

Young BMX star takes home state championship for under-fives league

Zane Piper of Cottage Grove won his state championship race and took third overall for the season in the 5-and-under novice/intermediate class group on Sept. 13 in Grants Pass. Piper races out of Eugene at Emerald BMX. For the State Championship Race series, he raced 10 races that included Medford, Roseburg, Bend, Redmond, Mollala, St Helens and the host site of the Championships finals, Grants Pass. The State Championship Race was his 10th first-place race for the season, which moves him up to the intermediate class. Zane is currently a member of Hyper Body Armor national amateur BMX team. He aspires to continue racing through his teen years and represent the US in the Olympics.
