Boys' Basketball on a roll

The boys' basketball team won yet another close game on Tuesday, Dec. 15 against North Bend. The Lions went up quickly after a series of three pointers by juniors Kory Parent and Blake Sentman in the first quarter, and then the Lions held off what seemed to be a North Bend comeback in the fourth quarter, winning 55-51.

Head Coach Donn Pollard says that his team is on schedule in terms of their season expectations. The close game against North Bend came directly after an overtime thriller against Stayton, where the Lions came out victorious, 63-59.

"That's probably the best 0-4 team in the state," Pollard said of North Bend. "They had some pretty big kids, and even one of their biggest was out for that game, but give credit to our players who made plays down the stretch." Cottage Grove then went on to play against Siuslaw in Florence, where they ran over the Vikings 59-30.

"I was satisfied with how we played, although we played a team that probably isn't very strong at the moment," Pollard said.

Pollard believes his team is "about where I thought we'd be" at this point in the season. The head coach still looks to improve his team, specifically in being able to score transition baskets and to be able to create more runs during a game. The Lions take on Blanchet in Salem this week, where Pollard predicts a tough game will play out.
