An Independent Yarn

Julie Knurowski grew up on her grandparents farm in a family with a long Oregon history. She received her love of nature from her grandmother which eventually led to working in the field of botany. Julie has two grown daughters and two grandchildren that keep her busy when she isn't knitting or volunteering for various nature or environmental groups. Retired from work as a botanist she is now owner of "An Independent Yarn".

Cottage Grove Sentinel

I'm Robin Reiser. I've been working at the Cottage Grove Sentinel as an assistant to the General Manager/ Outside Sales person since 2008. I've also spent time as a customer service representative in the front office for 3 1/2 years before that. I've lived in Cottage Grove since I was a year old. I love spending time with my family. I'm married and have 2 children, Josh and Brittany. I also have 4 granddaughters, Kenzlei Bayleigh, Laurel, and Annalynne. (The loves of my life!) When I'm not working, I try and fit in as much camping, and traveling as possible. At home my hobbies include gardening and all sorts of crafts.

Cottage Grove Sentinel

This is my first real job and I couldn't be happier. Everyone is super welcoming and kind. In my spare time I make jewelry, draw and hang out with loved ones. I hope to one day get my '66 bug and attenda Beauty College in Eugene. I enjoy singing, dancing, rain, tattoos & piercings. My dear Ethan mean the world to me. My mother is the strongest, greatest woman alive. Peace Out.
