

OUR NEIGHBORHOOD

Community snapshots from community members

photo by Bruce Kelsh

Mrs. Santa Claus and Linda the Elf share a smile at the Library's holiday event Dec. 14.

photo by Jon Stinnett

Northwest blues legend Curtis Salgado performs with guitarist Alan Hager at the Axe & fiddle Pub Saturday night.

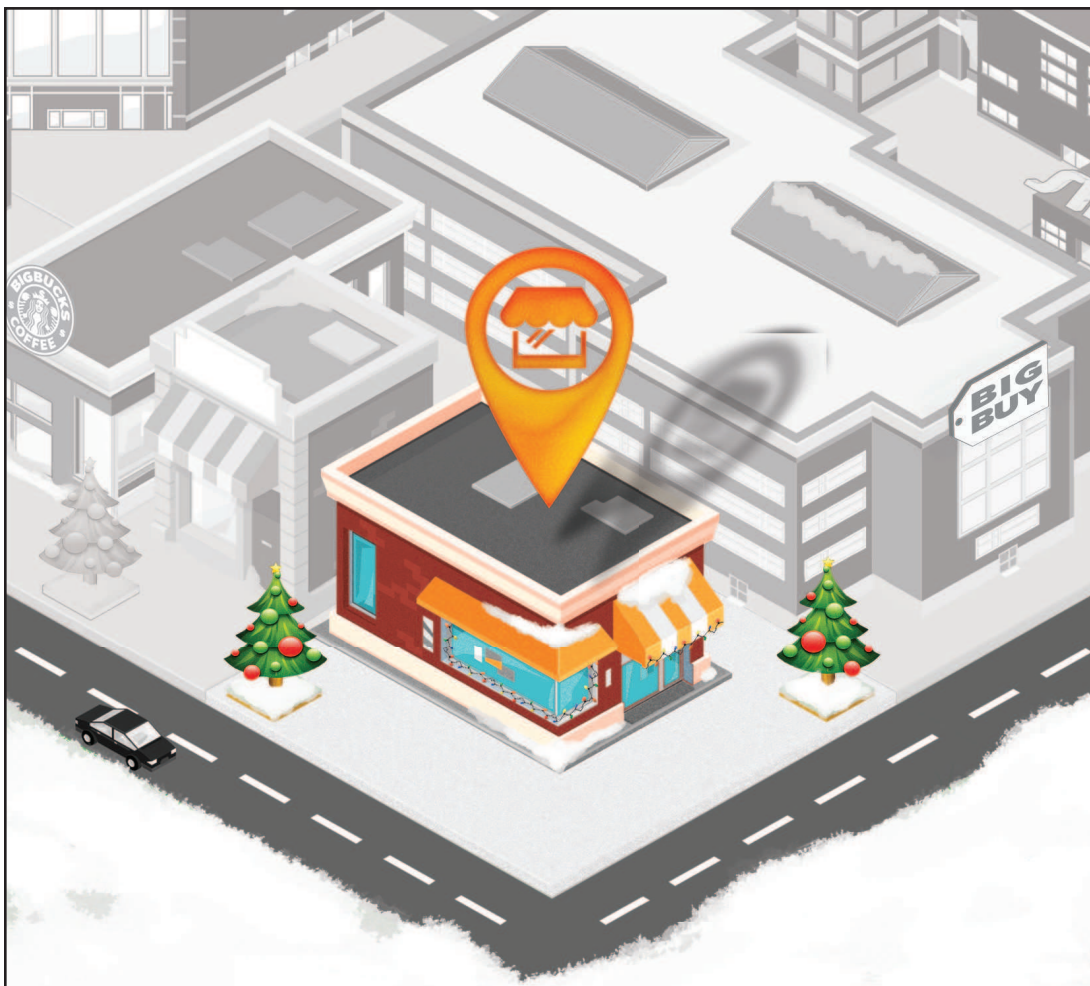

photo by Mindy Bench

Longtime Magnolia Gardens resident Vickie Whetham (center) with friends Nalene Taylor and Ula Strickland. Whetham celebrated her 101st birthday this month.

photo by Leif Williams

A snowy lift awaits skiers at Hoodoo Ski Area.

Everything you need this holiday season without leaving town.

The weather outside can be frightful but a good deal can be delightful. Stay close to home for the holidays with your local online business directory provided by your home town newspaper.

We say let it snow, let it snow, let it snow.

Cottage Grove Sentinel

shoppe
Keep it local.

 ANSWERS ON:
Service

"SOMETIMES MOTHER NATURE CAN OVERPOWER US. BUT NOT FOR LONG."

- Jeremy, Journeyman Lineman

We work hard to make sure you have safe, reliable electricity. That means tackling tough jobs and being ready to roll when storms hit. You can help by being prepared for unexpected outages with flashlights, extra batteries, blankets and bottled water. Mother Nature can be unpredictable, but our dedication to you never will be.

Download our free mobile app to easily report an outage or get an outage update. Learn more at pacificpower.net/outage.

PACIFIC POWER

Let's turn the answers on.