Cross Country

Parsons, who both finished in 27:42.
The record for the boys was nearly broken on Wednesday by a Jefferson student. Sophomore Hassan Ibrahim finished the 5,000 meter race with an amazing time of 16:45, just four seconds off the course's record of 16:41.
"We lucked out once again with beautiful weather on Wednesday," Head Coach Jim Settelmeyer said. "It was such a great turnout, we almost had too many spectators."
Settelmeyer explained that at one point, so many people were coming to watch the event that cars were spilling onto parts of the course where participants were running.
"We smoothed things out and it wasn't huge problem," said Settelmeyer. The Head Coach reported that many participants claimed this race was one of if not their favorite race all year.
"I think it's really owed to all of our great volunteers, they did a wonderful job," he said.
