this race, finishing with a time of 19:01 and placing 16th overall. He was followed by Barger with a time of 20:54, and then senior Connor Howard with 21:30 and junior Max Gause with 23:23.

For the girls it was the freshman Gordon again, who completed the race with a time of 25:52 and placing 33rd overall for the girls. She was again accompanied by Harris (26:14) and Galbreath (26:26), but the girls also saw impressive times by freshmen Lexie Hall and Kenzie
