CGHS students to grant $5K to local nonprofit

With a generous donation from the Coast Fork Fund of the Oregon Community Foundation, the Cottage Grove High School Link Leader Class has partnered with the Community 101 program to grant $5,000 to a nonprofit organization in the area.

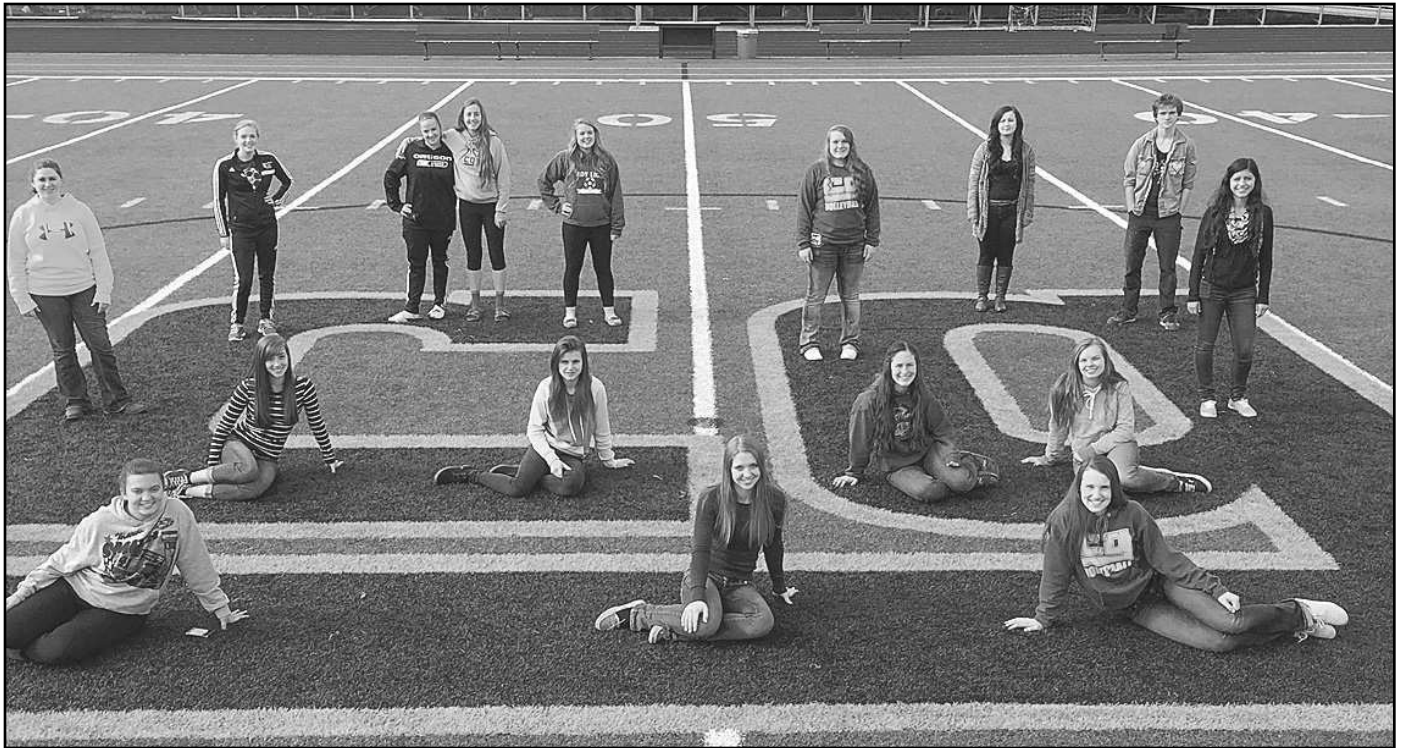

Students participating in the Community 101 program learn to identify community issues, research and interview nonprofits and review grant applications.

The student body and Link Crew class have decided to focus on organizations that improve the lives of families by creating stable foundations and reconstructing the environment for a safer community.

This may include programs dealing with child abuse, inadequate housing or poverty, hunger or poor education.

Grant applications are available to nonprofit organizations within South Lane County and are due by Jan. 15, 2016.

For more information, contact Ricky Knutson at 541-942-3391 or Ricky.Knutson@Slane.k12.or.us.

Cottage Grove High School students in the Link Leader Class have partnered with the Community 101 program to help a south Lane County nonprofit. Grant applications are available with a deadline of Jan. 15.

"The students are excited to research and support nonprofits in our community. It is a great opportunity for them to learn more about what goes on outside the walls of our school," said Knutson.

Administered by the Oregon Community Foundation and the PGE Foundation, Community 101 is a classroom-based program that provides student leadership and civic engagement through charitable giving. Community 101 students have granted over $2.2 million to Oregon nonprofits since 1997.

For more information about how to become involved or to sponsor a class at the local high school, contact Jenessa Datema, Oregon Community Foundation, at 503-227-6846.

'The Lion, the Witch and the Wardrobe' opens Dec. 4

Cottage Theatre concludes its 2015 season with a family-friendly production of the classic "Narnia" tale by C.S. Lewis, "The Lion, the Witch, and the Wardrobe." The theater will present a stage adaptation by playwright Joseph Robinette.

The original Lewis book, the second and most famous in the seven-volume "Narnia" series, has been in continuous publication since 1956, and translated into more than 40 languages. Cottage Theatre's production opens a three-weekend run starting on Friday, Dec. 4.

This magical dramatization of the C.S. Lewis classic faithfully recreates the adventures of four children who wander, quite by accident, from an old wardrobe into the exciting and unusual land of Narnia.

Filled with action, poignancy and intrigue, the adventure unfolds as the evil White Witch tries to keep Narnia in an endless icy winter and to end the reign of Aslan, the Lion.

Amidst battles and struggles, Edmund, Peter, Susan, and Lucy discover the truth of the "prophecy" that only they can fulfill.

This story of love, faith, courage and redemption, with its triumph of good over evil, is a true celebration of life.

Cottage Theatre's production of "The Lion, the Witch, and the Wardrobe" is directed by Kory Weimer. Set design is by Janet Whitlow, lighting design by Amanda Ferguson and costume design by Marjorie Steen and Chris Carter.

The production features Janet Whitlow as the White Witch, Randall Brous as Aslan the lion, Jacksen Lund as Edmund, John Parker as Peter, Megan Schneider as Susan and Kenady Conforth as Lucy.

They are supported by a large cast that includes creatures of all sorts, such as wolves, foxes, beavers, falcons, spectors, a centaur and a unicorn. Even Father Christmas makes an appearance!

"The Lion, the Witch, and the Wardrobe" runs for 11 performances at Cottage Theatre from Dec. 4 through 20. Performances are Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings at 8 p.m. and Sunday afternoons at 2:30 p.m.

Tickets are available online at www.cottagetheatre.org, by phone at 541-942-8001, or in person at the Cottage Theatre Box Office, 700 Village Drive.

Tickets are $19 for adults and $16 for youth (ages 6 to 18). Box Office hours are Wednesday through Friday, 10 a.m. to 2 p.m., and one hour before performances. Advance purchase is recommended.
